* Please be aware that as part of the National Football League's agreement with NBC to televise Sunday Night Football, the NFL has implemented a flexible schedule for Sunday start times for the final eight weeks of the season.

This will allow the NFL to bring more attractive match–ups to a national audience late in the season. If any of the 49ers games are moved from the original start time, fans will be notified 12 days prior to the date of the game with the exception of a Week 17 game, where the notification will be six days to ensure a Sunday Night game with playoff implications. Starting time changes will be publicized on 49ers.com and through the local print, electronic and internet media.

EDWARD J. DEBARTOLO SR. 49ERS HALL OF FAME

The San Francisco 49ers are arguably one of the most fabled sports franchises in history. With the multitude of memories that the team's history holds, a place to honor and capture these tremendous times and legendary figures only seems appropriate.

During the 2009 offseason, the San Francisco 49ers and the York family proudly introduced the creation of the Edward J. DeBartolo Sr. 49ers Hall of Fame, named in honor of the beloved patriarch of the storied franchise. The 49ers Hall of Fame was established to recognize players, administrators and coaches who have made exceptional contributions to the organization.

SAN FRANCISCO 49ERS
HALL of FAME

"As someone who was raised alongside the many greats who donned the red and gold," said team President Jed York, "I am tremendously honored to be announcing the creation of the Edward J. DeBartolo Sr. 49ers Hall of Fame. This exclusive club will be comprised of those people who have made our franchise what it is today."

A week after the creation of the new 49ers Hall of Fame, Jed York announced the name of its inaugural inductee, his uncle, Edward J. DeBartolo Jr., known as "Mr. D" to most close to the 49ers family. He is set to be officially inducted during halftime of the team's home opener versus the Seattle Seahawks on September 20, 2009.

"This is such a great honor for me," said DeBartolo. "I would like to thank my nephew Jed and the entire 49ers family for selecting me to be the first member of the 49ers Hall of Fame. I was truly fortunate to have had so many great people around me, starting with my dear friend, and the greatest coach of all time, the late Bill Walsh, and the Hall of Fame players who one day will be inducted alongside me into the 49ers Hall of Fame. I always say I was born in Youngstown, Ohio, but I was really born 32 years ago in San Francisco when my family acquired the 49ers."

Being inducted into the 49ers Hall of Fame is no easy task, and the selection process reflects the level of honor which it bestows. As a prerequisite for induction, all 49ers Hall of Fame candidates must have displayed one or more of the following qualifications: outstanding production and performance on the field, key contributions to the team's success, and/or the embodiment of the spirit and essence of the San Francisco 49ers.

A number of players and coaches have already been recognized in various ways throughout the years for their contributions to the game of professional football and the 49ers organization. Accordingly, the franchise has automatically enshrined members of the 49ers family who have either had their jersey numbers already retired by the organization or have been selected to the Pro Football Hall of Fame in Canton, Ohio. These players include: John Brodie, Dwight Clark, Fred Dean, Jimmy Johnson, John Henry Johnson, Charlie Krueger, Ronnie Lott, Hugh McElhenny, Joe Montana, Leo Nomellini, Joe Perry, Bob St. Clair, Y.A. Tittle, Bill Walsh, Dave Wilcox and Steve Young.

During Alumni Weekend, to be held on October 11, 2009 against the Atlanta Falcons, the 49ers will honor the automatic enshrinement of the above players during halftime of the game.

Members of the 49ers Hall of Fame will be recognized at Candlestick Park, in a special display highlighted by plaques designed in each inductee's likeness.

Following the induction of Edward J. DeBartolo Jr. in 2009, the 49ers organization will look to enshrine at least two members in the ensuing years. A selection committee comprised of internal and external members will present ownership with an annual list of candidates. Once that list has been approved, the 49ers are welcoming their Faithful to help select each year's induction class via the team's official website, www.49ers.com.

DENISE DEBARTOLO YORK AND JOHN YORK
CO-CHAIRMEN

Denise and John York bring long and distinguished careers in sports and business to their roles as Co–Chairmen of the San Francisco 49ers, where they combine their pas–sion for building a championship team with their com–mitment to being the best possible business partners and community citizens.

A THIRTY YEAR LEGACY IN BUSINESS AND PRO SPORTS

Since Denise's father, Edward J. DeBartolo Sr., purchased the 49ers in 1977, she has been an integral part of more than three decades of 49ers football, including 36 playoff contests and five Super Bowl victories. Earlier in her ca–reer, Denise served as President of the Pittsburgh Penguins hockey team. Under her leadership, the Penguins were re–vitalized and transformed into a championship team and she became the first woman to have her name engraved on Lord Stanley's Cup.

A successful entrepreneur, John spent years as Senior Vice President/Director of Racing Operations for the DeBartolo Corporation, instituting programs designed to enhance the fan experience and raise the profile of thoroughbred horse racing. John, a noted patholo–gist, began his business career in 1982 as founder of DeYor Laboratories in Youngstown, Ohio. From three employees, he molded the company into a 500–per–son operation with facilities in three states before selling the company to Corning, Inc. in 1993.

As owners of the 49ers, Denise and John provide the resources and guidance to uphold the 49ers celebrated history and oversee the team's relation–ship with the Commissioner of the National Football League and other team owners.

TAKING A LEADERSHIP ROLE IN THE NFL

Denise and John's dedication to the sport of football ex–tends to the top levels of the NFL.

Denise is an active member of the Pro Football Hall of Fame Committee, where she helps to oversee the League's ongoing support of the museum that pays tribute to the triumphs of pro football's greatest stars, including 13 leg–endary members of the San Francisco 49ers.

John is Chairman of the NFL's International Committee. Under his leadership, the 49ers became the first team to play a regular season game outside the boarders of the United States, taking on the Arizona Cardinals in front of 100,000 fans at Azteca Stadium in Mexico City. Under John's direction, the League has expanded its presence abroad with regular season games the past two years as Wimbley Stadium in London, England. John also sits on the League's Audit and Business Ventures Committees, which help to ensure the NFL's standing as the preeminent brand in all of professional sports.

CELEBRATING THE TEAM'S LEGENDARY HISTORY

Denise and John have played a pivotal role in reaching out to former players and coaches to help celebrate six monu–mental decades of 49ers football. Over the past decade, Denise and John have brought back every Hall of Fame enshrinee from the 49ers to be honored at Candlestick Park for their tremendous contributions to Bay Area sports. Under their guidance, the team enhanced its annual alumni weekend event to give all players who have donned the red and gold throughout the team's history a chance to catch up with old friends. As part of the event, the former players are recognized on the field during a half–time celebration at Candlestick Park, where so many of them made their mark on history. They have also worked with players like Joe Montana and Dwight Clark, and the members of the 1981 49ers defense to re–enact and commemorate some of the team's most famous plays such as "The Catch" and the goal line stand that propelled the team to its first Super Bowl victory.

ENHANCING THE FAN EXPERIENCE

Denise and John are dedicated to embracing the passion of 49ers fans everywhere. They are committed to giving fans an opportunity to experience the excitement of 49ers football year–round. From the team's annual Winter and Wine Fest charity event in Lake Tahoe each winter, to its Draft Day celebration in Santa Clara each spring, to Family Day at Candlestick Park each summer, they have made it their mission to embrace the fans as family.

In their efforts to extend the interaction between the fans and the players and coaches, Denise and John have opened a portion of the team's training camp to the pub–lic since 2005, giving more than 100,000 49ers fans the opportunity to meet the team before the first snap of the football season.

On game days, they have spearheaded the effort to cre–ate a great atmosphere for fans by making significant enhancements to Candlestick Park, from the creation of the Alumni Tailgate Party and Faithful City, to improvements inside the stadium such as new flat screen TVs, new escalators and remodeled restrooms.

They've also provided new opportunities for fans to participate in the excitement of 49ers football by giving local musicians the oppor–tunity to sing the national anthem in front of 68,000 fans at the 'Stick, and providing op–portunities to local talent to participate in half–time events on the field.

MAKING A DIFFERENCE IN THE LIVES OF OTHERS

Under the leadership of Denise and John, the team's community outreach programs and 49ers Foundation have grown tremendously.

Last year, 49ers players, coaches, staff and alumni par–ticipated in community events throughout the Bay Area as part of the team's award–winning RESPECT community outreach program. The 49ers Foundation has also grown tremendously, from raising and donating $200,000 per year to Bay Area non–profit organizations, to a record $1.6 million in 2008, bringing the total to more than $8.2 million over the last seven years.

In recognition of their community involvement, the couple was recently honored with the 2008 Silicon Valley Ex–emplary Community Leadership Award by Silicon Valley FACES, a non–profit organization dedicated to fighting bias and racism in the South Bay Area. In 2005, Denise and John were honored with the Outstanding Corporate Philanthropy Award at the Catholic Charities/Catholic Youth Organization's Loaves & Fishes Dinner for their remarkable contributions to the San Francisco community.

The couple's passion for community involvement extends beyond the Bay Area as well. John was recently honored with the Loyola University's Strich Medal – the highest honor awarded by the school – for his ongoing contribu–tions to his alma mater. In 2008, Denise and John were honored with the Youngstown Hearing & Speech Center's 2008 Great Communicators Award in recognition of their philanthropic leadership. They were also inducted into the Curbstone Coaches Hall of Fame in Boardman, Ohio, in 2007 for generously giving their time and resources to the Mahoning Valley community.

PUTTING FAMILY FIRST

Though Denise and John have accomplished much in their professional careers, they first define themselves as hus–band, wife and parents.

Their eldest son, Jed, now carries on the family's legacy begun by his grandfather Edward J. DeBartolo Sr., his Uncle Eddie DeBartolo Jr. and his parents, by serving as President of the 49ers. Their son, Tony, is currently an en–trepreneur in the high–tech industry in Silicon Valley, and twins Jenna and Mara are pursuing careers in viticulture in the Napa Valley.

The family enjoys visiting the variety of San Francisco's ethnic restaurants, traveling and of course, game day.

JED YORK
PRESIDENT

As President of the San Francisco 49ers, Jed York oversees the team's day–to–day operations and all aspects of the or–ganization. Upon assuming the position in December, 2008, York has made bold decisions to shape the team into a Super Bowl contender and recognize the ongoing passion of the team's faithful fans.

BUILDING A CHAMPIONSHIP TEAM

York's first act as President was the hiring of Mike Single–tary to be the 16th Head Coach in 49ers history. Under York's direction, Coach Singletary and General Manager Scot Mc–Cloughan have taken every step possible to improve the team's performance on the field. York directed the organiza–tion to undertake a major renovation of the 49ers practice facility in Santa Clara to significantly enhance the team's weight room, locker rooms and team meeting rooms in order to give players the tools they need to be successful. Likewise, he bolstered the team's football affairs and alumni outreach departments, led by former 49ers linebacker and four–time Super Bowl champion Keena Turner, to help the players better themselves off the field and prepare for life after football.

RECOGNIZING THE 49ERS FAITHFUL

A 49ers fan since birth, York recognizes that the success of the 49ers hinges on the team's faithful fans, and he is com–mitted to honoring them for their passion and enthusiasm.

The York–led management team started by making the bold decision to freeze prices on all tickets for the 2009 season. But perhaps his most popular move as President was to di–rect the organization to create new uniforms for the 49ers that connect the team's future aspirations to its champion–ship glory years of the 1980s and 1990s. He also created a new ticket sales and services department to give each season ticket holder a personal representative and point of contact within the organization. To give fans a forum to interact di–rectly with the team's leaders, he instituted a public "State of the Franchise" meeting for season ticket holders, where they had an opportunity to listen to the team's plans for the future and ask questions directly of himself, McCloughan, Singletary, and Chief Operating Officer Andy Dolich.

York is also leading the charge to build a new state–of–the–art stadium for 49ers fans to secure a long–term home for the team in the Bay Area. The 49ers recently completed a term sheet for a new stadium in Santa Clara, and a public vote is expected in 2010. York has spent many evenings meeting with Santa Clara residents in small gatherings to personally tell them about the team's plans, listen to their feedback and answer their questions.

He is also working with the City of San Francisco to take steps to maintain and enhance Candlestick Park. Under York's leadership, the team is instituting a new 49ers hall of fame to commemorate the significant accomplishments of some of the team's biggest stars. Named for his grandfather and the beloved patriarch of the 49ers, the Edward J. DeBartolo Sr. 49ers Hall of Fame automatically inducted those 49ers greats that have either had their jersey numbers retired by the team or have been inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame, upon its creation. York shortly thereafter announced the Hall of Fame's inaugural inductee, his uncle, Edward J. DeBartolo Jr., who will be enshrined during the 2009 season. "Mr. D," as he was fondly known, was the legendary owner of the 49ers who led the franchise through its glory years.

CARRYING ON THE FAMILY'S LEGACY

York's roots with the 49ers run deep. He is the oldest child of Denise and John York, the co–chairmen of the team. York's uncle and godfather, Eddie, has long served as his mentor.

Prior to York's role as President, he served as the team's Vice President of Strategic Planning, where he was responsible for the integration of brand strategies and projects related to the long–term operational and financial development of the organization. Previously, as Director of Strategic Plan–ning, he aided the restructuring of the team's coaching and player personnel departments, including the hiring of General Manager Scot McCloughan and the team's coaching staff. He joined the organization in 2005 as Special Projects Manager. In that capacity, he spent time learning how each department works together to achieve the team's goals both on the field and in the community.

York began his career as a financial analyst at Guggenheim Partners, a diversified financial services firm. He worked in the firm's New York office in several areas, including private wealth management, hedge funds risk analysis, and collater–alized debt obligations.

Born and raised in Youngstown, Ohio, York attended the Uni–versity of Notre Dame, where he earned a degree in both fi–nance and history. There, he was recognized for his scholastic achievements with induction into the Phi Alpha Theta National History Honors Society.

York credits his parents, his uncle Eddie, and his grandfather Edward J. DeBartolo Sr., a successful real estate developer, as being positive role models and for teaching him character values such as integrity, a strong work ethic, and respect for others. He is pleased to carry on his family's commitment to community service as a member of the Board of Directors of the Bayview Hunters Point YMCA, which has been a major beneficiary of the 49ers Foundation.

Besides his tremendous passion for the 49ers, York enjoys traveling, fishing, and playing cards, which he learned from his grandfather.

FRANKLIN MIEULI
49ERS LIMITED PARTNER

Mieuli's longtime interest and love for sports sparked his future involvement in the professional sports teams that have brought him five Super Bowl championship rings as a limited partner with the 49ers and one NBA World Championship as the former owner of the Golden State Warriors.

In 1949, he accepted a position in the advertising department of the San Francisco Brewing Company, makers of Burgermeister beer. "Burgie" sponsored broadcasts of 49ers football games and in 1954, Mieuli produced the team's first telecasts. Through his business relationship and friendship with Tony and Vic Morabito, the original owners of the 49ers, Franklin was offered the opportunity to purchase a share of the club, and today still holds stake in the 49ers franchise.

When the New York Giants moved west in 1958, Horace Stoneham offered Mieuli stock in the San Francisco Giants. In 1962, Franklin and a group of his friends also purchased the Philadelphia Warriors and the San Francisco Warriors were born. He became the only sportsman to have ownerships in three major league sports teams in the same area.

In the 25 years after he acquired majority ownership, the San Francisco and now Golden State Warriors were in the playoffs ten times, won four division titles and a World Championship in 1974–75. Mieuli is the first professional sports team owner to have named an African American as his head coach, Alvin Attles, a member of the team that moved west from Philadelphia. His longtime friend has served with the Warriors as a player, head coach, administrator, vice president and assistant general manager and in his 48th year with the club, is now a Warriors' ambassador.

Simultaneously, as president of Franklin Mieuli and Associates Radio and TV Production Co., he acquired radio and TV production rights to the Giants, 49ers and Warriors' games and engineered games for the A's and Raiders' broadcasts. He produced and handled the radio coverage for the 1960 Winter Olympics at Squaw Valley with Lon Simmons, Russ Hodges, Gordy Soltau and Marty Martin as his broadcasting crew. Today, his company, managed by long–time employee Shirley Figgins Mortensen, continues to provide the radio engineering for 25 sports teams, including baseball, football, hockey and basketball, throughout the U.S. and Canada. He also owned radio stations, KPUP, (KHIP and KMPX) in San Francisco and was an owner of KTMX in Colusa, CA.

Mieuli received a degree in advertising from the University of Oregon and served a stint in the U.S. Navy during World War II.

Mieuli and his former wife, Hilles Parish Cribari, are the parents of three children, seven grandchildren and five great–children. Ms. Blake Green, Mieuli's loving companion for the past 30 years, was formerly a feature writer for the San Francisco Chronicle and Newsday in New York.

SCOT MCCLOUGHAN
GENERAL MANAGER

With 15 years of NFL experience under his belt with championship caliber teams, Scot McCloughan enters his second season as the General Manager of the 49ers. Prior to assuming his role in 2008, he served the previous three years as the team's Vice President of Player Personnel.

"Scot McCloughan is just the man we need guiding the personnel decisions of this franchise," said team President Jed York. "He's a cool customer who handles pressure situations well. His pedigree is that of a true football man. Scot has been an integral part of championship teams in the past, and we are confident that he will be a part of another one here with the 49ers in the near future."

As the man in charge of the 49ers roster, McCloughan not only decides which players come and go through the doors of the team's practice facility, but he also oversees the management of the team's salary cap and player contracts. While working hand–in–hand with Head Coach Mike Singletary, McCloughan translates the needs of the 49ers coaching staff into a plan of attack for building the roster.

Under his direction in 2009, the 49ers netted arguably the most explosive player in the NFL Draft in WR Michael Crabtree with the 10th overall pick. McCloughan later engineered a draft–day trade providing the 49ers a second first–round draft pick in the 2010 draft from the Carolina Panthers, in return for the team's second and fourth round picks in 2009, 43rd and 111th overall, respectively.

Upon his arrival in San Francisco from his former post as the Director of College Scouting for the Seattle Seahawks, McCloughan had just over two months to devise a plan for the 2005 free agency period and the NFL Draft. Along with his tireless routine of preparation, McCloughan possesses an acute memory. It served him well heading into his first draft in San Francisco, where he had to put together a draft board based on the needs of a team he barely knew.

In 2005, 10 of the team's 11 draft picks made the roster, including one of the best third–round finds in recent years, RB Frank Gore. Gore went on to be selected a starter on the NFC's Pro Bowl squad the following year.

In 2006, McCloughan also led a strong draft campaign, making a trade with Denver to acquire a second pick in the first round. It enabled the 49ers to tag TE Vernon Davis with the sixth overall pick and LB Manny Lawson with the 22nd overall selection. Both 2007 first round picks played an immediate role, with LB Patrick Willis earning Associated Press Defensive Rookie of the year honors and a Pro Bowl berth, while T Joe Staley started all 16 games at right tackle without missing a snap. Willis followed up his standout rookie season with his second straight Pro Bowl and Staley once again started every game of the 2008 season, this time at left tackle.

Heading the 49ers personnel department enabled him to return to the Bay Area, where his football roots began. The year McCloughan was born in San Leandro, CA was his father Kent's final year playing in the NFL. Kent was a standout cornerback for the Oakland Raiders from 1965–70, and was part of the 1967 Super Bowl II squad. Immediately after his final season, Kent began scouting for the Raiders, discovering talented collegiate players around the country from the family's new home in Loveland, CO.

Respected NFL executive Ron Wolf was a member of the scouting department in Oakland at the time and brought Kent on board to bolster the department. Young Scot joined his father for film sessions at the house and even traveled as his dad's sidekick on trips around the area. He watched, learned and took notes.

Football was life in the McCloughan household, and the environment quickly ceded Scot into a standout on the football team as a running back, safety and return man. He was also a star baseball player, earning a scholarship to play at Wichita State, where he contributed in two collegiate World Series as a designated hitter and third–baseman.

McCloughan went on to play minor league baseball for three years in the Toronto Blue Jays organization before football beckoned him once again. It was then that Wolf re–entered the picture, this time, recruiting Kent's son to join his scouting staff in Green Bay in 1994.

McCloughan went on to comb the Midlands region for college talent for three years before he took over a slot in the Southeast territory. During that span, he was part of two Packers' Super Bowl teams, including the 1996 championship squad who defeated New England in Super Bowl XXXI. In just five short years, he made an impressive name for himself and Seattle hired him as their Director of College Scouting.

"He's very good at what he does and has a tremendous desire to improve," Wolf said. "He has an exceptional eye for talent."

Some of his early picks, like St. Louis G Adam Timmerman, Green Bay's seventh–round selection out of South Dakota State in 1995, turned out to be hidden gems. Timmerman went on to post a Pro Bowl career.

In Seattle, McCloughan's efforts came to fruition when the Seahawks won the NFC Championship in 2005 and made a trip to Super Bowl XL in Detroit to play the Pittsburgh Steelers. On that roster, 25 of the 28 draft picks on McCloughan's draft scroll were still on the team when he left his post to join the 49ers in 2005.

"I think Scot is one of the bright young talents in this League. I fought like crazy to keep him here," Seattle Head Coach Mike Holmgren said at the time of McCloughan's departure.

The McCloughan scouting pedigree likewise matriculated to his older brother, David, who shares Scot's innate ability to unearth football talent. He also came to San Francisco in 2005 and serves as the 49ers Director of College Scouting.

McCloughan and his wife, Kelli, have a son, Caden, and twin girls, Adison and Avery. The family resides in Los Gatos, CA.

ANDY DOLICH
CHIEF OPERATING OFFICER

In his second season as the Chief Operating Officer of the 49ers, Andy Dolich is responsible for the day–to–day business operations of the franchise, including sales, marketing, public relations, corporate partnerships and facilities. Dolich also plays a major role in the team's efforts to build a new state–of–the–art stadium in the Bay Area for its fans.

Dolich brings over three decades of experience in the professional sports industry, including executive positions in the National Basketball Association (NBA), National Hockey League (NHL) and Major League Baseball (MLB).

"The opportunity to come home and work for the preeminent franchise in Northern California is the opportunity of a lifetime," Dolich said.

The longtime executive said the rich history of the team, an incredibly loyal fan base, the opportunity to build a new stadium and the positive direction of the franchise, made the decision to join the team a simple one.

"In my discussion with John and Jed York and the 49ers' executive management, it was clear that the organization has goals and objectives necessary for success," Dolich said.

Dolich likened building a successful business operation to putting together a championship team; know your playbook/market and be passionate about your performance.

"Northern California and the San Francisco Bay Area is a unique marketplace," Dolich said. "I think it is critical to have individuals in your organization that understand the rhythms of this market. Fans here have many different sports and lifestyle choices. With the Niners, you have a fan base that has the team in their DNA."

Dolich stressed the fan experience as the most important aspect of his job. "From the moment someone thinks about coming to a Niners game, to the time that they are back home, you want them to be treated to the most professional, positive, safe and economically viable experience that they can have."

Prior to joining the 49ers, Dolich served as President of Business Operations for the Memphis Grizzlies (NBA), where he was responsible for the day–to–day functioning of the team's business and marketing programs, as well as the construction and operation of the team's home arena, FedExForum.

Dolich is credited as being a driving force behind the marketing resurgence of the Oakland Athletics (MLB) in the 1980s and early 1990s. He helped change the face of sports team advertising through the award–winning "BillyBall" campaign. During that time, Dolich's marketing team increased A's attendance from 800,000 to 2.9 million.

Before joining the Athletics, Dolich held executive–level positions with the Washington Diplomats (North American Soccer League) and the Washington Capitals (NHL). He began his career with positions at the Maryland Arrows (National Lacrosse League) and the Philadelphia 76ers (NBA).

Dolich received his undergraduate degree in Government from American University in Washington, DC, and his Masters in Sport Management from Ohio University. He serves on a number of sports industry and community–invested boards and organizations.

LARRY MACNEIL
VICE PRESIDENT/ CHIEF FINANCIAL OFFICER

With more than 20 years of experience in finance and accounting, Larry MacNeil is in his seventh year as Vice President and Chief Financial Officer for the 49ers.

He is responsible for the management of the team's business office, budgeting, forecasts, financial reporting, internal controls, partnership tax matters and cash management. MacNeil also works closely with the team's football operations staff on salary cap issues and contract matters.

MacNeil's record as a financial leader and problem solver is extensive. After beginning his career in public accounting, MacNeil spent 12 years as a partner with a management consulting firm delivering financial expertise to a broad range of companies across the country. Over the course of his career, MacNeil has worked with clients in commercial banking, real estate development and management, insurance, investment banking and transportation. MacNeil is a seasoned negotiator, having executed more than $2 billion in acquisitions, sales and financing transactions.

MacNeil served for 12 years as a Senior Partner with National Advisors, a San Diego based management consulting firm (1988–00). MacNeil began his career with Kenneth Leventhal & Company, CPAs in Southern California, supervising audit and consulting engagements (1984–88).

He earned his bachelor's degree in accounting from the University of Kansas and is a licensed CPA in California.

LAL HENEGHAN
EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT OF FOOTBALL ADMINISTRATION

A proven football administrator with a wealth of experience at the NFL, NFLPA and club level, Lal Heneghan enters his fourth season with the 49ers as Executive Vice President of Football Administration. When Denise and John York agreed on the creation of the position in 2006, they began an extensive search to find a person whose knowledge and organizational skills would benefit the organization in a vast array of areas. In his role, Heneghan oversees all aspects of the day–to–day football administration, as well as legal affairs for the 49ers.

Prior to joining the 49ers, Heneghan served as Vice President of Football Operations and General Counsel for the Cleveland Browns from November of 1998 until May of 2004. Heneghan also has experience providing consulting services to professional sports and non–profit organizations, and said his diverse levels of experience have served him well in his career.

"I've had the opportunity to see how different elements of the NFL operate," Heneghan said. "When issues or questions arise, I've usually had experience in knowing what people's points of view are. That's helped me facilitate solutions to problems that come up and it in turn, gets everyone to work together."

With the Browns, Heneghan was responsible for negotiating all player and coaching contracts, as well as general legal matters. He also oversaw the club's pro personnel department as well as the medical, equipment, video and player development departments.

Prior to joining Cleveland, Heneghan spent seven years with the National Football League Management Council as director of labor relations. In that capacity, he supervised the daily operation and interpretation of the NFL salary cap, the Collective Bargaining Agreement and advised clubs on all aspects of their daily labor operations.

After joining the NFL in 1991, Heneghan initially served as labor relations counsel where he represented clubs in grievance arbitrations and counseled clubs on a variety of labor issues. In 1993, he participated in negotiations with the NFLPA, which resulted in the 1993 Collective Bargaining Agreement.

Heneghan's contributions to the NFL are reflective of his involvement in a broad range of areas, including serving on the NFL Management Council's Working Club Executive Committee while with the Browns. He remains one of three NFL–appointed executives to serve as a Trustee of the NFL Player Insurance Trust.

Previously, Heneghan was a labor attorney at Akin Gump, Strauss, Hauer & Feld in Washington, D.C. He received his B.A. from the University of Pennsylvania and is a graduate of the Georgetown University Law Center. During law school, he worked with the NFLPA in Washington, D.C. Heneghan said a career that combined his two passions—sports and law—gave him the best of both worlds.

"When I entered law school, I had an interest in combining my interest in law with a career in sports," Heneghan said. "I participated in sports in college and wanted to include sports into my professional pursuits. I was fortunate that I attended law school with a man who had played in the NFL and was the assistant executive director of the NFLPA (Mark Murphy, an eight–year player with the Washington Redskins from 1977–84 and now President/C.E.O. of the Green Bay Packers). He introduced me to the people at the union in the legal department and that's how I got my start in professional football."

An accomplished college athlete, Heneghan was a tight end and co–captain for the 1984 University of Pennsylvania Ivy League Champion football team. Heneghan said he still applies the same ideals of teamwork and leadership to his professional career today.

"Sports in college were helpful because we were part of a new program when I went there. We worked together as a team, and we really felt we were a team that tried to re–establish a winning tradition," Heneghan said. "I think that's what goes on at the club level as well. A group that has that commitment can win with each other."

Heneghan's greatest sports achievement was being a part of Pennsylvania's football team that captured the Ivy League Championship. What he cherishes most was the journey he and his teammates made together to achieve such great success.

"I think winning the championship as a group was the best feeling I had as a player," Heneghan said. "Just the camaraderie we had was great and we had a lot more fun around each other because we won. It wasn't any particular game, but being part of the team was the greatest thing to me."

Born in Rockville, MD, family has always been a big part of his life, stretching even to the origin of his name. Lal, an Irish family name, is short for Lally, which was his father's name before he emigrated from Ireland to the United States.

Heneghan's wife, Amy, is a pediatrician. The couple has a son, Jack, and a daughter, Lucy.

"To me, family is my most important job," Heneghan said. "I grew up in a large family and it's always been a privilege to be a part of that team."

PARAAG MARATHE

(PUH-rawg, MUH-rah-TAY)

VICE PRESIDENT OF FOOTBALL OPERATIONS

Paraag Marathe enters his ninth season with the 49ers and second as Vice President of Football Operations. Prior to his promotion, he spent three seasons as the Director of Football Operations. Marathe originally joined the organization as the team's Special Projects Manager, a role he served for three seasons before going on to spend one year as the Assistant to the General Manager.

In his current role, Marathe plays a key role in the success of the 49ers both on and off the field. He is the club's chief contract negotiator and manages its compliance with the NFL's collective bargaining agreement. Marathe works hand–in–hand with General Manager Scot McCloughan on all football operations and player personnel matters. He is also responsible for the management of the club's salary cap as well as multi–year forecasting at both the individual club and league level. Marathe serves as the liaison with the club's business office and CFO with regards to player compensation. He also works closely with other members of the executive team on stadium project initiatives and various business efforts including ticket sales, marketing strategy and corporate partnerships.

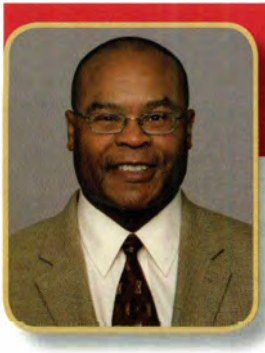
In his time with the 49ers, Marathe has developed new systems within football operations to better understand and predict market trends on player contracts and their salary cap ramifications. He has also developed new methods and systems for evaluating and acquiring players for the college draft and at the pro level. He also manages the club's research and development efforts and assists the coaching staff with various strategic projects throughout the regular season and off–season.

Marathe frequently conducts special assignments for Owners John and Jed York, Head Coach Mike Singletary and General Manager Scot McCloughan. Marathe also serves as an advisor and consultant on projects throughout the business and football sides of the organization.

Prior to joining the 49ers, Marathe worked at management consulting firm Bain & Company from 1999–01 as a Senior Associate Consultant, where he advised clients in a variety of industries including private equity, venture capital, software, retail, sports footwear and health clubs. Before that, Marathe worked in the corporate consulting group at the International Management Group (IMG) from 1997–99, where he concentrated primarily on stadium naming rights deals and corporate sponsorships.

Born in Sunnyvale, CA, Marathe received his bachelor's degree with high honors from the Haas School of Business at the University of California–Berkeley and received his masters in business administration (MBA) from Stanford University's Graduate School of Business.

Marathe and his wife Naya, a patent attorney, reside in Sunnyvale, CA.



MIKE SINGLETARY

HEAD COACH

7TH NFL SEASON, 5TH WITH 49ERS

Passion, Enthusiasm, Honesty and Loyalty … Those are the words Mike Singletary chose when asked to summarize who he is and what he is all about. They are the traits the San Fran–cisco 49ers head coach carries in his arsenal as he navigates the waters of the NFL on a journey to mold the 49ers into a championship caliber team once again.

"Every day I come to work I know that my job as the head coach of this team is to set the tone," Singletary said. "I am honest, and that's just who I am. I want my players to know that I don't compromise anything when it comes to this team, and I ask the same of them. I am accountable for everything I do and say, and I want them to be the same. I want my players to take ownership of this team. When they do that, the limits are boundless."

When Singletary took over as the 49ers interim head coach midway through the 2008 season, he attacked the challenge with the same fervor he shared with opposing ball carriers throughout his Hall of Fame playing career. It was a welcome challenge that Singletary conquered as the 49ers went on to record five victories in the final seven games of the 2008 sea–son, showing improvements in all three phases of the game.

"It's a matter of stepping in and being able to bring it to–gether," Singletary said. "That's something I've done all of my life: bring things together. Before I got back into football, I was a motivational speaker, I was a trainer, I was a teacher, I was a lot of things. I think all of that has prepared me. I just know this: I just know what is in my heart. I know that there is a fire that burns in my heart for this team to be successful. And that fire is unconquerable, and it will not die until it comes to pass."

The passion and desire that served Singletary so well dur–ing his 12–year NFL career with the Chicago Bears were in the minds of Team President Jed York and General Manager Scot McCloughan as they were faced with the daunting ques–tion – who would lead the franchise back to prominence. They wasted no time and named Singletary the franchise's 16th head coach on December 28, 2008.

"We need to reestablish our championship culture, and we need a coach that has the intensity to match that champion–ship–caliber culture that we're looking for," said York. "That's what we need, and that's what Mike Singletary's going to bring. That's what he brings to the organization."

Singletary is looking to the future for the 49ers and has begun a quest to once again make the 49er Faithful the proudest fans in the league.

"There's a lot of pride, and you have ownership who wants to win," Singletary said of being hired as head coach. "And I find myself in the middle of something, feeling very, very fortunate to be surrounded by all of the good people around me. Now it's just a matter of continuing to hype it up, continuing to move forward and keep our eyes on the vision that we have set go–ing forward. I am very excited, very thankful, very humbled to be the head coach of the 49ers – very thankful for that."

"The identity of the 49ers is first of all, a team that plays with heart," Singletary said. "A team that will not quit, a team that will hit you in the mouth every opportunity they get, a team that will not create mistakes in critical times in the game, a team that will not beat themselves but we will be a team that plays winning football, smash–mouth football, physical football that plays with heart."

WHAT MAKES A MAN

While Singletary was known as a very resilient, tough football player, the early years of his life foreshadowed none of that. Early in his childhood, Singletary was bedridden with bron–chitis and pneumonia, and was allowed to go outdoors spar–ingly. He was the youngest of 10 children and his father, a Pentecostal minister, left the family when Singletary was just enrolling in junior high. The family was obviously devastated, but Singletary's older brother, Grady, honorably stepped in and became the surrogate father. Tragically, he was killed by a drunk driver six months later.

At that point, 12–year–old Mike was at a crossroads in his life. His mother, Udell, knew her baby boy needed direction and an outlet to deal with the lack of a father figure in his life and the death of his brother. The family's religion frowned upon par–ticipation in sports, but Udell saw football as an opportunity for her son to deal with his emotions. At that same time, Mike was already realizing he needed to have goals in life. The youngster defined what he now calls his "vision statement," and it read as such: play football, graduate from high school, earn a foot–ball scholarship to college, become an All–American, graduate from college, get drafted into the NFL, become an All–Pro, go to a Super Bowl and own a business. Pretty lofty goals for a 12–year–old – but goals that Singletary has already seen come to fruition.

"I think when you go through things like that, certainly it makes you understand this is a game, even though I'm very passionate about it," Singletary says of football. "I'm very ex–cited about the game of football, and it really has served as sort of a getaway from all the other things in life, and I have come to enjoy it for what it is."

SAMURAI MIKE

Long before Mike Singletary was enshrined into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1998, he starred at Evan E. Worthing High School in Houston, Texas. Singletary later enjoyed an outstanding career at Baylor University where he earned All–America honors in both his junior and senior years.

Known as a quiet and mild–mannered person off the field, he became one of the most ferocious players in all of college football, exemplified by the fact that he cracked 16 helmets during his stint in Waco. A two–time recipient of the Davey O'Brien Award, given to the most outstanding player in the Southwest Conference, Singletary averaged 15 tackles per game during his college career and established a team record with 232 tackles in 1978. He would later be inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 1995.

After dominating the NCAA ranks, Singletary was selected by the Chicago Bears in the second round of the 1981 NFL Draft with the 38th overall pick. In the seventh game of his rookie season, he earned a starting role and found his niche as the cornerstone of the Bears "46" defense. Chicago's then–defensive coordinator Buddy Ryan's trust in Singletary on the field was unwavering, but that was a trust that took time to develop.

"I'm not expecting anything of them that I'm not going to give them. I'm going to give them my best every day, and that's all I'm asking from them."
- Singletary on what he expects from his players.

"I was very vocal," said Singletary. "Sometimes that was good, sometimes it was bad. Buddy Ryan didn't like vocal guys in their first year. He wanted you to be quiet and learn, and I couldn't help myself most of the time. He really helped me get out of my own way because I needed to earn a little more respect before I was as vocal as I was. I remember he sat me down for several games until I had learned some humility and earned respect before I talked. I learned the hard way."

While Singletary may have been outspoken at first during his playing days, his ability and football IQ were noticed by his defensive coordinator.

"He was smart, a real student of the game. I was impressed with how dedicated he was to becoming a pro football player," Ryan said.

"Samurai Mike," as he was fondly called by his peers and fans, went on to enjoy a legendary career with the Bears, quarterbacking a defense that was feared for its tenacity. He was the leader of the renowned "Monsters of the Midway," and was often referred to as the original "Minister of Defense" for his on–field intensity, leadership and motivational speeches.

Ryan has no doubt that Singletary's background, dedication and ability to inspire will serve him well as a head coach.

"Mike should be a great head coach,'' Ryan said. "When he was a player, he used to give these motivational speeches. He'd have everybody crying."

A two–time Associated Press Defensive Player of the Year award winner (1985 & 1988), Singletary was named to the NFL Team of the '80s after being selected to play in a team–record 10 consecutive Pro Bowls. The former Bears defensive captain was also named first–team All–Pro eight times (1983–89; 1991), second–team All–Pro twice and All–NFC nine times.

Singletary finished each of his final 11 seasons on Chicago's defense ranked either first or second in tackles and at the end of his career, had amassed 1,488 tackles, 885 solo tackles, 51 passes defensed, 12 fumble recoveries and seven interceptions. He also started a defensive team record 172 games for the Bears, trailing only running back Walter Payton's 184 career starts for the all–time lead.

KNOWING WHAT'S IMPORTANT

When Singletary retired from the Chicago Bears in 1993, coaching was something that greatly interested him. But after consulting several of his former coaches, he decided that the coaching lifestyle was too consuming to allow him to spend enough time with his family.

"I was very excited about the possibility of coaching, and in my last year in the NFL, I began to ask coaches around the league that I really respected how they balance the time between coaching and family, being a father, being a husband," Singletary said. "And they said you have to make a decision very early. You will not see your kids. You won't see your wife, so be prepared for that and based upon that, I knew that I would not be coaching. We have seven kids and I wanted to make sure my kids knew who their father was. I never considered winning Super Bowl trophies being more important than being a Super Bowl Dad, so it's hard work. Being out here, this is easy. Being a parent, that's difficult."

Singletary took time away from the game, but his leadership and inspirational roots followed him in all of his endeavors after football. One of the biggest sources of his strength is his deeply engrained Christian faith. Unlike most coaches in professional sports, Singletary displays his devotion every time he steps onto the field.

"I simply wear the cross to remind me of who I represent," said Singletary. "When I go out there, I can be on the verge of losing it and when I feel the cross, I just know, 'Don't go there. That's not who you are. That's not what you are about, and it brings me back.'"

In addition to his faith, Singletary is a leader in the community as well. In 2001, he won the Walter Camp "Man of the Year Award" based on his reputation for integrity and leadership within his profession and contributions benefiting his community, country and fellow man. He also co–founded Leadership Zone, a company that provides leadership training.

Singletary is also a motivational speaker and has authored three books: Singletary One on One, Calling the Shots and Daddy's Home at Last.

A CALLING TO COACH

Prior to the 2003 NFL season, Singletary with the help of his wife, Kim, came to the realization that coaching was his calling. As a player, his teammates and coaches all knew this would eventually be his path in life.

So Singletary set out on his journey into NFL coaching. One of the most important things he did along that path was develop a relationship with Hall of Famer and former 49ers head coach Bill Walsh. Singletary would do whatever he could to pick Walsh's brain, meeting him at Stanford, in hotels or even at airports. He became a sponge, soaking in everything Walsh was willing to share.

"I really, really liked and respected Bill Walsh," said Singletary. "Didn't like him when I had to play against him! But the thing he had, to me, he had the poise and he had the vision, not just to win a championship, but to win several. And he had the people around him to get it done, that he could trust. So Bill was always a step ahead of most everybody else. And it wasn't all him. As I learned more about him, he had key, strategically–planned people in place that really helped him. And he knew what his liabilities were and he had strengths around him everywhere."

Singletary's first opportunity came with the Baltimore Ravens as the team's inside linebackers coach in 2003. In two seasons with Baltimore, Singletary led a prolific group of linebackers to even higher heights. In fact, All–Pro Ray Lewis earned NFL Defensive Player of the Year honors in 2003. During his tenure, Baltimore's defense ranked third in the NFL in 2003 and sixth overall the following year.

When Mike Nolan accepted the 49ers head coaching position in 2005, Singletary was his first hire as assistant head coach and linebackers coach. A year later he would be elevated to assistant head coach/defense. Under Singletary's guidance, 49ers linebacker Patrick Willis was named Associated Press Defensive Rookie of the Year in 2007 and set an unofficial NFL single–season record for tackles with 226. He became the first 49ers rookie defender to earn Pro Bowl honors since Ronnie Lott in 1981. In 2008, Willis enjoyed another Pro–Bowl selection and finished second in the NFL in tackles.

Heading into his first full season as head coach, Singletary has set no boundaries on the potential of his team, and asks the same of his players.

"That's my approach about everything I do in life," said Singletary. "I don't ever look at things in a finite matter. Everything I do, I do it until someone says 'that's enough' or until my body or my mind, or until my wife says 'that's enough'. That's my mentality, always has been, and that's just the way that I'm wired up."

The same characteristics that Buddy Ryan saw during Singletary's playing days are already being admired by his current players, including 49ers QB Shaun Hill.

"Coach Singletary's been around, and he's given speeches to the team over the three years that I've been here," Hill said. "So we know what kind of guy he is. He's been vocal to the team and everybody appreciates it and responds to it – just his honesty and the way he tells it like it is. He's not going to sugarcoat it for you, and I think everybody really respects that and responds to it."

INTENSE EYES FOCUSED ON THE FUTURE

"I just think the most important thing for me is to know who I am and what it is I want out of life and where I'm going," said Singletary. "I want to go to the Super Bowl. I want to win many Super Bowls. I want to win championships."

That vision as well as the confidence and direction that he shares with his team on a daily basis, has been welcomed by his players, coaches and the 49ers organization as a whole.

"This man is just something amazing,'' 49ers kicker Joe Nedney said of Singletary. "You want to play hard for him because you know that if you don't, he's going to give you that stare and burn a hole right through you."

His attitude as a player is already serving as a model for his coaching philosophy as he strives to bring a tough, hard–nosed, blue collar mentality to his team. Singletary is searching for the very same mental toughness that he witnessed in his own Bears teams of the '80s.

"We had a bunch of blue collar guys that were not afraid to work," said Singletary. "We were so hungry for a win and a championship that it didn't matter how much we worked. As a matter of fact, it became a challenge. 'Go ahead coach. I'm not tired. Is that the best you got?' We didn't say that too often. It's just one of those things where our guys have to get to that – keep talking about that second wind."

Singletary sees the potential in his 49ers squad, and is working to help them realize it as well.

"I'm really, really fortunate to have these guys," said Singletary. "We have some great guys. But it's really, as I said before, it's more so the mindset. What we had in Chicago, it was coming. It was a process. A lot of those same guys were there when I got there, but they didn't have the mindset. They didn't have the vision. But through hard work, through focus, it forged something very special and that was a winning attitude. And that can only be developed one way and that's through bringing guys together, working hard, making sure that everybody's on the same page cooking, and they begin to see, 'Hey, we've got something. We really have something.' But we've got to earn it."

Singletary and his wife, Kim, have seven children and live in Saratoga, CA. He was born on October 9, 1958 in Houston, Texas.

JIMMY RAYE

OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR

33RD NFL SEASON, 2ND WITH 49ERS

With more than 30 years of NFL coaching experience, Jimmy Raye begins his first season as offensive coordinator for the 49ers after being hired on February 6, 2009. This marks his second stint with San Francisco, having served as the wide receivers coach for the team in 1977.

Raye's held the post of offensive coordinator for several teams, including the Los Angeles Rams (1983–84, 1991), Tampa Bay Buccaneers (1985–86), New England Patriots (1990), Kansas City Chiefs (1998–2000), Washington Redskins (2001) and Oakland Raiders (2004–05).

"When I sat down and listened to what he had to say in terms of his philosophy and the conviction behind it, he talked about the physicality that the offense has to have," said Head Coach Mike Singletary. "He talked about the toughness, both mentally and physically, that the offense has to have. The discipline in which it takes to do those things. That to me, that was something that we were really excited about."

Raye spent the past three seasons as the running backs coach for the New York Jets. Under his guidance, RB Thomas Jones produced two consecutive 1,000–yard rushing seasons. In 2008, the nine–year veteran earned his first career Pro Bowl nod after rushing for 1,312 yards and 15 touchdowns. A year prior, Jones rushed for 1,119 yards on the ground in his first season with the Jets. Raye's 2006 coaching effort helped then rookie RB Leon Washington rank fourth in rushing among rookies with 650 yards and four touchdowns. Combined with the totals from Kevan Barlow and Cedric Houston, the 2006 Jets running backs platoon produced 1,394 yards and 15 touchdowns.

From 2004 to 2005, Raye served as assistant head coach/offensive coordinator for the Oakland Raiders. Under Raye's tutelage, the Raiders ranked 10th in the NFL in passing in 2005 (223.9 ypg), after finishing eighth in passing a year prior (241.1 ypg).

Raye's initial stint with the Jets was from 2002 to 2003. In his second year with the team, Raye served as assistant head coach/senior offensive assistant under then head coach Herm Edwards. In 2002, Raye, as a senior offensive assistant, helped a young offensive coaching staff (five coaches with three years or less NFL coaching experience) produce an offense that ranked seventh in the NFL in yards per play.

Prior to joining the Jets, Raye spent one season as the Washington Redskins offensive coordinator in 2001. That season, the Redskins finished eighth in the NFL in rushing (121.8 ypg), while ranking sixth in the league for fewest interceptions thrown (13). RB Stephen Davis' 1,432 rushing yards were good for third highest in the NFL.

Before working with the Redskins, Raye spent eight years with Kansas City (1992–2000) in various coaching capacities. From 1998 to 2000, Raye served as the team's offensive coordinator. Under his guidance in 2000, the Chiefs ranked eighth in the NFL in total offense (350.9 ypg) and fourth in passing (259.3 ypg). A year prior, Kansas City finished fourth in the NFL in rushing (130.1 ypg), tied for eighth in points scored (24.4 ppg) and ranked 12th in total offense (332.6 ypg). The 390 points marked the third–highest scoring output in team history and its most prolific in 32 years.

From 1993 to 1997, Raye coached running backs for the Chiefs. From 1995 to 1997, the unit ranked as the third best rushing attack in the NFL, averaging 136.0 yards per game. The Chiefs led the league in rushing in 1995, averaging 138.9 yards per game as the team went 13–3 and won the AFC West. While working with the Chiefs' backs, Raye helped revitalize the career of Hall of Famer Marcus Allen, who rushed for 3,698 yards and a club record 44 touchdowns in four years under his guidance. In 1992, Raye joined Kansas City as the offensive assistant/tight ends coach.

Prior to joining the Chiefs, Raye served as the offensive coordinator for the Los Angeles Rams (1983–84, 1991), Tampa Bay Buccaneers (1985–86) and New England Patriots (1990). While overseeing those offenses, Raye displayed a penchant for maximizing productivity in the running game. The Rams ranked second in the NFL in rushing in 1984, as Hall of Famer Eric Dickerson became only the second player to top the 2,000–yard rushing mark with an NFL record 2,105 yards. In Raye's two seasons with Tampa Bay, James Wilder reigned as one of the league's top all–purpose threats, combining for 96 pass receptions and 2,004 rushing yards (1985–86). In 1991, the Rams finished seventh in the NFL in passing (225.6 ypg) under Raye's guidance.

Raye also has an extensive background as an instructor in the passing game, serving two stints as Atlanta's wide receivers coach (1987–89, 1980–82) and holding the same position with the Rams in 1983. From 1978 to 1979, he coached running backs for the Detroit Lions.

Raye was drafted by the Los Angeles Rams in the 16th round of the 1968 NFL Draft and was converted from a quarterback to defensive back before being traded to the Eagles. As a quarterback at Michigan State, Raye was the quarterback in the historical 1966 "Game of the Century," in which Michigan State and Notre Dame both earned a National Championship after the game ended in a 10–10 tie.

GREG MANUSKY (muh-NUH-ski)

DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR

9TH NFL SEASON, 3RD WITH 49ERS

Once a tough, hard–nosed NFL linebacker, Greg Manusky has since translated those qualities into a successful nine–year professional coaching career. Manusky brings that mentality to the 49ers defense as he enters his third season as defensive coordinator in San Francisco.

This past season, Manusky oversaw a defensive unit that improved from 25th overall in 2007 to 13th in 2008. The 49ers defense was especially impactful at the end of the year, ranking seventh in the NFL in points allowed (17.4 ppg) during the final seven games of the season, while ranking third in passing yards allowed (177.4 ypg) over the final five games of the year. The 49ers defense was especially stingy against big plays, allowing only 41 plays of 20 or more yards to rank second in the NFL.

Manusky joined the 49ers after serving as the linebackers coach for the San Diego Chargers from 2002–06 and in the same capacity for the Washington Redskins in 2001. During his 12–year stint as a linebacker with Washington (1988–90), Minnesota (1991–93) and Kansas City (1994–99), Manusky was known as a tenacious workhorse. He said his passion for the game, and mental will to do anything necessary to make an impact on the team, carried him throughout his playing career.

In eight years as a pro coach, Manusky has seen several of his players earn Pro Bowl honors, including 49ers' LB Patrick Willis (2007–08) and CB Walt Harris (2007); Chargers' LB Shawne Merriman (2006), LB Donnie Edwards (2002) and LB Junior Seau (2002); and Redskins' LB LaVar Arrington (2001). Merriman, Edwards and Arrington all were named to their first career Pro Bowls under Manusky's tutelage.

Manusky played in 113 consecutive games during his career. Following the 1991 season, he was selected to the All–Madden Team put together by Hall of Fame broadcaster and former coach, John Madden. Manusky said the encouragement he received from his coaches during his playing days instilled in him the confidence to enter the coaching profession.

"During my sixth year in the league, I played under Tony Dungy and Monty Kiffin in Minnesota. They were the first ones to say, 'Hey, you'd be a pretty good coach,'" Manusky recalled. "That's the road I've traveled since. During the number of years that I spent in Kansas City and even in my past few years as a coach, I've continued to try and push myself and adopt the mindset of an offensive or defensive coordinator. I've been fortunate to have the opportunity to do that here in San Francisco."

After retiring from the NFL in 1999, Manusky spent the 2000 season as a volunteer at the Tampa Bay Buccaneers' training camp, where he worked with the linebackers and special teams. One year later, he accepted a job as linebackers coach with the Redskins.

A well–regarded teacher and communicator, Manusky developed the Chargers linebacking corps into one of the NFL's stingiest units. They were part of a defense that finished the 2006 season ranked seventh against the rush and third in turnover margin with a plus–13 balance. The unit alone accounted for 42.5 of the defense's 61 total regular season sacks.

Manusky was born in Wilkes–Barre, PA, and prepped at Dallas (PA) High School. He went on to attend Colgate University where he was a four–year letterman and an All–Colonial league selection. Manusky was named the league's Defensive Player of the Year as a senior and graduated with degrees in education and geology.

Manusky and his and wife, Laurie, have two sons, Colton and Jake, and two daughters, Logan and Chandler.

AL EVEREST

SPECIAL TEAMS COORDINATOR

13TH NFL SEASON, 3RD WITH 49ERS

When San Francisco selected Al Everest to lead the 49ers special teams unit on January 14, 2007, the team gained an experienced, fiery mentor in the classroom and on the field.

Everest brings more than 36 years of coaching experience with him to San Francisco. In that span he has also spent valuable time as an educator around the world.

Everest achieved success as a college player and coach in the National Football League, European professional football, and collegiate football and baseball. In San Francisco, his classic approach to teaching and excelling in fundamentals has contributed to the success of standouts K Joe Nedney, P Andy Lee and LS Brian Jennings.

"I'm not here to reinvent football, but I'm here to teach them how to be better football players," Everest said about his coaching philosophy. "Our job is to give them the tools to win battles. I take pride in thinking that when they leave, they say, 'I appreciate you making me a better football player.'"

Under Everest's' leadership, San Francisco's 2008 special teams unit consistently put the team in a position to succeed on the field. Lee, KR/PR Allen Rossum and RB Michael Robinson were all named Pro Bowl alternates for their contributions on special teams. Lee broke the team record for punting average (47.8) in a single-season, while Rossum set career-highs in both kick return average (26.8) and punt return average (14.9). Nedney continued to enjoy success under Everest, breaking into the NFL's top 50 all-time scoring list and finishing the season ranked 42nd with a career total of 979 points.

Following the 2007 season, Everest earned Special Teams Coach of the Year honors from the Aguilar Kicking Academy after leading an All-Star unit. Lee earned a trip to the Pro Bowl after leading the NFL in almost every major punting category. He set an NFL record for punts downed inside the 20-yard line with 42, surpassing the previous mark set by Kyle Richardson of Baltimore, who had 39 in 1999.

From 2000-05, Everest served as the special teams coordinator for the Saints. He established a top-notch special teams effort in New Orleans, coaching three Pro Bowlers during that span, while receiving the 2002 NFL Special Teams Coach of the Year award, an honor that was voted on by his coaching peers.

In 2005, punter Mitch Berger ranked fourth in the NFL with a 38.7 net punting average after hitting 71 punts for 3,066 yards. A year prior, the Saints had five players win NFC Special Teams Player of the Week honors, the most in franchise history for a single season. Included in that total were four straight over the final four games, which tied the NFL record for the most consecutive winners since the inception of the award in 1993. Return man Michael Lewis became the team's all-time punt return leader with 126 career returns (through 2005) for 1,371 yards. Lewis also had a 96-yard kickoff return for a touchdown that season. In addition, fellow returner, Aaron Stecker, added a 98-yard kick return for a touchdown. Berger again was tops in the NFL with a 39.5 net punting average, good enough to earn him a Pro Bowl visit.

Under Everest's instruction in 2003, K John Carney established a team record 22-straight contests with a field goal, Berger led the NFL in net punting average and the Saints notched three-straight games with a blocked field goal, the longest such streak in the NFL since 2000. In 2002, the New Orleans special teams units had three touchdown returns, blocked five kicks and forced an interception for a touchdown while rushing a punt. Carney set a club scoring record with 130 points and Lewis set an NFL record with 2,432 combined kickoff and punt return yards. Everest was named NFL Special Teams Coach of the Year and The Dallas Morning News listed his unit as having the League's No.1 special teams in the publication's annual ranking.

During his time in New Orleans, Everest coached three players to Pro-Bowl caliber seasons – Berger, Lewis and RB Fred McAfee. Berger and McAfee took Everest to Hawaii to show their appreciation for his guidance.

"There's nothing more rewarding than seeing your players, or students, become successful because it's a form of parenthood," Everest said about steering his pupils on a successful path. "You're part of the process of their development. It's very humbling because you know you got to share their success."

Prior to elevating the Saints special teams units to paramount levels, Everest was the special teams coach for the Arizona Cardinals from 1996-99. In his final season, the Cardinals ranked third in the NFL in defensive punt coverage, fifth in opponent's net punting average and second in field goal defense. In 1998, Arizona had four game-winning field goals on the final play.

Prior to his second spell in the NFL, Everest worked on both sides of the ball around the globe. From 1976-80, Everest served as athletic director and football coach at American School Foundation in Mexico City.

In 1981, he made the decision to return stateside and joined U.S. International University from 1981-87 where he earned a doctorate degree with hopes of someday becoming a school superintendent. At the same time, he doubled as the school's baseball coach.

In the fall of 1987, Everest served as the defensive coordinator for his brother, Tom, at Escondido (CA) High School.

Everest then crossed the pond to combine his love of teaching and traveling while serving as a coach in the NFL Italy for both the Legnano Frogs and Pesaro Angels from 1988-91.

"When you get to do what you love to do, and you get to travel while doing it, that's the best of both worlds," Everest said, referring to his multiple coaching stints abroad.

In 1991, he also spent the season as a scout for the Pro Spring Football League before returning to the U.S. to coach the secondary for the Arkansas Miners (1992) within the same League.

That's when his California and 49ers connections rekindled themselves.

Everest spent a large part of his young life living in Palo Alto, CA, the home of Stanford University. His family moved to the area after his father, Andy, took a coaching position at Stanford under Jack Curtis (1958–62) and later assisted 49ers Hall of Fame Head Coach Bill Walsh with the Cardinal freshman team.

The family later moved to Santa Barbara where Andy was Santa Barbara's offensive coordinator and organizer of the 49ers summer training camp when Dick Nolan was the 49ers head coach. At that time, Al was a safety at Southern Methodist and went home during the summers to help his father by running the reception room for the 49ers during their stay.

In 1992, Dick Nolan hired Everest as his offensive coordinator when he was the head coach of the AFL's San Antonio Force. Everest spent one season under the elder Nolan before going back to Italy for one more season as the defensive coordinator of Legnano in 1993.

Everest was a two–year starting safety at SMU from 1970–71, where his teammates coined him "Dirty Al" for his ability to lay big hits. He cut his coaching teeth as a graduate assistant at SMU in 1972 working under Head Coach Hayden Fry and defensive coordinator, and later NFL Head Coach, Bum Phillips. He then continued as a graduate assistant at North Texas under Fry for another year and a half.

Everest and his wife, Mischelle, reside in Almaden Valley, CA. Everest's daughter, Michelle, is a student at Toni and Guy in Phoenix, AZ. The couple also has a daughter Kaycee Fae, who is training to become a hunter jumper.

JERRY SULLIVAN

WIDE RECEIVERS/SENIOR ASSISTANT

18TH NFL SEASON, 5TH WITH 49ERS

Jerry Sullivan enters his fifth season with the 49ers after being named wide receivers coach/senior assistant on January 25, 2005. Sullivan boasts 18 years of NFL coaching experience, including one season as the Arizona Cardinals offensive coordinator.

Sullivan's 2008 unit was highlighted by the play of 15–year veteran WR Isaac Bruce, who went on to earn the team's coveted Len Eshmont Award for his courageous and inspiring play. The 36–year–old Bruce caught seven touchdowns, his most since 2002, and led all receivers with 835 receiving yards on 61 catches.

Sullivan, an 18–year veteran of the NFL coaching ranks, joined the 49ers after spending the 2004 season as wide receivers coach for the Miami Dolphins. Sullivan was a member of the Arizona Cardinals' coaching staff for three seasons (2001–03). In his first two years with the club, Sullivan mentored the team's wide receivers, where he worked with a group that included WR David Boston. Under Sullivan's guidance, Boston led the NFL with 1,598 receiving yards on 98 receptions in 2001 and was selected to the first Pro Bowl of his career. In 2003, Sullivan was promoted to offensive coordinator where he worked with rookie wide receiver WR Anquan Boldin, a second–round draft choice who finished third in the league in receptions (101) and receiving yards (1,377) on his way to being named the NFL's Rookie of the Year as well as a starter on the NFC's Pro Bowl squad.

Sullivan has coached a multitude of Pro Bowl receivers, including San Diego Chargers WR Anthony Miller (1992–93) and WR Tony Martin (1996), Detroit Lions WR Herman Moore (1997–98) and WR Germaine Crowell (1999) and Arizona Cardinals WR David Boston (2001) and WR Anquan Boldin (2003).

Sullivan's NFL coaching career began in 1992 with the San Diego Chargers. Following his five–year term in San Diego, Sullivan coached wide receivers in Detroit from 1997–2000. Prior to his tenure in the Motor City, he coached on the collegiate level from 1971–91, including stints with Texas Tech, South Carolina, Indiana University, Louisiana State University and Ohio State.

Sullivan and his wife, Connie, reside in San Jose, CA. The couple has one son, Jon–Eric, who serves as a regional college scout for the Green Bay Packers. Connie has a daughter, Allison Guay, a granddaughter named Gibson, who reside in Baton Rouge, LA, and a son, Matthew, who works for an insurance company in Baton Rouge, LA.

JOHNNIE LYNN

SPECIAL ASSISTANT TO HEAD COACH/ SECONDARY

16TH NFL SEASON, 5TH WITH 49ERS

Johnnie Lynn enters his 16th NFL campaign and fifth overall season in San Francisco, after having previously tutored the 49ers defensive backs in 1996. He began his second tour of duty as the 49ers secondary coach on February 14, 2006, a duty that he shares with Vance Joseph, and was given the additional title of Special Assistant to the Head Coach during the 2009 offseason.

Lynn coached a secondary comprised of both youth and experience in 2008, overseeing three former Pro Bowlers and a handful of young up–and–comers. Through the final five games of the 2008 campaign, the 49ers boasted the NFL's third best pass defense, allowing just 887 yards during that span.

Lynn previously served as secondary coach of the Baltimore Ravens in 2004 and 2005. In 2004, the Ravens secondary accounted for six of the team's seven defensive touchdowns. Lynn also coached two Ravens defensive backs who earned starting Pro Bowl nods—SS Ed Reed and CB Chris McAlister. Reed was also named the NFL's Defensive Player of the Year (2004).

Prior to joining the Ravens, Lynn spent seven seasons with the New York Giants, serving five years (1997–01) as secondary coach before being promoted to defensive coordinator for the 2002 and 2003 seasons. In his first season as defensive coordinator, the Giants' stingy defense ranked third in the NFL in points allowed, holding opponents to 17.4 points per game. The Giants also finished ninth in both total defense (309.3 ypg) and pass defense (194.9 ypg). While Lynn mentored the defensive backs, the team consistently had one of the NFL's best pass defenses. In the 2000 NFC Championship Game, the Giants limited Pro Bowlers Cris Carter and Randy Moss of the Vikings to just five catches for 60 yards. Lynn was also instrumental in helping to develop a throng of talented defensive backs including Will Allen, William Peterson, Shaun Williams and Jason Sehorn, to name a few.

Prior to coaching defensive backs for the 49ers in 1996, Lynn was the secondary coach for the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in 1994 and 1995. Before moving into the NFL coaching ranks, Lynn served in a number of coaching capacities at the University of Arizona from 1987–93. He started as the Wildcats graduate assistant in 1987, and was elevated to outside linebackers coach (1988–91), before taking over the defensive backs (1992–93).

Lynn enjoyed an eight–year NFL career (1979–86) with the New York Jets as a cornerback and safety. He originally joined the Jets as a fourth–round draft pick out of UCLA. He ended his career 10th on the Jets career interception list with 17.

A four–year letterman at UCLA, Lynn played on four bowl teams and garnered All–PAC 10 honors as a senior. He earned his bachelor's degree in history.

Lynn and his wife, Laurie, are the parents of three children: Ashley, Chazz and Cameron.

DUANE CARLISLE

HEAD STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING

10TH NFL SEASON, 5TH WITH 49ERS

Duane Carlisle enters his second season as the 49ers Head Strength and Conditioning coach after spending the previous three seasons as the team's assistant strength and conditioning coach.

Carlisle is responsible for overseeing the team's comprehensive strength and conditioning program, which includes strength, power development, speed, recovery and regeneration, as well as the nutritional program for the players. He brings an individualized approach to the strength and conditioning position, but within a team-based context.

During the offseason, Carlisle helps direct the team's spring/summer conditioning program, which has been a tremendous success, garnering nearly 100 percent participation. The 14-week progression of exercises is designed to build muscle size, strength and stamina while keying on position-specific speed and proper nutrition.

During Carlisle's three seasons as an assistant, he served under legendary strength and conditioning coach Johnny Parker, a three-time Super Bowl champion and 20-year NFL veteran. Like Parker, Carlisle believes a great strength and conditioning program should never leave the head coach worried about what condition the players are in.

Carlisle's experience before coming to the 49ers includes four teams among three different professional sports, ranging from the high school to the professional levels. He served as a speed development consultant for the Philadelphia Eagles from 2000 to 2004, marking his second stint with the team after having spent time as a seasonal assistant from 1996 to 1997 and a strength and conditioning intern in 1995.

Carlisle served as the head speed, strength and conditioning coach for the Philadelphia Charge of the Women's United Soccer Association, as well as a speed, strength and conditioning consultant for Major League Lacrosse's New Jersey Pride (2001-2003). Additionally, he was the speed development coordinator with the Tampa Bay Devil Rays (1997-98) and the sprint and jump coach at Penn State University. Carlisle also served as the director of strength and conditioning at the prestigious Lawrenceville School in Lawrenceville, NJ.

As President & Founder of Lightning Fast Training Systems, Carlisle is one of the leaders in the area of athletic performance training. He has spent the last 15 years pushing athletes to perform to their maximum potential and has prepared numerous NFL stars for the NFL Scouting Combine.

Carlisle starred in track and field at the University of Maryland. He graduated with an emphasis in economics and physical education.

Carlisle is married to Shereese, and the couple has four children.

SHANE DAY
QUALITY CONTROL
3RD NFL SEASON, 3RD WITH 49ERS

Shane Day enters his third season in the NFL after being named the 49ers quality control coach on May 21, 2007. He works closely with the offensive coaching staff on their weekly game plan and the compilation of the daily practice report, while also assisting with the offensive line.

Day joined the 49ers after two seasons at the University of Michigan. With the Wolverines, Day was the assistant quarterbacks and quality control coach in charge of developing the team's young quarterbacks. His other duties included opponent film breakdown, recruiting and various other assignments for the Wolverines staff.

Prior to joining the Michigan staff, Day spent four seasons coaching at Auburn (WA) Riverside High School. He coached the wide receivers (2001) and quarterbacks (2002) during his first two years. Day continued as the quarterbacks mentor in his final two seasons and handled the responsibility of offensive coordinator from 2003–04.

Day graduated from Kansas State University in 1999 with a degree in English. He lettered in football as a wide receiver at Rhodes College in Memphis, TN. In addition, Day played shortstop and outfield on Rhodes' baseball team.

DAVE FIPP
ASSISTANT SPECIAL TEAMS
2ND NFL SEASON, 2ND WITH 49ERS

Dave Fipp enters his second season with the 49ers as assistant special teams coach.

Fipp played a large role in taking the 49ers special teams unit to new heights in 2008 as three players were named Pro Bowl alternates in P Andy Lee, KR/PR Allen Rossum and RB Michael Robinson. Lee broke the team record for punting average in a single–season (47.8), while Rossum set career–highs in both kick return average (26.8) and punt return average (14.9).

Prior to joining the 49ers, Fipp worked with the San Jose Spartans for three seasons. He served as defensive coordinator during his final year and previously held the title of co–defensive coordinator and safeties coach for the Spartans.

Fipp joined the Spartan staff after spending the 2004 season at the University of Nevada as the co–defensive coordinator and secondary coach. He also served as the defensive coordinator at Cal Poly in 2002 and 2003 after starting out as the Mustangs' defensive backs coach in 2001.

Fipp began his coaching career at College of the Holy Cross as a secondary coach and special teams coordinator in 1998. Prior to the 2000 season, Fipp returned to his alma mater, the University of Arizona, as a graduate assistant and coached the safeties.

A 1997 graduate of the University of Arizona, Fipp played for the Wildcats from 1994–97. He led Arizona's special teams unit in tackles as a sophomore in 1995 and was the Wildcats' starting free safety in 1996 and 1997. The 1997 Wildcats were among the top defensive units in the Pac–10 Conference and ranked 12th nationally in rushing defense.

He and his wife, Jenny, have two daughters, Ashlee and Lilly.

CHRIS FOERSTER (FUR-stir)

OFFENSIVE LINE

17TH NFL SEASON, 2ND WITH 49ERS

Chris Foerster enters his second season with the 49ers after being hired on February 15, 2008 as the co–offensive line coach. He assumed the title of offensive line coach in week 8 of the 2008 season.

Foerster's 2008 line helped pave the way for RB Frank Gore's third consecutive 1,000–yard rushing season, while also blocking for an offensive unit that ranked fifth in the NFL in plays of 20–or–more yards (64). In the final eight games of the season, the offensive line limited opponents to two sacks per game after allowing four sacks per contest during the first half of the year.

During his 16–year NFL coaching career, Foerster's teams have combined for a 139 wins, which includes nine playoff appearances and two championship games. During that time, he has coached at least one Pro Bowl player in 11 of those seasons.

Prior to joining the 49ers, Foerster spent three years (2005–07) as the offensive line coach and assistant head coach for the Baltimore Ravens. Prior to joining the Ravens, Foerster served as the offensive coordinator for the Miami Dolphins (2004), tight ends coach for the Indianapolis Colts (2002–03), offensive line coach for the Tampa Buccaneers (1996–2001) and assistant offensive line/tight ends coach for the Minnesota Vikings (1993–95).

With a total of 26 years coaching experience, Foerster also made an impact in the collegiate ranks, serving as the offensive line coach for the University of Minnesota (1992), assistant offensive line/special teams coach for Stanford (1988–91) and offensive line coach for Colorado State (1983–87). He began his coaching career in 1982 as a graduate assistant at Colorado State after a successful career with the Rams as a center from 1979–82. Foerster originally joined the Rams football team as a walk–on before earning a scholarship as a sophomore.

Foerster was born on October 12, 1961 in Milwaukee, WI.

AL HARRIS
PASS RUSH SPECIALIST
1ST NFL SEASON, 1ST WITH 49ERS

Former NFL standout Al Harris joined the 49ers as the team's pass rush specialist, a new role created on the club's coaching staff, on January 12, 2009.

Harris spent 11 seasons in the NFL with the Chicago Bears (1979–84, 86–88) and Philadelphia Eagles (1989–90) after being chosen as the ninth overall draft pick by the Bears in 1979 out of Arizona State. Harris played in 149 career games, alternating between defensive end (six seasons) and linebacker (five seasons).

Harris played for some of the top coaches in NFL history during his tenures with the Bears and Eagles, learning the game under the likes of Head Coach Mike Ditka and defensive coordinator Buddy Ryan in Chicago. Harris went on to play for Ryan, who left the Bears prior to the 1986 season for the head coaching position in Philadelphia.

Harris is married to the former Maggie D'Orazio. The couple has two children – daughter Emily and son Jason.

PETE HOENER (HAY-ner)
TIGHT ENDS
11TH NFL SEASON, 5TH WITH 49ERS

Pete Hoener enters his fifth season with the 49ers after being named tight ends coach on February 16, 2005.

In 2008, Hoener utilized his versatile group of tight ends in both the run and pass game. TE Vernon Davis showcased his playmaking abilities as an effective receiver and blocker as he was named a Pro Bowl alternate after recording 31 receptions for 358 yards. TE Delanie Walker threatened opponents with his speed, while TE Billy Bajema started the most games of his career (11) as he lined up in multiple tight-end sets primarily as a blocker.

Hoener joined San Francisco after spending the 2004 season as the offensive line coach of the Chicago Bears. Under Hoener, the Bears offensive line paved the way for RB Thomas Jones to tally 948 rushing yards.

Prior to his stint with Chicago, Hoener spent three seasons with the Arizona Cardinals as both the offensive line coach (2003) and tight ends coach (2001–02). Hoener broke into the NFL coaching ranks with the St. Louis Cardinals (1985–86), tutoring the tight ends while working alongside Jim Hanifan.

In addition to his nine years of NFL experience, Hoener chalks up more than 25 years of college coaching knowledge, including 15 as an offensive coordinator. His coaching stops include Texas A&M (2000), Iowa State (1998–99), Texas Christian (1991–97), Purdue (1989–91), Illinois (1986–88), Indiana State (1978–84), Illinois State (1977) and Missouri (1975–76).

Hoener played football and earned a bachelor's degree from Bradley University (1974).

MIKE JOHNSON

QUARTERBACKS

9TH NFL SEASON, 1ST WITH 49ERS

Mike Johnson enters his first season with the 49ers after being named the quarterbacks coach on February 6, 2009.

Johnson had most recently served as the wide receivers coach in Baltimore from 2006 to 2007. With the Ravens, he helped 12–year veteran receiver Derrick Mason record his then–sixth 1,000–yard season in 2007. Mason tallied 1,087 yards on 103 receptions with five touchdowns, leading the team in all receiving categories. A year prior, WR Mark Clayton developed into the Ravens top deep threat and playmaker, posting three touchdowns of 62–or–more yards in 2006.

Prior to joining Baltimore, Johnson spent three years as the quarterbacks coach with the Atlanta Falcons, tutoring three–time Pro Bowl quarterback Michael Vick. Vick put up 2,412 passing yards and 15 touchdowns, while ranking second on the team with 597 rushing yards and six touchdowns, in 2005. In 2004, Vick became the first NFL quarterback to throw for more than 250 yards and run for more than 100 yards in a single game (at Den. 10/31/04).

In 2003, Interim Head Coach Wade Phillips asked Johnson to call the Falcons offensive plays for the final two games of the season. In those two contests, Vick compiled his second–highest quarterback rankings of the year (119.2 at Tampa Bay, 12–20–03, and 93.0 vs. Jacksonville, 12–28–03). In 2002, Johnson guided a young receiving corps that included WR Brian Finneran, who had the best year of his career, recording 838 yards on 56 receptions and six touchdowns.

From 2000 to 2001, Johnson served as the quarterbacks coach for the San Diego Chargers. Under Johnson's guidance, Doug Flutie amassed career–highs with 3,464 yards passing and 294 completions in 2001. Flutie's passing yards that season were the most for a Chargers quarterback since Dan Fouts put up 3,638 yards in 1985. During the 2001 campaign, Flutie threw for more than 300 yards on four occasions.

Johnson coached the quarterbacks at Oregon State in 1999 after serving as the Beavers wide receivers coach from 1997 to 1998.

Johnson played five pro seasons as a quarterback, beginning his career as a rookie free agent with the Arizona Cardinals in 1990. After being released as part of the team's final cuts of training camp that season, Johnson played two years for the San Antonio Riders of the World League. Johnson moved to the Canadian Football league in 1992 and quarterbacked the British Columbia Lions for two seasons. From 1994 to 1995, he quarterbacked the CFL's Shreveport Pirates for his final two pro playing years.

Johnson was the backup quarterback at ASU from 1985 to 1986, but then transferred to Mesa Community College, where he became a Junior College All–American in 1987. Johnson then transferred to the University of Akron for two years (1988–89) and was named Akron's Athlete of the Year in 1990.

VANCE JOSEPH

SECONDARY

5TH NFL SEASON, 5TH WITH 49ERS

Vance Joseph enters his fifth season in San Francisco and fourth as secondary coach with the 49ers after originally joining the team on February 17, 2005. He shares the secondary duties with Johnnie Lynn.

Joseph coached a secondary unit comprised of both youth and experience in 2008, overseeing three former Pro Bowlers and a handful of young up–and–comers. S Michael Lewis led all NFC defensive backs in tackles, while CB Walt Harris tied for the team lead with three interceptions. Through the final five games of the 2008 campaign, the 49ers boasted the NFL's third best pass defense, allowing just 887 yards during that span.

Joseph joined San Francisco after spending 2004 as the defensive backs coach at Bowling Green State University. He joined Bowling Green's staff after working in the same capacity at his alma mater, the University of Colorado, for two seasons (2002–03). Joseph also had a brief stint as the secondary coach at Wyoming (2002). He cut his coaching teeth as a graduate assistant for the Buffaloes (1999–01).

Joseph lettered three times during his five–year (1990–94) collegiate career at Colorado as a quarterback. Joseph was a true freshman who saw action on Colorado's 1990 National Championship team.

Joseph signed as an undrafted free agent with the New York Jets in 1995 where he made the transition from quarterback to defensive back. He played 17 NFL games with the Jets and Indianapolis Colts over the course of three seasons. Joseph finished his career with two interceptions.

Born and raised in Marrero, LA, Joseph received a bachelor's degree in marketing from Colorado, in 1994.

JASON MICHAEL OFFENSIVE ASSISTANT
4TH NFL SEASON, 1ST WITH 49ERS

Jason Michael enters his first season with the 49ers as the team's offensive assistant, bringing both NFL and collegiate coaching experience to San Francisco.

Michael most recently served as the tight ends coach at the University of Tennessee during the 2008 season, after spending the previous two years as a member of the New York Jets coaching staff. During his first year with the Jets in 2006, Michael served as the team's quality control coach, which included working with the quarterbacks alongside offensive coordinator Brian Schottenheimer. The following season, he was assigned to assistant tight ends coach for the team. Prior to joining the Jets, Michael served as an offensive quality control coach and video assistant for the Oakland Raiders in 2005.

Michael broke into the coaching ranks as a graduate assistant at the University of Tennessee, where he spent the 2004 season as the primary graduate assistant for defense and special teams. He first arrived at the school as an assistant for both the strength and conditioning and video staffs in 2003.

A collegiate athlete, Michael played quarterback for Western Kentucky from 1999 to 2002, where he threw for more than 1,600 yards and rushed for over 600 yards as a senior. He was named the team's MVP that season after leading the Hilltoppers to the NCAA Division I-AA National Championship.

Michael graduated from Western Kentucky with an undergraduate degree in civil engineering technology. A native of Louisa, Kentucky, he is married to wife, Jamie.

TOM RATHMAN

RUNNING BACKS

13TH NFL SEASON, 9TH WITH 49ERS

Tom Rathman rejoins the 49ers as the team's running backs coach after serving the previous two seasons in the same capacity with the Oakland Raiders. It marks Rathman's second coaching stint with San Francisco, having also coached running backs for the team from 1997 to 2002.

Under the guidance of Rathman, the Raiders rushing attack ranked 10th (124.2 ypg) in the NFL in 2008 after ranking sixth (130.4 ypg) a year prior. Rathman played an instrumental role in developing RB Justin Fargas, who rushed for 1,009 yards in 2007 and 853 yards in 2008.

Prior to joining the Raiders, Rathman served as the running backs coach backs for the Detroit Lions from 2003–05. In 2004, Rathman tutored Kevin Jones, who rushed for 1,133 yards, including an NFL–leading 825 yards on 153 attempts (5.4 avg.) over the final seven games of the season. Jones' performance in his first NFL season was tops among rookies in the NFL that year and the best rookie season by a Lions running back since Barry Sanders in 1989.

In five of Rathman's previous six seasons with the 49ers, San Francisco's rushing attack finished in the top 10 among NFL teams, including top–ranked seasons in 1998 (159.0 ypg) and 1999 (130.9 ypg), to go along with a second ranked unit in 2001 (140.3).

In 2001, Rathman was instrumental in guiding Garrison Hearst, the two–time NFL Comeback Player–of–the–Year, to his second career Pro Bowl selection. He coached Charlie Garner to his second consecutive 1,000–yard season and his first career Pro Bowl selection in 2000 after gaining 1,142 yards on 258 carries and a career–high seven touchdowns. Garner also eclipsed his career–highs with 68 receptions for 647 yards and three touchdowns.

Prior to his coaching career, Rathman enjoyed an NFL playing career of his own that spanned nine seasons (1986–94) as a fullback. He entered the league as a third round pick by San Francisco, where he spent the first eight years of his career helping the 49ers capture two World Championships (Super Bowl XXIII and XXIV) and seven NFC West titles. In 1989, he led all NFL running backs in receiving with 73 receptions for 616 yards. Rathman played his final season in the NFL with the Los Angeles Raiders in 1994, closing out his NFL career with 2,020 rushing yards, 320 receptions for 2,684 yards and 34 combined touchdowns.

In between his playing and coaching career in the NFL, the Grand Island, Nebraska native helped rebuild the Menlo College (CA) program by serving as the team's offensive coordinator in 1996 after serving as the running backs coach at Serra High School in San Mateo (CA) in 1995.

A three–year letterman at Nebraska, Rathman rushed for 1,425 yards and averaged more than six yards per carry.

Rathman and his wife, Holly, have three daughters: Nicole, Alexandra, and Samantha.

VANTZ SINGLETARY

INSIDE LINEBACKERS

1ST NFL SEASON, 1ST WITH 49ERS

Vantz Singletary enters his first season with the 49ers as the team's inside linebackers coach after 17 successful seasons in the collegiate ranks.

His most recent stop at the college level came in 2008 as the defensive tackles coach at Buffalo. During his only season with the Bulls, he was part of a coaching staff that led the school to its first ever bowl appearance. Buffalo's victory over previously unbeaten Ball State in its final regular season game gave the Bulls the 2008 Mid–American Conference title. The defensive unit finished tied for seventh nationally in takeaways (33).

Singletary spent the previous two seasons as the defensive line coach at Tennessee–Chattanooga. The Mocs led the Southern Conference in 2007 in quarterback sacks, take–aways, passes defensed and yards allowed per play. Chatta–nooga posted a nine–sack outing against Elon in 2006 setting a school record.

For seven seasons from 1999 to 2005, Singletary worked as the defensive line coach at Hawaii. In Singletary's first season in the South Pacific, the Warriors were WAC Champions with a 9–4 record, won the Jeep O'Ahu Bowl and became the NCAA's all–time turnaround team after a winless 0–12 season the year prior. The defensive unit accounted for five touchdowns, 17 interceptions, 33 sacks and 17 fumble recoveries.

During his coaching career at Hawaii, Singletary coached 11 All–WAC selections and was the first coach at Hawaii to re–ceive the Award of Excellence for his outstanding support of academics. The future professional football players he men–tored included current 49ers defensive lineman Isaac Sopoaga and Lions Ikaika Alama–Francis. He also coached Cardinals defensive end Travis Laboy, who earned WAC Defensive Player of the Year and first–team All–WAC honors.

From 1997 to 1998, Singletary served as the defensive line coach and recruiting coordinator at Southern, coaching future NFL player Chris White, who was drafted in the seventh round by the Jacksonville Jaguars in 1999. In addition, the Jaguars won the NCAA I–AA Black College National Championship in 1997 and back–to–back Southwestern Athletic Conference titles in 1997 and 1998.

Singletary's coaching career began at Trinity College in Deer–field, Illinois. During his tenure at Trinity from 1992 to 1996, his roles included defensive coordinator, defensive line coach, linebackers coach and recruiting coordinator. Alongside Head Coach Leslie Frazier, Singletary helped lead the school to two Northern Illinois Intercollegiate Conference titles, and under his tutelage, Herbert Coleman became the school's first NFL draft pick as he was selected in the seventh round of 1995 by the 49ers.

As a collegiate coach, Singletary coached in seven Bowl Game appearances – 1997 Heritage Bowl, 1998 Heritage Bowl, 1999 Jeep O'ahu Bowl, 2002 Conagra Foods Hawai'i Bowl, 2003 Sheraton Hawai'i Bowl, 2004 Sheraton Hawai'i Bowl, 2009 International Bowl.

As a player, Singletary starred at defensive tackle and line–backer for Kansas State in 1987 and 1988 after spending two All–American junior college seasons at Blinn College in Brenham, Texas. He received a NFL free agent tryout as a line–backer and lineman with the Philadelphia Eagles.

A native of Houston, TX, Singletary worked as a summer intern at NFL camps for many years, including stints with Arizona, Houston, New Orleans, Tampa Bay, San Diego, San Francis–co and Cincinnati. In June 2004, he was one of 10 minority coaches to be invited to the NCAA Expert Coaching Program in Indianapolis, IN.

Vantz, the nephew of current 49ers head coach Mike Single–tary, is married to the former Shawndra Saulter of Houston, TX. The couple has four daughters – Courtney, LaShea, Briauna and Keona.

JASON TARVER

OUTSIDE LINEBACKERS

9TH NFL SEASON, 9TH WITH 49ERS

Jason Tarver enters his ninth season with the 49ers and his fifth as the team's outside linebackers coach.

This past season, Tarver helped 49ers LB Parys Haralson enjoy a breakout season, leading the team with a career–high 8.0 sacks. Haralson's sack total tied for second most among NFC linebackers. On the opposite side, LB Manny Lawson posted three sacks and two forced fumbles.

In 2007, Tarver played an instrumental role in developing Haralson into a starter as he filled in for Lawson, who was sidelined with a season–ending knee injury in Week 2.

A year prior, LB Brandon Moore paced the defense with 114 tackles, 6.5 sacks and four forced fumbles. On the opposite side, Tarver helped Lawson transition from a college defensive end to a pro outside linebacker. Lawson finished his rookie year with 65 tackles, 2.5 sacks and an interception.

Tarver spent his first three seasons with the 49ers as an offensive quality control coach before becoming the assistant running backs/offensive assistant coach in 2004. He joined the 49ers staff after spending three seasons as a graduate assistant coach with UCLA (1998–00). In his three seasons with the Bruins, Tarver worked primarily with the defensive backfield and also assisted with special teams. Three of the unit's starting defensive backs during that span went on to join the NFL ranks, including CB Ricky Manning, S Marques Anderson and CB Jason Bell.

A Northern California native, Tarver played defensive back and wing back at Foothill High in Pleasanton. He attended Santa Clara University, but played football at West Valley College in 1994 and 1995 because the Santa Clara Broncos cut their program.

After a series of injuries cut his career short, Tarver spent the next two seasons (1996–97) as an assistant coach at West Valley College where he tutored linebackers, defensive backs and special teams.

Born in Stanford, CA, Tarver earned a bachelor's degree in chemistry from Santa Clara in 1997 and is a member of Phi Beta Kappa. He also earned his master's degree in biochemistry and molecular biology from UCLA and received the departmental prize for distinguished teaching in 1998 and 2000.

Tarver and his wife, Katie, reside in San Jose with their son Merrick.

JIM TOMSULA

DEFENSIVE LINE

3RD NFL SEASON, 3RD WITH 49ERS

Jim Tomsula enters his third season with the 49ers after being named the team's defensive line coach on January 16, 2007.

Under Tomsula's tutelage, the 49ers defensive line limited some of the best rushing attacks in the NFL in 2008, finishing the season ranked eighth in yards allowed per attempt (3.8). The 49ers held opponents to just 2.6 yards per carry when rushing up the middle to rank second in the NFL. DE Justin Smith finished the year among the league leaders in tackles for defensive linemen, while also posting seven sacks to rank second on the team.

Tomsula joined the 49ers after enjoying one of the most successful stints in NFL Europa history. Prior to being named the head coach of the Rhein Fire in 2006, which made him the youngest coach in NFLEL history at age 38, Tomsula served as the Berlin Thunder's defensive coordinator for two seasons, winning World Bowl XII in 2004. During that season, Tomsula's defense ranked first in the NFLEL against the run.

Tomsula joined the NFLEL in 1998 as the defensive line coach of the England Monarchs. He then went on to serve in the same capacity for five seasons with the Scottish Claymores, where he established a reputation for producing some of the league's most dominant lines. He also played a leading role in mentoring and teaching young talent in the league's National Player Development program.

Between NFL Europa seasons, Tomsula was also a member of Division II Catawba College's coaching staff and was part of numerous college all-star games in a coaching capacity.

Tomsula was a defensive lineman at Catawba College in Salisbury, NC after transferring from Middle Tennessee State. In 1989, he started his coaching career as an assistant at his alma mater. He was then the defensive line coach at Woodland Hills (PA) High School in 1991 and later was an assistant at Charleston Southern University, SC in 1992.

He and his wife, Julie, reside in San Jose with their daughters Britney and Brooke, and son Bear.

MARK UYEYAMA (ooh-ee-YAH-muh)

ASSISTANT STRENGTH COACH

2ND NFL SEASON, 2ND WITH 49ERS

Mark Uyeyama enters his second season with the 49ers after being hired as the team's assistant strength coach on January 21, 2008.

Uyeyama joined the 49ers after serving as the head strength and conditioning coach at Utah State University from 2004–07.

Uyeyama graduated from Utah in May of 2000 while working as a student assistant strength coach for two years. He then became a graduate assistant at USU before moving to another graduate assistant position at Arizona State from May 2001 through May 2003, when he was promoted to a full-time assistant.

Prior to working in the strength and conditioning field, Uyeyama played football at Butte Community College in Oroville, CA and Northern State University in Aberdeen, SD.

He earned a master's degree in higher and post secondary education from ASU in May of 2003.

BILL NAYES

SPECIAL ASSISTANT TO HEAD COACH

10TH NFL SEASON, 1ST WITH 49ERS

Bill Nayes enters his first season with the 49ers as Special Assistant to the Head Coach.

Prior to joining the 49ers, he served as Assistant Athletic Director/Director of Football Operations at the University of Wisconsin–Madison for three years. With the Badgers, Nayes coordinated all team operations, including game scheduling, budgeting, team travel, camps, operational calendars and schedules, and team bowl trips. He also served as a liaison between football and various departments, and supervised office personnel.

Before his time at Wisconsin, Nayes served as Football Operations Coordinator/Team Travel with the Seattle Seahawks under then Head Coach Mike Holmgren from 1999–06. During his seven years in Seattle, he was responsible for all aspects of the team's travel, including the budget, team charters, hotel accommodations, meal arrangements and ground transportation. Nayes also organized the Seahawks' training camp and mini–camps, as well as the team's operational schedules.

Nayes was originally hired full–time by the Packers in 1997 after serving as a training camp intern during the summers of 1995 and 1996. He worked under Holmgren as Administrative Assistant/Football Operations until 1999.

During his years of working in football operations, which initially began at his alma mater as a student football manager before moving into a Football Operations Assistant role upon graduation, Nayes has been a part of six college bowl games, three international games, and seven NFL postseasons, including 3 Super Bowls.

Nayes graduated with a Bachelor of Science degree from the University of Wisconsin–Madison in 1994. He and his wife Paige, have a daughter, Natalia and a son, Joe. They reside in Santa Clara, CA.

PLAYER PERSONNEL & FOOTBALL OPERATIONS

TRENT BAALKE
DIRECTOR OF PLAYER PERSONNEL

Trent Baalke enters his fifth season with the 49ers and his second as the team's director of player personnel after being appointed to the position in February of 2008. In his 12th NFL season, Baalke oversees both the college and pro personnel departments.

Prior to being named director of player personnel, Baalke served as the Western region scout for the 49ers for three years. He joined San Francisco after spending four years on the Washington Redskins scouting staff, his last (2004) as the club's college scouting coordinator. From 2001–03, Baalke served as Washington's national scout, traveling throughout the country in search of rising talent.

Before joining the Redskins, Baalke spent three seasons (1998–2000) as a scout with the New York Jets.

He previously held the position as the athletic director at Shanley (Fargo, ND) High School. Before his stint at Shanley, Baalke was the defensive line/strength and conditioning coach at South Dakota State (1990–95) where he helped promote former Pro Bowl guard Adam Timmerman and current NFL kicker Adam Vinatieri to NFL scouts.

Baalke cut his coaching teeth as a graduate assistant and defensive line coach in 1989 for North Dakota State. He helped play a role in the team finishing with a 14–0 record and a Division II National Championship, while also working with defensive lineman Phil Hansen, who went on to play 11 seasons for the Buffalo Bills.

A double major at Bemidji State (MN), Baalke received his bachelor's degree in health and physical education. He went on to earn his master's degree in secondary education and sports administration while coaching at North Dakota State. Baalke played outside linebacker and was a two–time All–Northern Sun Conference and an All–Mid West Region honoree at Bemidji.

Baalke and his wife, Beth, have two daughters, Katy and Cassie. The family resides in Loveland, CO.

TOM GAMBLE
DIRECTOR OF PRO PERSONNEL

Tom Gamble enters his 22nd NFL season and his fifth year with the 49ers as the Director of Pro Personnel. In his role, Gamble monitors every NFL roster with an emphasis on scouting talent of upcoming pro free agents. He is also responsible for maintaining continuous depth of personnel on the 49ers roster. Gamble's extensive NFL resume includes work in both college and pro scouting, contract negotiations, and a stint in the coaching ranks with the New York Jets.

During his time in the NFL, Gamble has helped build nine playoff teams – five with Indianapolis and four with Philadelphia. Prior to his arrival in San Francisco, Gamble served as a college scout for the Colts from 1998 to 2004 under veteran NFL executive Bill Polian. He originally entered the NFL as an assistant in the player personnel department of the Philadelphia Eagles in 1988. He stayed with the Eagles through 1994, serving as a college scouting administrator, area scout, contract negotiator, and later served as the director of pro scouting.

From 1995 to 1996, Gamble served as a defensive assistant/quality control coach with the New York Jets. He then worked as a part–time college scout for the Carolina Panthers, while dueling as a pro scout for the Baltimore Ravens during the 1997 season.

Gamble earned his B.S. from High Point University in 1987 and an M.S. from Rowan University in 1988.

Gamble grew up in a football family, where his father, Harry, served as the head coach at both the University of Pennsylvania and Lafayette College. He was also formerly the President of the Philadelphia Eagles.

Gamble and his wife, Juliette, have three sons, Tom, Gregory and Matthew.

DAVID MCCLOUGHAN
DIRECTOR OF COLLEGE SCOUTING

David McCloughan enters his fifth season with the 49ers overseeing the club's college scouting department. In 2004, 49ers General Manager Scot McCloughan recruited David, his older brother, from across the Bay where he spent the previous nine years in the player personnel department of the Oakland Raiders.

David and Scot inherited their love of football and scouting from their father, Kent, who played as a defensive back for six years in Oakland before becoming a college scout for nearly three decades with the Raiders.

David joined his father in Oakland when his own professional football career as a defensive back ended. He then scouted college talent around the country for nearly a decade with the Raiders.

McCloughan was drafted out of the University of Colorado in 1991 by the Indianapolis Colts' with the 69th pick overall in the NFL Draft. He went on to play four seasons in the NFL with Indianapolis, Green Bay and Seattle.

He was a four–year letterman and three–year starter at Colorado and led the nation in punt returns as a senior with a 16.4–yard average. The high school running back standout, who was converted to defensive back at Colorado, earned first team All–Big Eight honors as a senior and first team All–Academic accolades as a sophomore. He was also a member of the 1990 Colorado National Championship team.

A native of Loveland, CO, McCloughan graduated with a degree in marketing and attended Loveland (CO) High School where he lettered in football, basketball and track.

McCloughan and his wife, JoDee, have two sons.

COLLEGE SCOUTS

TODD BRUNNER
AREA SCOUT

Todd Brunner is in his 10th season with the 49ers as a regional scout.

Prior to coming to the 49ers, he spent two seasons with the Cleveland Browns as an area scout where he combed the Northeast region in 1999 and 2000 for college talent. Brunner joined the Browns from the Philadelphia Eagles where he spent four seasons (1994–97) as an area scout covering the Northeast region. He joined the Eagles as a scouting intern in 1992 and worked as a scouting assistant in 1993.

Brunner went to Lehigh (PA) University and lettered two years in football. As a junior, he led the team in special teams tackles and as a senior quarterback, tied or broke 14 school passing records. Following his football career at Lehigh, he spent one season as a graduate assistant at Temple in 1991 and earned his master's degree.

Brunner comes from a football family as his father John coached at Temple, Villanova, Princeton and in the NFL ranks with Detroit, Green Bay, Tampa Bay and Minnesota, before scouting for the 49ers for 13 seasons. His brother, Scott, spent time in the NFL with the New York Giants.

Born in Middletown, NY, Brunner and his wife, Nancy, reside in Robbinsville, NJ, with their daughter, Annie Elizabeth, and son, Chad Joseph.

JUSTIN CHABOT
AREA SCOUT

Justin Chabot is in his sixth season with the 49ers as a Southwest regional scout. Previously, Chabot spent five years as the director of football operations at Northwestern. As part of his role with the Wildcats, Chabot served as the pro liaison to visiting college talent scouts from the NFL. Chabot was extremely familiar with Northwestern's football program, having starred as an offensive lineman on the 1995 and 1996 Big Ten Championship teams.

Chabot tallied 41 career starts on the line for Northwestern, including starts on the 1996 Rose Bowl and the 1997 Citrus Bowl teams. A four–year letterwinner and captain of the 1996 squad, Chabot was named first–team All–Big Ten by the media and coaches his senior year. He was also named to the Academic All–Big Ten list in 1993.

Born in Washington, D.C., Chabot was raised in Oxford, OH. He graduated from Northwestern in 1996 with a degree in sociology and played professionally during the 1997 season with the Pittsburgh Steelers and the New York Giants.

Chabot resides in Baton Rouge, LA with his wife, Suzy, and twin sons, Walker and Brant.

REGGIE COBB
AREA SCOUT

Reggie Cobb enters his first season with the 49ers as the club's the Western region scout.

Cobb joined the 49ers after spending the previous six years scouting the Southwest region for the Tampa Bay Buccaneers and two seasons (2001–02) as a member of the Washington Redskins scouting department.

The 2008 Bucs draft produced CB Aqib Talib, who tied for first in the NFL among rookies with four interceptions, OL Jeremy Zuttah, who started at both guard positions, and LB Geno Hayes, who was a big contributor on special teams. The Buccaneers also signed undrafted rookie free agent RB Clifton Smith, who was selected to the 2009 AFC/NFC Pro Bowl as a kick returner and was named AP Second–Team All–Pro.

The Bucs 2006 draft produced four rookies who saw starting action in their first season: G Davin Joseph (13 games/12 starts), T Jeremy Trueblood (15/13), WR Maurice Stovall (9/2) and QB Bruce Gradkowski (13/11). In 2007, Cobb helped assemble a Bucs draft class that included two rookies that were selected to the PFW/PFWA All–Rookie team in DE Gaines Adams and G Arron Sears, as well as standout FS Tanard Jackson, who started all 16 games.

Cobb enjoyed a seven–year playing career that began as a second–round pick (30th overall) by the Buccaneers in 1990. Cobb played his first four seasons (1990–93) with Tampa Bay before playing one season each with Green Bay (1994), Jacksonville (1995) and the N.Y. Jets (1996).

Cobb finished his college career ranked third on the University of Tennessee's career rushing chart with 2,360 yards and 26 touchdowns. He was also a member of the school's 100th anniversary team. Cobb lettered in track and graduated with a degree in urban studies in 1990.

Cobb and his son, DeMarcus, live in Sugarland, Texas.

KENT KAHL
AREA SCOUT

Kent Kahl enters his third season with the 49ers as the club's Midlands region scout.

Prior to joining the 49ers, Kahl spent more than ten years as a contractor, building homes in the greater Iowa City area.

Kahl was a running back at the University of Colorado (1991–92), where he was part of the same Buffaloes 1991 National Championship team as 49ers Director of College Scouting David McCloughan. After two seasons at Colorado, Kahl transferred to Iowa for his final two collegiate campaigns (1993–94), making the switch to fullback and was voted as the team's MVP his senior year.

In 1995, Kahl spent time in training camp with the San Diego Chargers before returning to the state of Iowa.

Kahl is a native of Ft. Morgan, CO, where he was a running back, forward and hurdler on Ft. Morgan High School's football, basketball and track teams. After his college playing career concluded, Kahl traveled back to his alma mater periodically to assist his father, Rick, who served as the Ft. Morgan football team's head coach for more than 20 years.

Kahl is single and resides in Iowa City, IA.

MATT MALASPINA
AREA SCOUT

Matt Malaspina enters his fifth season with the 49ers as an area scout in the Southeast region after spending five years as an area scout with the Seattle Seahawks. While with Seattle, Malaspina was part of 49ers General Manager Scot McCloughan's staff when he headed the Seahawks' college scouting department.

He spent 1999 with the Carolina Panthers, where he evaluated college players in the Southeast region. Prior to his time with the Panthers, he served one season with National Football Scouting.

Malaspina was an assistant offensive coach at Jacksonville University from 1997 to 1998. He entered college coaching in 1997 as an intern at his alma mater, the University of Central Florida. A 1993 graduate of Central Florida, Malaspina went on to have a brief playing career as a center for the Shreveport Pirates of the Canadian Football League, playing in 1994 and attending training camp in 1995.

Malaspina and his wife, Jennifer, reside in Chuluota, FL, with their son, Carson, and daughters, Grace and Julia.

ETHAN WAUGH
AREA SCOUT

Ethan Waugh is in his sixth season with the 49ers, and his second covering the Midwest as an area scout, after serving as a player personnel assistant and college scouting administrator for four seasons. In covering the Midwest, he is responsible for an area encompassing six states containing schools from the Big 10, SEC, Big East and Mid–American conferences. Prior to being promoted to an area scout, he was involved in assisting the personnel department in a variety of areas, including the evaluation and scouting of college and professional players and working extensively with the 49ers' scouting database.

Waugh joined the 49ers after spending the previous two seasons at Illinois Wesleyan University, where he served as the offensive coordinator, quarterbacks coach and recruiting coordinator.

Prior to his time at Illinois Wesleyan, Waugh served as an assistant at Western Carolina University from 1997–2001. While with the Catamounts, he coached on both the offensive and defensive sides of the ball and assisted with special teams.

Waugh grew up in Vernon Hills, IL, and played defensive back for two years at Lake Forest College before transferring to Lawrence University where he played the slot and quarterback positions. He is a 1997 graduate of Lawrence with a bachelor's degree in history and earned a master's degree in American History from Western Carolina in 1999.

Waugh hails from a football family. His father, Maury, currently coaches at the University of St. Francis (IN), his brother, Tucker, coaches the running backs at Army, and another brother, Adam, coaches the secondary at Cal Poly–San Luis Obispo.

He and his wife, Allison, reside in South Carolina with their sons Spencer and Carter.

PRO SCOUTS

QUENTUS CUMBY
PRO PERSONNEL SCOUT

Quentus Cumby enters his fourth season in the 49ers player personnel department as the team's pro personnel scout.

In his role, Cumby assists the pro scouting department in their evaluation of NFL talent. Cumby is responsible for maintaining current NFL roster boards, depth charts and coordinates player tryouts and visits to the 49ers facility. Cumby also serves as the 49ers weekly advance scout for the personnel and coaching staffs.

Prior to joining the 49ers, Cumby was a physical education teacher at Ben Franklin Intermediate in Daly City, CA, during the 2005–06 term. He began his teaching career in the fall of 2005 after spending the summer as an intern with the Green Bay Packers player personnel department under Ted Thompson and Reggie McKenzie.

In 2003, Cumby was invited to participate in training camp by the Packers as a free agent safety. One year later, he spent the summer of 2004 playing the position in the Canadian Football League with the Edmonton Eskimos.

Cumby played football and ran track at Cleburne (TX) High School where he was an all–state free safety in 1999. He went on to earn a football scholarship to the University of Kentucky where he was a two–year starter at free safety and cornerback from 1999–02. He graduated in 2004 with a bachelor's degree in kinesiology.

Cumby resides in Palo Alto, CA, with his wife Liz.

WILLIAM HOMER
PERSONNEL ASSISTANT

William Homer enters his first season in the 49ers player personnel department as the team's personnel assistant.

In his role, Homer assists the personnel department in a variety of areas, including the evaluation and scouting of college and professional players. He also works extensively with the 49ers college scouting database.

Homer joined the 49ers after serving as the Director of Personnel and Football Operations for the East–West Shrine Game. From 2001–09, he oversaw much of the day–to–day operations for the game, including the selection of the teams, their travel, working with scouts and all the game week specifics.

A graduate of Syracuse University, Homer worked as a student manager at the school from 1997–99, handling equipment duties and serving as an assistant for the offense. He earned bachelor's degrees in broadcast journalism and political science in 1999.

Homer is a native of Hayward, CA. He resides in Fremont with his wife, Marisa, and daughter.

RYAN MYERS

Ferguson joined San Francisco after serving as the manager of athletic team development with BREG, an orthopedic company based out of Vista, CA. From June, 2005 until March, 2006 Ferguson specialized in sports medicine bracing for BREG.

Prior to his move to the West coast, Ferguson spent eight years in several capacities at Kansas State University, though he continued to serve as the athletic trainer for the Kansas State football team throughout his time in Manhattan. He began his career in Wildcat athletics in 1997 as an assistant athletic trainer for intercollegiate sports. In 2002, Ferguson was promoted to assistant athletic director for sports medicine where he stayed until 2005. In his role, Ferguson was responsible for the prevention, evaluation, treatment and rehabilitation of all athletic injuries in addition to supervising medical coverage for 14 collegiate athletic teams. His staff was voted best in the Big 12 for their medical efforts during 2003–04.

The previous two years (1995–97), Ferguson was an athletic trainer with an orthopedic surgeon and physical therapy company in Louisburg, N.C. While doing graduate work at the University of Texas at Arlington, he spent two years as a graduate assistant athletic trainer that included the task of head athletic trainer for the track and field teams.

Ferguson earned his bachelor's degree in 1993 at Clemson University and his master's degree in 1995 at Texas–Arlington. He got his start in college athletic training as a student athletic trainer at Clemson from 1989–93 and spent the 1992 summer as a preseason athletic trainer for the New England Patriots. He is also a certified member of the National Athletic Trainers Association (NATA).

A native of Clemson, S.C., Ferguson is married to the former Rebecca Hopper. The couple resides in Santa Clara, CA, with their two daughters, Madelyn and Alexandra, and son, J.C.

NATE BRESKE
ASSISTANT ATHLETIC TRAINER

Nate Breske enters his second season as an assistant athletic trainer with the 49ers.

Breske joined San Francisco after working at Physical Therapy Specialists in Watertown, South Dakota. After graduating from Physical Therapy School, Breske founded the outpatient clinic, which specializes in sports medicine, post–op orthopedic cases and pain management. He also served as the director of athletic training for the Watertown School System.

Breske obtained his doctorate degree (2000–04) in physical therapy from the University of Nebraska Medical Center in Omaha, Nebraska. In that span, he also interned with the New England Patriots during the 2003 preseason as an athletic trainer.

From 1995–2000, Breske pursued a bachelor's degree in athletic training, biology and psychology at Northern State University in Aberdeen, South Dakota. He played football for NSU and was the starting quarterback as a junior and senior. The two–time team captain earned all–conference (NSIC) and academic all–conference honors.

Breske was an all–state football player at Webster (SD) High School. He is a certified member of the National Athletic Trainers Association (NATA), the American Physical Therapy Association (APTA) and the Professional Football Athletic Trainers Society (PFATS).

Born in Pierre, South Dakota, Breske and his wife, Tia, who is a registered nurse, have two sons, Jherek and Keon Breske and reside in San Jose, CA.

MANNY RIVERA
ASSISTANT ATHLETIC TRAINER

Manny Rivera is in his sixth season as assistant athletic trainer with the 49ers. This is Rivera's second stint with San Francisco after serving as an intern athletic trainer during the 2001 season.

Prior to being hired full time in San Francisco, Rivera spent a year working with the United States Olympic Committee. While with the USOC, he provided medical coverage for hundreds of Olympic and Paralympic hopefuls in track and field, softball, baseball, soccer, volleyball and rugby.

After interning with the 49ers, Rivera served as a graduate assistant athletic trainer for the Indiana University football team. While at Indiana, he was directly responsible for the emergency medical supplies, training supplies and inventory, packing for team travel, as well as game day medical logistics. Rivera was also responsible for supervision, instruction and evaluation of undergraduate athletic training curriculum students. Rivera graduated from Indiana with a Master of Science degree in Kinesiology in 2003.

Rivera began his career in athletic training serving as a student athletic trainer at the University of the Pacific, where he earned a bachelor's degree in Sports Medicine, in 2001. He is a certified member of the NATA.

Rivera, his wife, Lauren, and daughter, Alexis, reside in Santa Clara, CA.

EQUIPMENT MANAGERS

STEVE URBANIAK
EQUIPMENT MANAGER

Steve Urbaniak enters his 11th season with the 49ers and seventh as the team's equipment manager. During his first four seasons in San Francisco, Urbaniak served as an assistant in the equipment department. This season marks Urbaniak's 12th year overall working in the NFL ranks.

He is responsible for the many details that go into filling an NFL team's daily needs. These needs include outfitting players and coaches in safe and advanced equipment, as well as ordering and maintaining all of the team's equipment and sideline apparel. Urbaniak and his staff also transport team equipment to and from all games, as well as assist coaches with daily practice needs.

Urbaniak came to San Francisco in 1999 after serving a one-year internship with the Miami Dolphins in 1998. While in Miami, he served as a member of the host team assigned to the Denver Broncos prior to Super Bowl XXXIII.

Urbaniak attended East Carolina University, where he helped the Pirates reach consecutive Liberty Bowls as a punter before spending two years as the team's student manager. He graduated with a degree in therapeutic recreation in 1998. A certified athletic equipment manager, Urbaniak is also a member of the Athletic Equipment Managers Association. He added acting to his resume in 1998, playing a small role in the feature film "Any Given Sunday."

VIDEO OPERATIONS

KEITH YANAGI
DIRECTOR OF VIDEO OPERATIONS

Keith Yanagi enters his fifth year as the 49ers director of video operations and his 21st year working in the club's video department.

He spent his first six seasons with San Francisco in a part–time capacity, helping the 49ers video staff with day–to–day film responsibilities. Yanagi was then hired on full–time and spent 10 years as the assistant video director before his promotion to director.

Among other duties in his current role, Yanagi oversees all daily video operation responsibilities, including the production and editing of all practices and games for the team's operations personnel. In addition, he directs the production of self–scout and upcoming opponent cut–ups for the coaching staff and players, and video tape and SAT FieldPak exchanges with other teams. His video staff also plays a key role in the NFL Draft as they provide the 49ers college scouting department with highlight tapes of selected draft–eligible players.

Yanagi is responsible for maintaining a four–year library of all NFL games and frequently compiles training tape DVD's for player's take–home study and evaluation.

Over his 20–year service with the 49ers, Yanagi has been a part of 25 playoff games, including three Super Bowls – Super Bowl XXIII, XXIV and XXIX.

His brother, Robert, serves as the director of video operations for the Detroit Lions.

Yanagi did his undergraduate work at the College of San Mateo and San Francisco City College in the fields of photography, film and art. A native of San Mateo, CA, he attended Serra (San Mateo, CA) High School and played on the football and baseball teams.

Yanagi and his wife, Rebecca, currently reside in San Jose. He has one son, Sean.

MARK PRETO
VIDEO OPERATIONS ASSISTANT

Mark Preto is in his sixth year as video operations assistant with the 49ers after joining the team in July of 2004. It marks Preto's tenth year working in the NFL.

Preto joined the 49ers after serving in the same capacity for the Tennessee Titans from 1999–2004. During his time in Nashville, Preto was part of the Titans 2000 AFC Championship team and traveled with the staff to coach the 2003 Pro Bowl.

Prior to joining the NFL ranks, Preto was the video coordinator at Oregon State during the 1998 season after spending the 1995–98 campaigns in the same capacity at Southern Cal when the Trojans captured the 1996 Rose Bowl title.

From 1991–95 Preto served on the video staff at the University of Oregon where he made his first trip to the Rose Bowl. During that span, he spent the 2002 summer as an intern in the Cleveland Browns video department. Preto began his career in sports video at his alma mater, the University of Akron, where he was the video director in 1990 after playing on the Zips football team from 1985–90.

Preto grew up in, Cleveland, OH, where he played football and wrestled at Benedictine (OH) High School. He earned his bachelor's degree in accounting and finance from Akron.

Preto resides in San Jose, CA.

ARASH DAGHIGHIAN
VIDEO ASSISTANT

Arash Daghighian enters his second year as a video assistant with the San Francisco 49ers and will help the video staff with day–to–day film responsibilities.

Daghighian joined the 49ers after serving as an assistant video coordinator for the Amsterdam Admirals in 2007. He served in the same capacity at Cal–Berkeley from 2004 to 2006, coordinating video responsibilities for football among other sports.

From 2001 to 2002, Daghighian served as a broadcast and multimedia assistant with the Oakland Raiders. In his role, he wrote and produced segments for the team's two television shows. It was his second stint with the Raiders, having spent the 1999 season as a season–long intern in the public relations and broadcast department. In 2000, Daghighian served as the assistant video coordinator for Stanford football.

A 2000 graduate of Cal–Berkeley, Daghighian graduated with a degree in business administration. He attended University (Los Angeles, CA) High School, where he lettered in basketball. Daghighian is single and resides in Santa Clara, CA.

DAVID BAAS
(BAHS)

Ht: 6–4 Wt: 330 Born: 9/28/81
College: Michigan
Exp: 5th Year (D–2 in '05)
Career Games/Starts: 60/22

Known for his power and versatility, David Baas has become a mainstay on the 49ers offensive line after being drafted in the second round of the 2005 NFL Draft. Baas made his first career start at left guard in 2008 after having started 13 prior contests at right guard. As a rookie, he entered the starting lineup after knee and shoulder injuries to Jeremy Newberry shuffled the offensive line, moving Eric Heitmann to center and Baas to guard.

TRANSACTIONS: Originally a second–round (33rd pick overall) draft choice by SF in 2005.

GOLDMINE:

- David is a huge karaoke fan. In college, he could often be seen belting out pop, rock, country and even a little rhythm and blues. He tackled the national anthem twice in public settings and began working on a wide range of stylings that included such disparate efforts as Josh Groban's "You Raise Me Up" to old R&B standards.
- David came into the world with quite an entertaining birth tale. In a dash to reach the hospital emergency room, David's parents came up with an alternate plan as their son was ready to be delivered with no time to spare. The Baas' stopped in the bank parking lot and David's father delivered him in the family Datsun.

- Saw action in all 16 games, starting the final 9 contests at LG. Originally penciled in as a starter heading into the offseason, but a torn pectoral muscle suffered in April held him out for the majority of training camp.
- Made first career start at LG vs. Sea. (10/26), replacing Adam Snyder in starting lineup.

PERSONAL:

- Married to Elizabeth. Couple resides in Sarasota, FL.
- Prepped at Riverview (FL) HS and was a USA Today High School All–America honorable mention. Added All–America honors by Super Prep Magazine and Prep Football Report.
- Earned four letters in track. Threw career–best (53 ft, 11 inch) shot put in senior campaign and earned three–time all–county and all–area honors in shot put.
- Majored in general studies.
- Born David Baas (9/28/81) in Bixby, OK.

BAAS' NFL STATISTICS

LEWIS BAKER

Ht: 6–2 Wt: 202 Born: 10/12/84
College: Oklahoma
Exp: 1st Year (FA in '09)
Career Games/Starts: 0/0

Lewis Baker rejoins the 49ers after being signed as an undrafted rookie free agent by the 49ers out of Oklahoma in 2008. He spent training camp with San Francisco and was released prior to the start of the regular season.

TRANSACTIONS: Originally signed by SF as a rookie free agent on 05/01//08…Waived by SF on 08/23/08…Signed by SF on 03/16/09.

GOLDMINE:

- Played LB in college, but made the switch to safety with the 49ers. The transition is fitting, since the player he has tried to model himself after is Steelers safety Troy Polamalu because of his tenacious play. "He's just the type of player who gives everything he's got every play. Even at the end of the game he's still going a hundred miles an hour."

2008:

- Spent training camp in SF after being signed as an undrafted free agent, only to be released prior to the regular season.

PERSONAL:

- An U.S. Army All–American and USA Today second–team All–American at Hebron (TX) HS.
- Competed in track and field and basketball in HS.
- Born Lewis Baker (10/12/84) in Bremerhaven, Germany.
- Majored in Business.

KENTWAN BALMER

(KEN-twonn)

Ht: 6–5 Wt: 315 Born: 10/15/86
College: North Carolina
Exp: 2nd Year (D–1 in '08)
Career Games/Starts: 16/0

The 49ers first–round draft choice in 2008, with the 29th selection overall, Kentwan Balmer is an imposing presence on the defensive line who is able to control blockers at the line of scrimmage. Balmer gained valuable experience in the defensive line rotation as a rookie, seeing action in all 16 games, as he learned the ins and outs of the 3–4 scheme while honing his skills. His versatility will allow him to play inside or outside along the defensive front.

TRANSACTIONS: Originally a first–round (29th pick overall) draft choice by SF in 2008.

GOLDMINE:

- Spent his entire life in North Carolina, but grew up a 49ers fan as his father followed the team during the 1990s. He remembers watching the 49ers goal line stand against RB Natrone Means in their Super Bowl XXIX victory over the San Diego Chargers when he was 8 years old.

2008:

- Played in all 16 games and totaled 20 tackles and a PD, seeing action in the D–line rotation, in goal–line situations and on special teams.
- Made NFL debut vs. Arz. (9/7).
- Saw first extensive action on defense at NYG (10/19) when DE Ray McDonald left game with a knee injury.

PERSONAL:

- Attended Weldon (NC) HS, where he was a member of the North Carolina Shrine Bowl Team after finishing his senior year with 113 tackles, 12 sacks and 6 FRs.
- Majored in African–American history and communications.
- Born Kentwan Balmer (10/15/86) in Weldon, NC.

ARNAZ BATTLE

(ARR-nez)

Ht: 6–1 Wt: 208 Born: 2/22/80
College: Notre Dame
Exp: 7th Year (D–6 in '03)
Career Games/Starts: 73/38

As one of the longest tenured 49ers on the team, Arnaz Battle has developed into an all–around threat as a receiver, blocker and returner. The former college quarterback progressed from a special teams standout during his first two years in SF into one of the team's most reliable offensive players. Battle served as the primary punt and kickoff returner for the 49ers in 2004, and provides depth at both positions. A sixth–round selection in 2003, Battle has recorded 173 recepts. for 2,110 yds. and 11 TDs in 73 career games.

TRANSACTIONS: Originally a sixth–round (197th pick overall) draft choice by SF in 2003.

GOLDMINE:

- Arnaz's tough, hard–nosed play is described by some as competing with a chip on his shoulder. Arnaz however would express it as playing with an angel instead of a chip in remembrance of his younger brother, Brandon. When Arnaz was 9 years old, Brandon passed away in a tragic drowning accident. That memory is one from which Arnaz draws strength and inspiration. On his upper left arm appears a tattoo of his late brother's face that runs from the tip of his shoulder to his bicep.
- A quarterback for most of his collegiate career at Notre Dame, Arnaz transitioned to wide receiver as a rookie with the 49ers. "Being an option quarterback, I initially didn't have the stride it took to be a receiver and open in and out of my routes. I was kind of choppy in my steps. Just putting all of that together, being in shape and getting my muscles stretched so I could extend my running form was probably the most challenging part of making the switch. I think as far as grasping the playbook and the terminology, I found that I was able to digest it much easier and faster having played the quarterback position."
- Arnaz learned his moves early on. His father played at North Texas and then as a tight end for two seasons with the St Louis Rams. By the time Battle became interested in football, his dad was mostly on the road as a truck driver, but when he came home, father and son played catch out in the yard.

- Played in 9 games and was inactive another 4 contests with a foot injury. Eventually placed on IR (12/13).
- Posted 4 recepts. for 44 yds. at Sea. (9/14), including a 3rd down catch in overtime to put the 49ers in position to kick a game–winnning FG.
- Registered first career 100–yd. receiving game as he caught 7 passes for 120 yds. at NO (9/28).

PERSONAL:

- Prepped at C.E. Byrd (LA) HS, where he finished with 5,137 total yds. and rushed for 49 career TDs, while throwing for 28 more and scoring a TD on a kickoff return.
- Parade All–American and was rated 39th–best player nationally by The Sporting News and 52nd–best player by Chicago Sun–Times. A USA Today honorable mention All–America and third–team All–South quarterback by Fox Sports South.
- Battle's father, Ron, played football at North Texas and then as a tight end for 2 seasons with the St. Louis Rams.
- Born Arnaz Jerome Battle (2/22/80) in Dallas, TX, where he resides in the offseason.
- Posted academic honors while maintaining a 3.2 grade point average at Notre Dame. Majored in sociology and computer applications.

JACOB BENDER

Ht: 6–6 Wt: 315 Born: 4/25/85
College: Nicholls State
Exp: 2nd Year (FA in '08)
Career Games/Starts: 2/0

A reserve offensive lineman, Jacob Bender provided depth to the 49ers offensive line midway through the 2008 season after being signed from New England's practice squad. A former sixth–round draft choice by the Jets in 2007, Bender is an athletic blocker who is quick off the snap.

TRANSACTIONS: Originally a sixth–round (177th pick overall) draft choice by NYJ in 2007...Waived by NYJ on 8/30/08...Signed by NE to practice squad on 9/3/08... Signed by SF from NE practice squad on 11/18/08.

GOLDMINE:

- An avid hunter, Jacob's prize catches are a 400–pound Wild Boar and a Corsican Ram. He shot the boar with his bow and arrow on a ranch called The Pig Farm in Pennsylvania where boars are raised and then released to be hunted. At the ages of 12 and 13, Jacob finished 1st and 2nd in the state in consecutive years, respectively, in archery contests and likes to practice during his spare time.

2008 (San Francisco/New England):

- Was inactive for 4 contests and did not play in season finale after being signed off of the Patriots practice squad (11/18).

PERSONAL:

- Attended DeMatha Catholic (MD) HS, where he was team captain and earned all–state, all–conference and all–state academic honors as a senior.
- Born Jacob Bender (4/25/85) in Mayo, MD.

BENDER'S NFL STATISTICS

GAMES/STARTS: 2007 (2/0), 2008 (0/0); CAREER: 2/0

DRE' BLY
(DRAY)

Ht: 5–10 Wt: 188 Born: 5/22/77
College: North Carolina
Exp: 11th Year (FA in '09)
Career Games/Starts: 151/111

A 10–year veteran and two–time Pro Bowler, Dre' Bly looks to provide experience and productivity to the 49ers secondary after joining the team in late May of 2008. Since entering the NFL as a second–round draft choice of the St. Louis Rams in 1999, Bly has generated impressive all–around statistics. His 40 career interceptions entering 2009 rank 4th among all NFL players since 1999, while his 18 forced fumbles are the most among cornerbacks during that time span. He is tied for 4th among all active players with 5 INTs returned for TDs, and owns a total of 8 TDs scored on returns (5 INT, 2 FR, 1 PR).

TRANSACTIONS: Originally a second–round (41st pick overall) draft choice by StL in 1999…Signed by Det. as an unrestricted free agent on 3/1/03...Traded to Den. on 3/2/07...Waived by Den. 2/17/09...Signed by SF on 5/21/09.

GOLDMINE:

- Dre' has made himself a pillar in the community. In 2003, he established the Dre' Bly Foundation, a non–profit organization designed to improve education through physical excellence. The organization helps to promote physical awareness by improving athletic facilities and promoting the importance of athletics in maintaining a healthy body and a healthy mind.
- Dre' donated $150,000 to the University of North Carolina in 2004 to set up a football scholarship in his name. The son of two teachers, he wanted to give the opportunity to others to have a similar experience as he did at North Carolina.

AWARDS & HONORS:

1999: NFC Defensive Player of the Week (NFC–CG)
2003: NFC Pro Bowl (starter)
2004: NFC Pro Bowl (starter)

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

- Earned Pro Bowl honors in his first two seasons with Detroit and became the first Lions player since Jimmy Allen (1978–81) to lead the club or tie for its season high in interceptions during four consecutive years (2003–06).
- His 40 career interceptions entering 2009 rank 4th among all NFL players since 1999, while his 18 forced fumbles are the most among cornerbacks during that time span.
- He is tied for 4th among all active players with 5 INTs returned for TDs, and owns a total of 8 TDs scored on returns (5 INT, 2 FR, 1 PR).
- Joined the 49ers after spending the previous two seasons with the Broncos, where he led the team in interceptions each year.
- Went to Broncos in a trade from Detroit that sent him and a Lions' 2007 sixth–round choice to Denver in exchange for RB Tatum Bell, T George Foster and a Broncos' 2007 fifth–round pick.
- Spent his first four NFL seasons (1999–2002) with St. Louis, helping the club to a win in Super Bowl XXXIV as a rookie in 1999 and an appearance in Super Bowl XXXVI in 2001.

2008 (Denver):

- Started all 16 games and totaled a team–high 2 INTs.
- Had 5 tackles, 1 FF and 1 PD at Cle. (11/6).
- Recorded 3 tackles and an INT at Atl. (11/16).
- Had 5 tackles and 2nd INT of season at NYJ (11/30).

PERSONAL

- Attended Western Branch (Chesapeake, VA) HS, where he was an All–Tidewater, all–city, all–Eastern region, all–state and all–district selection as a senior.
- Finished prep career with 36 TDs and 16 INTs as a three–year starter.
- Holds annual camps and fundraising events, such as the Dre' Bly Celebrity Golf Classic.
- Played centerfield for the Tar Heels' baseball team.
- Born Donald Andre Bly (5/22/77) in Chesapeake, VA. Married to Kristyn, the couple has three sons–Trey, Jordan and Aaron– and a daughter–Peyton.

MARK BRADFORD

Ht: 6–2 Wt: 205 Born: 10/7/84
College: Stanford
Exp: 1st Year (FA in '08)
Career Games/Starts: 0/0

Mark Bradford rejoins the 49ers after spending the final seven weeks of the 2008 season on San Francisco's practice squad. The Los Angeles native attended nearby Stanford University and spent training camp with the Dallas Cowboys in 2008 after being signed as an undrafted rookie free agent.

TRANSACTIONS: Originally signed by Dal. as a rookie free agent on 04/28/08…Waived by Dal. on 08/30/08...Signed by SF to the practice squad on 11/12/08...Signed by SF on 12/29/08.

GOLDMINE:

- While at Stanford, Mark caught the winning TD pass against No. 2 ranked USC in one of the biggest upsets of the 2007 season. He dedicated the game to his father, Mark Bradford Sr., who had died of a heart attack a month prior. "I'm enjoying this as much as I can, but I know this is a game he would have been at," Mark said after the game. "He would have been there cheering and to celebrate it with me. But it's still a great feeling."

2008 (San Francisco):

- Spent final 7 weeks of season on 49ers practice squad after attending training camp with the Dallas Cowboys.

PERSONAL:

- Attended Fremont (CA) HS, where he was a consensus Prep All–America and PrepStar's 4th ranked wide receiver in the country as a senior.
- Named California Freshman of the Year in 2000 and two–time All–City selection at Fremont in basketball.
- Emulated Jerry Rice growing up as a kid.
- Oldest of five siblings.
- Born Mark Bradford (10/07/84) in Los Angeles, CA.
- Majored in political science.

Ht: 6–3 Wt: 259 Born: 3/14/84
College: Virginia
Exp: 4th Year (W in '08–Cin.)
Career Games/Starts: 13/7

A versatile and talented linebacker, Ahmad Brooks enters his second season with the 49ers after being signed off of waivers in 2008 from the Cincinnati Bengals. Originally selected by the Bengals in the third round of the 2006 NFL Supplemental Draft, Brooks immediately showcased his abilities as a rookie and lined up as Cincinnati's starting middle linebacker for 5 contests.

TRANSACTIONS: Originally a third–round selection in the 2006 supplemental draft by Cin. on 7/13/06...Waived by Cin. on 8/30/08...Claimed off waivers by SF on 8/31/08...Waived by SF on 11/29/08...Signed by SF on 12/2/08.

2008 (San Francisco):

- Inactive for the first 13 games of the season before being waived (11/29) and re–signed (12/2) by SF. Was inactive for 3 more contests and did not play at Mia. (12/14).

PERSONAL:

- Attended C.D. Hylton (CA) HS, where he helped team to state titles in 1999 and 2000, and the semi–finals in 2001.
- Named USA Today's National Defensive Player of the Year as a senior after posting 207 tackles. Also rushed for 848 yds. and 10 TDs, averaging 12.6 yds. per carry.
- Played at Hargrave (VA) Military Academy in 2002.
- Father, Perry Brooks, played in 92 games as a defensive tackle for Was. from 1978–84.
- Born Ahmad Brooks (3/4/84) in Fairfax, VA.

TARELL BROWN

(TUH-rell)

Ht: 5–10 Wt: 193 Born: 1/6/85
College: Texas
Exp: 3rd Year (D–5 in '07)
Career Games/Starts: 24/1

A fifth–round pick in 2007, Brown saw increased action at nickel back in 2008, while serving as a standout on special teams (16 tackles). By year's end he had earned the team's Thomas Herrion Award, given annually to the rookie or first–year player who best exemplifies the spirit of Herrion.

TRANSACTIONS: Originally a fifth–round (147th pick overall) draft choice by SF in 2007.

GOLDMINE:

- At the age of 9, Brown's mother was killed as she was getting into her car to go to work early one morning. Following his mother's death, Brown moved in with his father, Robert, who not only saw football as an escape for his son, but also as an opportunity for him to earn a scholarship and a solid education. Just prior to the NFL Draft, his father died of a heart attack on Valentine's Day. After recording his first career INT in 2008 against the Lions, Brown sent the ball to his family home in Mesquite, TX, to put a proper inscription on it in dedication to his late parents.

AWARDS & HONORS:

2007: Thomas Herrion Award

2008:

- Saw action at nickel back due to injuries to CB Shawntae Spencer (knee) and CB Donald Strickland (knee) vs. Det. (9/21) and registered his first career INT.
- Made first career start at Arz. (11/10) as the nickel DB.
- Sealed a 49ers victory at StL (12/21) by intercepting a QB Marc Bulger pass on the 49ers 38–yd. line with 0:22 left.

PERSONAL:

- Attended North Mesquite (TX) HS, where he was a 3–year starter at CB and two–year starter at RB. Rushed for 3,011 yds. and 42 TDs in his final 2 seasons, receiving an invitation to play in the 2003 U.S. Army All–American Game.
- As a senior, gained 1,885 yds. with 28 TDs on 182 carries (10.4 avg.) and caught 10 passes for 281 yds. with 2 scores. Also threw a 26–yd. TD pass.
- A 2–year letter–winner in track (100m, sprint and mile relays) and a sophomore starter at guard in basketball.
- Born Tarell Lameek Brown (1/6/85) in New York City, NY. Resides in Mesquite, TX.

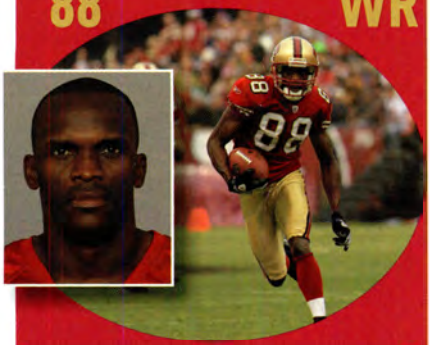
88 WR



ISAAC BRUCE

Ht: 6–0 Wt: 188 Born: 11/10/72
College: Memphis
Exp: 16th Year (FA in '08)
Career Games/Starts: 213/194

One of the most productive receivers in NFL history, Isaac Bruce continues to reach new heights as he enters his second year with the 49ers. A four–time Pro Bowler in 14 seasons with the St. Louis Rams, he is known for his precise route–running and tireless work ethic. Bruce ranks among the NFL's all–time leaders in several statistical categories. He enters the 2009 season ranked 2nd in career receiving yds. (14,934), 5th in career recepts. (1,003) and 9th in career TDs (91). Bruce led the 49ers with 835 receiving yds., 61 recepts. and 7 TD catches in 2008, marking the 11th time he has posted at least 800 receiving yds. in a single season.

TRANSACTIONS: Originally the first of two second–round (33rd pick overall) draft choices by the Los Angeles Rams in 1994…Waived by StL on 2/28/08…Signed by SF as a free agent on 3/4/08.

GOLDMINE:

- A deeply religious person, Bruce is nicknamed "The Reverend" because he wishes to become one after his playing days. When not studying his playbook or running picture–perfect routes on the practice field, Bruce can be found at his locker reading the Bible.
- The future Hall of Fame receiver makes his presence felt in the community as well. He was named a 2009 finalist for the NFLPA's highest honor for community service after volunteering his time to numerous "Community Tuesday" events for the 49ers. While with the Rams, Bruce had earned numerous awards for his community outreach, including the Rams Sprint Good Sport/Man of the Year, Rams True Value Man of the Year and the Carroll Rosenblaum Award.

AWARDS & HONORS:

1995: AP All–Pro, NFC Offensive Player of the Week (Wk 7), NFC Special Teams Player of the Week (Wk 7)
1996: NFC Pro Bowl, AP All–Pro
1999: NFC Pro Bowl, AP All–Pro, NFC Offensive Player of the Week (Wk 5)
2000: NFC Pro Bowl
2001: NFC Pro Bowl
2002: NFC Offensive Player of the Week (Wk 10)
2008: Len Eshmont Award

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

- The four–time Pro Bowler enters 2009 ranked 2nd in career receiving yds. (14,934), 5th in career recepts. (1,003) and 9th in career TDs (91) in NFL history.
- Has recorded 42 100–yd. receiving games and 3 200–yd. receiving games during his career.
- Established career–highs in 1995 with 119 catches, 1,781 receiving yds. and 13 TDs. His 1,781 receiving yds. in a single season rank 2nd all–time behind Jerry Rice's 1,848 (1995). Became first player in NFL history to record 3 consecutive games with at least 170 receiving yds. (181, 191, 173).

2008 (San Francisco):

- Led the team with 61 recepts., 835 receiving yds. and 7 TDs, earning the team's coveted Len Eshmont Award in his first year with the 49ers.
- Caught 4 passes for 153 yds. at Sea. (9/14), marking the most receiving yds. of any 49ers player since TE Eric Johnson had 162 yds. receiving vs. Arz. (10/10/04). His 38.3 avg. yds. per recept. marked the 2nd–highest in 49ers history for a single game when considering receivers who caught at least 4 passes in a contest.
- Played in the 200th game of his career when he started vs. Det. (9/21) and scored his first TD as a member of the 49ers on a 6–yd. pass from QB J.T. O'Sullivan.
- Posted 2 TD catches vs. NE (10/6), marking his 13th career multi–TD game.
- Recorded his 42nd career 100–yd. game after finishing with 8 recepts. for 125 yds. at Dal. (11/23), which included an 18–yd. TD pass in the 4th qtr.
- Established two career milestones on his return to StL (12/21) after recording 7 catches for 61 yds. and a TD.

THOMAS CLAYTON

Ht: 5–11 Wt: 222 Born: 4/26/84
College: Kansas State
Exp: 1st Year (D–6 in '07)
Career Games/Starts: 0/0

A sixth–round pick by the 49ers in 2007, Thomas Clayton has provided San Francisco with depth at running back for the past two seasons. After spending all of 2007 on the 49ers' practice squad, Clayton spent the first 14 weeks of 2008 as part of that unit until being signed to the active roster for the final 2 games.

TRANSACTIONS: Originally a sixth–round (186th pick overall) draft choice by SF in 2007…Waived by SF on 09/01/09…Signed to practice squad by SF on 09/02/07…Signed by SF as a free agent on 01/14/08…Waived by SF on 08/30/08…Signed to practice squad by SF on 08/31/08…Signed by SF to 53–man roster on 12/14/08.

GOLDMINE:

- Clayton was a gym rat from the day he could walk, and started doing light weight lifting when he was 10 years old. With his father in the military, he was taught from a young age the importance of exercise.
- Enjoys rock music. Some of his other favorites are Deftones, The Cure, Glass Jaw and numerous 80s rock bands. He used to work at RFK stadium in Washington D.C. from the age of 11–16 as a vendor for football games. Clayton used the perks of his job to get in free to numerous rock concerts.

2008:

- Inactive for final 2 games of season after being signed to 53–man roster on 12/14/08.

PERSONAL:

- Was a Super Prep All–American at Mt. Vernon (VA) HS, where he was named USA Today All–USA second–team as he rushed for over 2,000 yds. as a senior and scored 26 TDs, leading Mount Vernon to 3A Division 5 title.
- Nicknamed "T–Gun" in college because of his strong build.
- Born Thomas Clayton (04/26/84) in Alexandria, VA.
- Majored in social science.

NATE CLEMENTS

(KLEM-ints)

Ht: 6–0 Wt: 205 Born: 12/12/79
College: Ohio State
Exp: 9th Year (UFA in '07)
Career Games/Starts: 127/122

A resilient, physical and durable defensive back, Nate Clements has provided an impactful presence in the 49ers secondary over the past two seasons. Clements, who routinely matches up against the best receivers in the NFL, prides himself on being multi–dimensional when it comes to playing the cornerback position. He is regarded as one of the surest tacklers in the game and has consistently shown an ability to force fumbles and intercept passes. His 14 fumbles since 2004 rank tied for 1st among NFL cornerbacks and tied for 11th among all NFL players during that time span. A Pro Bowl selection in 2004, Clements ranks tied for 4th among NFL cornerbacks with 26 INTs since 2002.

TRANSACTIONS: Originally a first–round (21st pick overall) draft choice by Buf. in 2001…Signed by SF as an unrestricted free agent from Buf. on 3/2/07.

GOLDMINE:

- Nate's disciplined approach, humble manner and self–motivation stems from a strong figure in his life, his father. Nate Sr. made sure that his young, talented son was focused solely on school and football so that he could achieve his dream of attending Ohio State on a scholarship. Nate worked out at 6 a.m. before school started during his junior and senior years at Shaker Heights (OH) HS. He stayed up until midnight to finish his homework and study for the SATs after he finished football practice. Nate later became the first player inducted into his high school Hall of Fame and was a USA Today All–American at Ohio State. Nate Sr. has pushed him all the way, and still does today. After being voted to the Pro Bowl in the NFL, Nate Sr. told his son that while the All–Star game was an impressive achievement, maintaining consistency is how Nate would truly leave his mark in the league and eventually earn the ultimate honor – Hall of Fame status.
- Nate has aspirations on the golf links following his NFL playing days. "After I'm done playing football, I want to turn pro in golf. If I dedicate my time in golf like I do in football, I can definitely make it." Todd France, Clement's agent, said his client is not far from being a scratch golfer. As for Nate's own account of his game, "I have my days," he said. "Really, I am a golfer. That is what I think I am going to be doing after football. I've been golfing since I was 12. I never really had a chance to pursue it hard because football was my first love. But, whenever I get a chance, I like to go golfing."
- Since arriving in SF, Nate has been one of the most active players in the community and has taken part in the majority of the "Community Tuesday" events organized by the team. "It's definitely a personal experience for me, giving back each week. I go home with a good feeling knowing that I helped somebody who's not in the position that I'm in. I know that I'm able, so I'm willing. It's not always about giving money, it's giving time. That's what most people want, just a little bit of time."

AWARDS & HONORS:

2001: Football News All–Rookie Team, Sports Illustrated NFL Defensive Rookie of the Year
2002: AFC Defensive Player of the Week (Week 7)
2004: AFC Pro Bowl
2007: Bill Walsh Award (Co–recipient with Patrick Willis)

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

- A Pro Bowl selection in 2004, ranks tied for 4th among NFL cornerbacks with 26 INTs since 2002.
- His 14 FFs since 2004 rank tied for 1st among NFL CBs and tied for 11th among all NFL players during that span.
- Had a streak of 119 consecutive games started come to an end in 2008 when he was sidelined with a thumb injury vs. NYJ (12/7). It marked the only NFL game he had missed during his 8–year career.
- Has returned 5 INTs, 2 punts and 1 blocked FG att. for TDs.
- His 6 INTs in 2002 tied him for 2nd in AFC behind Oakland CB Rod Woodson (8).

2008 (San Francisco):

- Posted 7 tackles and 1 FF at Sea. (9/14). His FF on WR Billy McCullen was recovered by S Michael Lewis as the Seahawks were driving deep into 49ers territory.
- Recorded first INT of season vs. NE (10/6) off QB Matt Cassel, picking off pass at 49ers 6–yd. line in 1st qtr.
- Scored 8th career TD when he returned a blocked FG attempt 74 yds. for a score at NYG (10/19).
- Inactive vs. NYJ (12/7) with thumb injury, snapping a streak of 119 consecutive starts.

PERSONAL:

- Was a USA Today, Blue Chip Illustrated and Super Prep All–America selection at Shaker Heights (OH) HS, where he also was an all–state selection. Tallied 14 career INTs.
- During senior season, picked off 7 passes, returning one for a TD, and had 14 PDs. Also scored twice on kickoff returns and competed at quarterback, throwing 16 TD passes.
- Became first player inducted into high school's HOF.
- Born Nathan D. Clements (12/12/79) in Shaker Heights, OH. Married to Melissa.
- Majored in general studies.

VERNON DAVIS

Ht: 6–3 Wt: 250 Born: 1/31/84
College: Maryland
Exp: 4th Year (D–1A in '06)
Career Games/Starts: 40/38

As one of the most versatile tight ends in the NFL, Vernon Davis provides tremendous size, strength and speed to the 49ers offense. The 49ers first–round pick in 2006 was named a Pro Bowl alternate following the 2008 season after playing an instrumental role as both a receiver and blocker for San Francisco. His tremendous blocking has also helped RB Frank Gore to rush for over 1,000 yds. in each of the past 3 seasons.

TRANSACTIONS: Originally the first of two first–round (6th pick overall) draft choice by SF in 2006.

GOLDMINE:

- Vernon's younger brother, Vontae, was recently selected in the first round of the 2009 NFL Draft by the Miami Dolphins.
- Ran a 4.38 in the 40–yd. dash at the 2006 NFL Combine.
- Who said athletes and the arts don't mix? Vernon brought his football and artistic talents together when he took part in the NFL Players Association and NFL Retired Players Association's Smocks and Jocks event at Super Bowl XLI in South Florida. The annual event unites retired and active NFL players to auction off their own original artistic works for charity. Vernon entered a piece called "Kissing Him," which was displayed and auctioned off prior to the Super Bowl. Vernon switched his original major in college, criminal justice, to art studio so he could pursue his passion of art.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

- In 2007, set career–highs in recepts. (52), receiving yds. (509) and TD catches (4), ranking 2nd on the team in each category despite missing 2 games due to a knee injury.
- Scored on his first ever NFL touch as a rookie in the season–opener at Arz. (9/10).

2008:

- Ranked 3rd on team with 31 catches for 358 yds. to go along with 2 TDs as he was named a Pro Bowl alternate.
- Posted a career–long 57–yd. catch vs. Phi. (10/12) and finished day with 6 recepts. for 75 yds.
- Caught first TD pass of season at Arz. (11/10) on a 3rd–and–10 play in 2nd qtr. to give 49ers a 21–13 lead.
- Registered second TD recept. of season on a 2–yd. pass from QB Shaun Hill vs. StL (11/16).

PERSONAL:

- Started three seasons at tight end and safety at Dunbar (Washington, D.C.) HS, but also saw time at wide receiver, kick returner, linebacker and defensive end during his tenure, as team compiled a 31–5 overall record.
- As a senior, was chosen second–team All–USA by USA Today after catching 21 passes for 511 yds. (24.3 avg.) and 5 TDs. Also returned 4 kicks for TDs.
- Selected to play in U.S. Army All–American Bowl as a junior.
- Was the DCIAA champion in the high jump (6'5).
- Nickname "The Duke" originated from a name he inherited from his father who was called "Duke."
- Donated $10,000 to Newborn Pentecostal in honor of his grandmother, Adaline, who raised Vernon and his six siblings.
- Born Vernon Davis (1/31/84) in Washington, D.C.

DEMETRIC EVANS

Ht: 6–4 Wt: 275 Born: 9/3/79
College: Georgia
Exp: 8th Year (UFA in '09)
Career Games/Starts: 96/23

Demetric Evans enters his first season with the 49ers after serving as a consistent contributor on the Washington Redskins defensive line during the previous five years. A stout performer against the run, Evans has also shown an ability to rush the passer. His most extensive action on the line occurred in 2008 when he started 11 games for the Redskins and posted a career–high 3.5 sacks. Evans has posted 207 tackles, 13.0 sacks and 3 FFs in 96 career games (23 starts).

TRANSACTIONS: Originally signed by Dal. as a rookie free agent on 4/27/01...Waived by Dal. on 8/31/03...Signed by Was. on 6/15/04...Signed by SF as an unrestricted free agent on 3/10/09.

GOLDMINE:

- Demetric has taken advantage of the NFL's sponsored business school programs over the past several years. He attended the Harvard Business School program in 2005, followed by Northwestern's Business School in 2007. Evans put the programs into action during the 2008 offseason by interning at an Infinity dealership in Washington D.C.

2008 (Washington):

- Posted career–highs with 47 tackles and 3.5 sacks.
- In first starting assigment of season, helped defense hold RB Marion Barber to just 26 yds. at Dal. (9/28).
- Put finishing touches on a critical goal line stand vs. Cle. (10/19) by knocking down a QB Derek Anderson pass on 4th down in the 4th qtr.
- Recorded first sack of season by dropping QB Drew Orlosvsky for a 6–yd. loss at Det. (10/26).
- Led Redskins pass rush by tallying a career–high 2.5 sacks vs. Pit. (11/3).

PERSONAL:

- Attended Haynesville (LA) HS, where he played both defensive and offensive line, leading team to 3 consecutive state titles. His high school jersey was retired in 2007.
- Launched his "92 Blessings" Foundation in 2008 (92blessings.com), which helps single parents for the holidays and those who cannot afford to have their children participate in extracurricular activities.
- Born Demetric Untrell Evans (9/3/79) in Haynesville, LA. He is married to wife, Dr. Aungel Latchley Evans.

JOE JON FINLEY

Ht: 6–6 Wt: 251 Born: 1/30/85
College: Oklahoma
Exp: 1st Year (FA in '08)
Career Games/Starts: 0/0

An undrafted rookie free agent signed by the 49ers in 2008, Joe John Finley provides the 49ers with depth at the tight end position. He spent the entire 2008 season on San Francisco's practice squad.

TRANSACTIONS: Signed as an undrafted free agent by SF on 05/01/08...Waived by SF on 08/30/08…Signed by SF to practice squad on 08/31/08…Signed by SF as a free agent on 12/29/08.

GOLDMINE:

- During the offseason, Joe Jon returns to his hometown of Victoria, TX, to help his dad coach a local high school football team.
- When he isn't playing football, Joe Jon is an avid golfer. While in 8th grade, he was leading by 3 strokes with 1 hole to play in the district championship. On the final hole, Joe Jon hit a drive down the middle that someone picked up, costing him the title. He finished 1 stroke behind the winner. The unfortunate event hasn't soured him from the sport, as he still plays 3–4 times a week during the summer and averages scores in the low 80s.

2008 (San Francisco):

- Spent entire season on 49ers practice squad.

COLLEGE:

Played in 51 games with 29 starts at Oklahoma, totaling 62 recepts. for 775 yds. and 10 TDs. Had his biggest season as a senior when he started 13 of 14 games and posted career–highs of 23 recepts., 290 receiving yds. and 4 TDs.

PERSONAL:

- Combined for 2,523 yds. of total offense as a senior at Arlington (TX) HS, passing for 1,626 and gaining another 897 with 9 TDs on the ground when he led his team to a 12–2 record as well as District and Bi–District titles for 2nd straight year. Earned all–district and all–area tight end honors as a sophomore.
- Also competed in the 110m hurdles and qualified for the state meet while at Arlington.
- Brother, Matt, played defensive back at Nebraska.
- Born Joe Jon Finley (01/30/85) in Brownwood, TX.
- Majored in sociology.

AUBRAYO FRANKLIN

(ah-BRAY-uh)

Ht: 6–1 Wt: 317 Born: 8/27/80
College: Tennessee
Exp: 7th Year (UFA in '07)
Career Games/Starts: 66/29

Aubrayo Franklin has played an instrumental role as a starter on the 49ers defensive line since being signed as an unrestricted free agent from Baltimore in 2007. A stalwart against the run, Franklin started 14 games for the 49ers in 2008 and tallied career–highs of 77 tackles and 2 FFs. He played a big role in helping the 49ers defense limit opponents to just 2.8 yds. per carry on runs up the middle, an average that ranked 5th best in the NFL. Franklin joined the 49ers from the Ravens in 2007, where he spent four seasons as a reserve lineman.

TRANSACTIONS: Originally the first of two fifth–round (146th pick overall) draft choices by Bal. in 2003…Signed by SF as an unrestricted free agent from Bal. on 3/3/07.

2008 (San Francisco):

- Totaled career–highs of 77 tackles and 2 FFs.
- Registered a career–high 9 tackles vs. NE (10/6).
- Forced fumble at NYG (10/19) by RB Brandon Jacobs.
- Sacked QB Chad Pennington for 6–yd. loss at Mia. (12/14).

PERSONAL:

- Attended Science Hill (TN) HS, where he was an all–state LB, recording 180 tackles as a senior.
- Born Aubrayo Razyo Franklin (8/27/80) in Johnson City, TN.
- Majored in arts and sciences.

DASHON GOLDSON

(duh-SHONN)

Ht: 6–2 Wt: 200 Born: 9/18/84
College: Washington
Exp: 3rd Year (D–4B in '07)
Career Games/Starts: 19/2

A talented, young safety with great size and range, Dashon Goldson has earned valuable experience on defense and special teams since being selected in the fourth round of the 2007 NFL Draft by the 49ers. Known for his penchant to be around the football, Goldson was limited to 9 games last season due to a knee injury. In 19 games played, he has tallied 38 tackles and 3 PDs, while also totaling 20 special teams stops.

TRANSACTIONS: Originally the second of three fourth–round (126th pick overall) draft choices by SF in 2007.

GOLDMINE:

- Dashon used to keep his hair short, but when he entered college he let his hair grow. Now, his long dreadlocks hang out of his helmet on game days. "I don't like just anyone cutting my hair because they can mess you up," said Goldson. "So while I was in college, it started getting long, so I decided to let it go for the first time. First I had braids, but everyone had braids. So, I decided to lock it up."

2008:

- Started first game of career when 49ers opened game in nickel defense at Sea. (9/14) and totaled 5 tackles.
- Posted 1 tackle at NYG (10/19) before leaving game with a knee injury in 2nd qtr.
- Saw extensive action at safety vs. Was. (12/28) in place of starter S Michael Lewis, who was injured in 2nd qtr.

PERSONAL:

- Attended Narbonne (CA) HS, where he received two votes in the Long Beach Press–Telegram's 2001 "Best in the West" poll, and earned first–team All–Marine League honors in each of his final two seasons.
- As a senior, totaled 130 tackles and 6 INTs, with 2 for TDs.
- Born Dashon Goldson (9/18/84) in Carson, CA.
- Earned a degree in African Ethnic Studies in June 2006.

FRANK GORE

Ht: 5–9 Wt: 217 Born: 5/14/83
College: Miami (FL)
Exp: 5th Year (D–3A in '05)
Career Games/Starts: 59/46

The heart of the 49ers offense for the past 4 seasons, Pro Bowl back Frank Gore has established himself as one of the premier running backs in the NFL. Known as a breakaway threat and tough inside runner, the former third–round pick became the first 49er in team history to record 3 consecutive 1,000–yd. rushing seasons. Gore's 3,833 rushing yds. over the past 3 years rank as the 2nd–most of any running back during that time span, trailing only RB LaDainian Tomlinson's 4,399. His 4.72 yds. per carry since 2006 rank as the highest avg. of any running back with at least 700 carries. Gore rushed for 1,036 yds. and a team–high 6 TDs in 2008 despite starting only 14 games.

TRANSACTIONS: Originally the first of two third–round (65th pick overall) draft choices by SF in 2005.

GOLDMINE:

- Frank's determination to run over defenders comes from his tough upbringing in Miami, FL. Some considered his football career over when he suffered two serious knee injuries at the University of Miami. He relied, however, on his mother Liz's strength to help him through. "She had been on dialysis (awaiting a kidney transplant) since I was in the 11th grade and raised three kids as a single woman," Frank said. Unfortunately, Liz lost her battle with kidney disease before the 49ers second game of the 2007 season against the St. Louis Rams. Playing with a heavy heart, Frank responded by rushing for 81 yds. and 2 TDs, including a 43–yd. score on a 4th–and–1 carry, helping the 49ers to a 17–16 victory.
- Frank has spent the past summers running hills in Miami with a truck tire tethered to his torso as part of his training regimen.
- Frank likes to remind himself of the kind of running back he was in high school. He's known to watch old high school highlight films of himself the day before games. It also helps him feel as if he's not too far from home. Frank rushed for 2,953 yds. and 34 TDs as a senior at Coral Gables (FL) HS.

AWARDS & HONORS:

2006: NFC Pro Bowl, Ed Block Courage Award, Bill Walsh Award, NFC Offensive Player of the Week (weeks 5 &11)
2007: Garry Niver Award, NFC Offensive Player of the Week (Week 12)

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

- Earned Pro Bowl honors in 2006 after setting franchise records with 312 carries, 1,695 rushing yds., 2,180 total yds. from scrimmage and 9 100–yd. rushing games.
- Became the first 49er in team history to record 3 consecutive 1,000–yd. rushing seasons.
- His 3,833 rushing yds. since 2006 rank as the 2nd–most of any running back during that time span, trailing only RB LaDainian Tomlinson's 4,399. His 4.72 yds. per carry since 2006 rank as the highest avg. of any running back with at least 700 carries.
- In 2007, battled through a broken hand suffered in training camp and an ankle injury during the season to rank 6th in the NFL in total yds. from scrimmage (1,538 yds. – 1,102 rushing, 436 receiving).
- Set a 49ers single–game rushing record with 212 yds. vs. Sea. (11/19/06).
- Led the team as a rookie with 608 rushing yds., in 2005.

2008:

- Led team in rushing with 1,036 yds. and 6 TDs, becoming first player in 49ers history to record 3 consecutive 1,000–yd. rushing seasons.
- Totaled 151 yds. of offense in season–opener vs. Arz. (9/7), rushing for 96 yds. on 14 carries, including a 41–yd. TD run, and catching 4 passes for 55 yds.
- Rushed for 130 yds. on 27 carries and a TD vs. Det. (9/21).
- Scored 2 first half TDs vs. StL (11/16) as he posted his 15th career 100–yd. rushing game.
- Recorded 52 rushing yds. and a TD vs. NYJ (12/7) before leaving game with an ankle injury in 3rd qtr.

PERSONAL:

- Attended Coral Gables (FL) HS, where he was one of nation's most heavily–recruited and highly–regarded running backs after setting a Dade County record in 2000 for rushing yd. avg. in a season with 2,953 yds. and 34 TDs as a senior.
- Rushed for 1,559 yds. and 28 TDs as a junior in 1999 in addition to posting 301 receiving yds. and 4 more scores through the air.
- Listed as best tailback on Florida Times–Union Super 75 list and earned Super Prep All–American honors.
- Born Frank Gore (5/14/83) in Coral Gables, FL. Single. Resides in Coral Gables, FL.
- Majored in business management and organization.

98 LB

PARYS HARALSON
(PARIS)

Ht: 6–0 Wt: 255 Born: 1/24/84
College: Tennessee
Exp: 4th Year (D–5 in '06)
Career Games/Starts: 39/21

Parys Haralson had a breakout season in 2008, leading the team with a career–high 8 sacks, a total that tied for 2nd most among NFC linebackers and marked the most by a 49ers linebacker in a single season since Kevin Greene recorded 10.5 in 1997. His efforts were rewarded with a four–year contract extension through 2013 this spring. After serving as a reserve during his rookie season, Haralson moved into the starting lineup 6 games into 2007 season in place of an injured LB Manny Lawson (knee). He went on to start 11 games that year before starting 10 contests in 2008. A former collegiate defensive end, Haralson made the transition to outside linebacker upon joining San Francisco.

TRANSACTIONS: Originally a fifth–round (140th pick overall) draft choice by SF in 2006...Signed a four–year contract extension through 2014 on 4/16/09.

GOLDMINE:

- Parys' diligent work ethic was instilled at the age of 14. While growing up in Flora, MS, his uncle and grandparents gave him an early introduction to life in the real world. He worked with his uncle at Sun Belt Bolts and Screws until he was 18 years old. After that, he labored in his grandfather's junkyard. Parys says his family helped instill the blue–collar foundation he leans on now as an NFL player. "You had to have a hard work ethic because it was an 8–hour job in the hot Mississippi sun. Sometimes I didn't want to go, but my grandparents made me go because if I didn't work for what I wanted, they weren't going to give it to me." Those lessons taught Parys that good things don't come without hard work and perseverance.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

- Led the team with a career–high 8 sacks in 2008, a total that tied for 2nd–most among NFC LBs and marked the most by a 49ers LB in a single season since Kevin Greene (10.5) in 1997.

2008:

- Posted career–highs with 57 tackles and 8 sacks. His sack total ranked tied for 2nd among NFC linebackers and were the most by a 49er since Andre Carter's 12.5 in 2002.
- Had a career–high 2 sacks vs. Arz. (9/7).
- Made first start of season vs. Phi. (10/12).
- Tallied 3 tackles, 1 sack and 1 FR vs. StL (11/16).
- Notched 5 tackles and 1.5 sacks vs. NYJ (12/7).

PERSONAL:

- All–American selection as a senior at Madison Central (MS) HS. Also a two–time Class 5A All–State and three–time All–Metro choice.
- Helped Madison Central to a state title his sophomore season with a 15–0 record, while his junior (9–2) and senior (10–3) teams also advanced to the playoffs.
- Born Parys Sharron Haralson (1/24/84) in Flora, MS.
- Majored in sociology.

Ht: 6–1 Wt: 245 Born: 9/20/81
College: Southern Utah
Exp: 5th Year (UFA in '09)
Career Games/Starts: 56/6

A free agent signing by the 49ers in 2009, Marques Harris spent his first four seasons as a member of the San Diego Chargers. Known as a playmaker on special teams, Harris provides a pass rush threat from the linebacker position. He started a career–high 3 games in 2008, posting 29 tackles, 2.5 sacks and 2 FFs.

TRANSACTIONS: Originally signed by SD as an undrafted rookie free agent on 04/29/05…Signed by SF as an unrestricted free agent on 04/30/09.

GOLDMINE:

- Having spent most of his childhood in Colorado, Marques participates in a wide range of outdoor activities, including snowboarding, backpacking, camping and fishing.
- When Marques began his collegiate career at the University of Colorado, he became a second generation Buffalo. His dad, Alvin Phillips, played linebacker for the Buffaloes from 1972–76, and his uncle, Chuck Wiman, also played for the Buffaloes in the '70s.

2008 (San Diego):

- Recovered surprise onside kick in 2nd qtr. on Monday Night Football game vs. NYJ (9/22).
- At Oak. (9/28), sacked QB JaMarcus Russell for 9–yd. loss on a 3rd–and–6 play, while stripping football and recovering it at the 13–yd. line.
- Started at Mia. (10/5) for an injured Jyles Tucker (hamstring) and shared a 2nd qtr. sack with LB Shaun Phillips.
- Made second start of season vs. NE (10/12), posting an 8–yd. sack and a FF on QB Matt Cassel in 2nd qtr.

PERSONAL:

- Attended Grand Junction (CO) HS, where he was a two–time first–team all–league choice.
- Lettered four years in wrestling, earning all–state three times and winning state title in 189–pound weight class.
- Played catcher and outfielder in baseball as a freshman and sophomore.
- Born Marques Harris (9/20/81) in Salt Lake City, UT. He and his wife, Brandy, have a daughter and son, Savannah and Daunte.
- Earned degree in communications from Colorado.

WALT HARRIS

Ht: 5–11 Wt: 196 Born: 8/10/74
College: Mississippi State
Exp: 14th Year (FA in '06)
Career Games/Starts: 193/173

Walt Harris brings an abundance of experience and talent to the 49ers secondary. A first–round selection by Chicago in 1996, Harris is an invaluable team leader and mentor in both the classroom and on the field. He joined the 49ers after playing six NFL seasons in Chicago, two in Indianapolis and two in Washington. There are only three active defensive backs who have played more career games than Harris – Aaron Glenn (205), Lawyer Milloy (202) and Ty Law (196). Harris tied for the team lead in INTs in 2008 (3) and 2007 (4) after totaling a career–high 8 picks in 2006. His 8 INTs ranked tied for first in the NFC as he was named to his first Pro Bowl.

TRANSACTIONS: Originally a first–round (13th pick overall) draft choice by Chi. in 1996…Signed by Ind. as an unrestricted free agent on 3/18/02…Waived by Ind. on 2/27/04…Signed by Was. as a free agent on 3/18/04…Waived by Was. on 3/10/06..Signed by SF as a free agent on 3/15/06.

GOLDMINE:

- Walt's competitive streak can be traced back to his childhood when he had to pull out all the stops to stand out from his 10 siblings. Walt is the youngest of 11 children as he has 6 older brothers and 4 older sisters.

AWARDS & HONORS:

1996: College & Pro Football Newsweekly All–Rookie team, Football News All–Rookie team, PFWA All–Rookie Team

2006: NFC Pro Bowl, PFW/PFWA All–NFC Team, NFC Player of the Month (November), NFC Defensive Player of the Week (Week 17), Bill Walsh Award

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

- Only three active defensive backs have played more career games than Harris – Aaron Glenn (205), Lawyer Milloy (202) and Ty Law (196).
- Tied for team lead in INTs in 2008 (3) and 2007 (4) after totaling a career–high 8 picks in 2006. His 8 INTs ranked tied for first in the NFC as he was named to his first Pro Bowl.
- Has scored 5 career TDs (4 INTs returned for TDs and one score off of a blocked punt).

2008 (San Francisco):

- Tallied 5 tackles, 1 INT and 1 PD at Sea. (9/14). Tipped a pass that LB Patrick Willis intercepted and returned 86 yds. for a TD. On the next series, intercepted a QB Matt Hasselbeck pass at the Seattle 42–yd. line, which eventually led to a RB Frank Gore TD and 27–20 lead.
- Posted 5 tackles, 3 PDs, 1 sack and 1 INT vs. StL (11/16).
- Recorded 4 tackles and 1 INT vs. NYJ (12/7), while helping limit QB Brett Favre to just 137 passing yds.

PERSONAL:

- Attended LaGrange (GA) HS and was All–America honorable mention by USA Today, helping team compile a 34–6 record in his final three years.
- Also ran track as a hurdler at LaGrange.
- Born Walter Harris (8/10/74) in LaGrange, GA. Married to Trina. Couple resides in Atlanta, GA with three children: Courtney, London and Summer.

ERIC HEITMANN

(HITE-minn)

Ht: 6–3 Wt: 312 Born: 2/24/80
College: Stanford
Exp: 8th Year (D–7A in '02)
Career Games/Starts: 103/98

Eric Heitmann has been a mainstay on the 49ers offensive line since being drafted in the seventh round of the 2002 NFL Draft. Known for his leadership, Heitmann earned the Bobb McKittrick Award for the third consecutive season in 2008, an honor which is given to the team's top offensive lineman as voted upon by his peers. He was rewarded for his efforts during the 2008 season with a three–year extension, keeping him with the 49ers through 2011. In 2007, Heitmann won the Ed Block Courage Award after returning from a broken leg suffered late in 2006 season. After lining up at both guard positions early in his career, Heitmann moved to center for the final 6 games of the 2005 season and has remained there since. He was the first 49ers rookie to start a game on the offensive line since 1987 when Harris Barton started at right tackle.

TRANSACTIONS: Originally the first of two seventh–round (239th pick overall) draft choices by SF in 2002.

GOLDMINE

- At the age of 5, Eric started playing the piano. By the time he was 8, he could play Billy Joel's "We Didn't Start the Fire" and "Piano Man." At 11, he composed his first original piece while beginning to balance playing piano and football. In 2006, Eric visited Fantasy Studios in Berkeley to meet with renowned composer Gary Malkin. The day began with a tour of Fantasy Studios, including a stop in the recording studio where music and movie visuals come together on screen. As a "homework assignment," Eric was given a video for a commercial that Malkin scored which was played at the Summer Olympics. Eric, in turn, composed a musical score that fit the athletes and emotions in the piece.

AWARDS & HONORS:

2006: Bobb McKittrick Award
2007: Ed Block Courage Award, Bobb McKittrick Award
2008: Bobb McKittrick Award, Garry Niver Award

2008:

- Started all 16 games at center and earned the Bobb McKittrick Award for the third consecutive season.
- Only missed 1 series during the entire season, leaving the game briefly vs. Arz. (9/7) with a shoulder injury.

PERSONAL:

- Consensus All–America selection at Katy (TX) HS, and a first–team All–District, All–Greater Houston and All–state choice senior season, adding first–team All–District as a junior.
- Member of National Honor Society.
- Also participated in track.
- Born Eric Wade Heitmann (2/24/80) in Katy, TX. Married to Emily. Couple splits time between Palo Alto, CA, and Austin, TX.
- Earned a degree in public policy.

JASON HILL

Ht: 6–0 Wt: 202 Born: 2/20/85
College: Washington State
Exp: 3rd Year (D–3A in '07)
Career Games/Starts: 21/2

A speedy wide receiver, Jason Hill saw increased action in his second season with the 49ers. After seeing action in only 5 games as a rookie due to hamstring and groin injuries, Hill bounced back healthy in 2008 and saw action in all 16 games with two starts. He also served as a playmaker on special teams, ranking 2nd on the team with 17 tackles.

TRANSACTIONS: Originally a third–round (76th pick overall) draft choice by SF in 2007.

GOLDMINE:

- A San Francisco native, Jason was on cloud 9 when he was selected by the 49ers due to the fact that he could make an impact both on and off the field. He has since donated his time and money to help underprivileged youth in the tough neighborhood he grew up in. "He's seen a lot of his friends die," said his mother, Laverne Videaux. "The environment was drug–infested." At the same time, she said proudly, all six of her children have grown up educated and "very respectable." Jason "did his schoolwork, he played sports, he was totally focused," recalled an aunt, Barbara Lubinski. Jason has sponsored a dinner for the homeless and a park refurbishing at Hunters Point. This past Christmas, he arranged for his own holiday giving event. He created flyers and used word of mouth to spread the news that he would be giving away gifts at the Margaret Hayward Playground and the Tenderloin Police Department.
- Jason is an animal lover and enjoys spending time with his bulldog Buddy. He has had Buddy since his playing days at Washington State.
- Hill posted the second fastest 40–yd. dash time (4.32) among receivers at the 2007 NFL Combine.

2008:

- Posted career highs with 30 catches for 323 yds. and 2 TDs. Also had 17 special teams tackles to rank 2nd on team.
- Caught first career TD vs. Sea. (10/26) on a 2–yd. slant pass from QB Shaun Hill in 4th qtr.
- Replaced an injured WR Arnaz Battle (foot) in lineup as third wideout vs. Arz. (11/10) and recorded career–highs with 6 catches for 82 yds., which included key sideline grabs late in 4th qtr. to keep 49ers drives alive.
- Made first career start when 49ers opened game in 3–wide receiver set at Dal. (11/23).
- Caught a 9–yd. TD pass in 4th qtr. vs. Was. (12/28) to give 49ers a 21–17 lead.

PERSONAL:

- Attended Sacred Heart Cathedral (CA) HS, where he was runner–up for the City of San Francisco Player of the Year Award as a senior, and added honorable mention all–region accolades as a defensive back and wide receiver by the San Francisco Chronicle.
- Helped Sacred Heart clinch a win over St. Ignatius with an INT return for a TD in oldest high school rivalry west of the Mississippi River, dating back to 1893. The team finished with a 9–1 record during his final campaign.
- One of six children of LaVerne Videau and the late Jerry Hill.
- Born Jason Hill (2/20/85) in San Francisco, CA.
- Majored in sociology.

SHAUN HILL

Ht: 6–3 Wt: 220 Born: 1/9/80
College: Maryland
Exp: 8th Year (UFA in '06)
Career Games/Starts: 13/10

Shaun Hill provided a much needed spark to the 49ers offense after being named the starter midway through the 2008 season. He finished the year with a 5–3 record, pushing his career record as a starter 7–3, which includes a perfect 5–0 record at home. Hill saw his first chance at extended action in 2007 when he led the team to a 2–0 record as a starter. Hill served as 49ers third quarterback in 2006 after spending his first 4 seasons with the Minnesota Vikings.

TRANSACTIONS: Originally signed by Min. as a rookie free agent on 4/25/02…Signed by SF as an unrestricted free agent from Min. on 6/2/06.

GOLDMINE:

- Shaun loves to fish. The quarterback started reeling in fish that were inhabitating farm ponds in his home state of Missouri during high school. When he lived in Minnesota as a member of the Vikings, Shaun caught a 30–inch, 9–pound walleye on his first try. He was able to lure the fish using a leech for bait 40–feet deep. Also in his fishing repertoire is a 48–inch musket.
- Shaun owns all of the weightlifting records for quarterbacks at Maryland – power clean (303 lbs), bench press (320 lbs), and squat (500 lbs).

AWARDS & HONORS:

2008: NFC Offensive Player of the Week (week 11)

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

- Hill earned NFC Offensive Player of the Week for his performance vs. StL (11/16/08), where he became the first 49ers quarterback to post a perfect QB rating in the first half.
- In his first NFL start, he set a record for the highest completion percentage in NFL history for a player making his first pass attempts.

2008 (San Francisco):

- Named starter midway through season. Went on to complete 181 of 288 passes for 2,046 yds. with 13 TDs and 8 INTs for a QB rating of 87.5. Also added 24 carries for 115 yds. and 2 TDs.
- Made first start of season at Arz. (11/10) and completed 19 of 40 passes for 217 yds. with 2 TDs and 2 INTs.
- Named NFC Offensive Player of the Week after recording a career–high 142.3 QB rating on 15 of 20 passes for 213 yds. with 2 TDs vs. StL (11/16/08). Also, scored on a 3–yd. rush in 2nd qtr. Became first 49ers starting quarterback to post a perfect QB rating of 158.3 in the first half. The previous best was Steve Young's 156.5 rating vs. NO (9/14/97).
- Registered a career–high 303 passing yds. on 21 of 33 passing with 2 TDs and 1 INT for a QB rating of 100.9 at Dal. (11/23).
- Completed 28 of 39 passes for 285 yds. with 2 TDs and 1 INT for a QB rating of 98.8 vs. NYJ (12/7). Connected on passes to 10 different receivers.
- Orchestrated a come–from–behind 17–16 victory at StL (12/21) after completing 10 of 15 passes for 127 yds. and 2 TDs in final qtr. of play. His 2 TD passes occurred with less than 5 minutes remaining in 4th qtr. Connected with WR Isaac Bruce for a 3–yd. TD to cap an 80–yd. drive, bringing the 49ers within 6 points of the Rams with 2:57 left. He then completed the longest pass of his career when he connected with WR Josh Morgan on a 48–yd. game–winning TD with 1:31 left in the 4th qtr.
- Rushed for a TD in 1st qtr. and threw for another in 4th qtr. to lead 49ers to victory vs. Was. (12/28). With the score tied at 24 and 1:09 left in the game, Hill marched the team downfield, connecting on 3 passes for 52 yds. to set up a game–winning 39–yd. FG by K Joe Nedney.

PERSONAL:

- As a three–year starter at QB and two–year starter at FS at Parsons (KS) HS, was a two–time All–Southeast Kansas first–team selection and an honorable mention all–state selection as a senior.
- Also lettered in basketball, baseball and track. Was a three–time All–SEK first–team choice in basketball, serving as team captain and earning all–state honors for 3 times after guiding team to state tournament as a junior and senior. Also qualified for the state track meet as a senior.
- Has supported the Muscular Dystrophy Association.
- Hosts annual fundraising golf tournament at high school alma mater to benefit booster club.
- Hosts annual football camp in conjunction with the Parsons Police Football League.
- Born Shaun Hill (1/9/80) in Parsons, KS.

DAMON HUARD

Ht: 6–3 Wt: 218 Born: 7/9/73
College: Washington
Exp: 13th Year (UFA in '09)
Career Games/Starts: 64/27

A veteran signal caller, Damon Huard provides the 49ers with experienced depth at the quarterback position. Over his career, he has showcased his excellent decision–making skills and an ability to come up with big plays in the clutch. Huard joined the 49ers during the 2009 offseason after spending the previous 5 seasons with the KC Chiefs. Huard has started 27 career games, posting a record of 15–12 as a starter and he played in 5 games with 3 starts for the Chiefs in 2008 before being placed on Injured Reserve with a thumb injury.

MARCUS HUDSON

Ht: 6–2 Wt: 200 Born: 11/15/82
College: North Carolina state
Exp: 4th Year (D–6B in '06)
Career Games/Starts: 36/0

A quick, physical cornerback, Marcus Hudson has provided depth in the 49ers secondary since being selected in the sixth round of the 2006 NFL Draft. He often lines up in nickel and dime packages, while also serving as a gunner on special teams. In 36 games, Hudson has posted 28 tackles, 3 PDs, 1 FF, 1 FR and 33 special teams stops.

TRANSACTIONS: Originally the second of three sixth–round (192nd pick overall) draft choice by SF in 2006.

GOLDMINE:

- Marcus hails from a football family as brother, Jerel, played for Florida State, older brothers Nate and Eric played at Bethune–Cookman, and brother Kevin played at Iowa State.
- When Marcus was a kid, he wanted to be the Crocodile Hunter because of his love for animals. "I wanted to be like the Crocodile Hunter and chase animals. I was always fascinated with animals and I wanted to go to the zoo all the time. When I got older and realized that animals bite, and when they do, most of the time you don't survive, it kind of crushed my dream. Now I just want to watch Discovery Channel."
- Marcus' favorite cartoon growing up as a kid was Teenage Mutant Ninja Turtles and claims that TMNT is much better

BRIAN JENNINGS

Ht: 6–5 Wt: 242 Born: 10/14/76
College: Arizona State
Exp: 10th Year (D–7B in '00)
Career Games/Starts: 144/0

One of the NFL's elite long snappers, Brian Jennings has snapped to 6 different placekickers and 4 different punters in his 9 seasons. He was rewarded for his efforts during the 2009 offseason with a five–year contract extension that will keep him in the Bay Area through 2014. Jennings size, hands and versatility allow him to play a role as a reserve tight end. A Pro Bowler in 2004, Jennings is also a sure tackler on special teams, having recorded 53 career special teams stops.

TRANSACTIONS: Originally the second of two seventh–round (230th pick overall) draft choices by SF in 2000... Signed a five–year contract extension through 2014 on 6/6/09.

GOLDMINE:

- Brian doesn't spend much time relaxing during the offseason. He earned his certification as a yoga instructor in 2008 after taking part in a 200–hour program that lasted five months. With a modern approach, Brian cranks up lively music in the classes he teaches in Scottsdale, AZ. He has plans to open his own yoga studio in the near future.

AWARDS & HONORS:
2004: NFC Pro Bowl

2008:

- Posted 9 special teams tackles and helped P Andy Lee set a single–season team record for punting average (47.8).
- Snapped 67 punts, 33 FG atts. and 34 PATs.

PERSONAL:

- Prepped at Red Mountain (AZ) HS, where he lettered in football, basketball and track.
- Captain of football squad during senior season and was named honorable mention all–region as tight end.
- Born Brian Lewis Jennings (10/14/76) in Mesa, AZ. Single and resides in Scottsdale, AZ.

BRANDON JONES

Ht: 6–1 Wt: 212 Born: 10/6/82
College: Oklahoma
Exp: 5th Year (UFA in '09)
Career Games/Starts: 51/27

An explosive wideout with big play ability, Brandon Jones was signed by the 49ers during the offseason after spending his first 4 years as a member of the Tennessee Titans. A veteran of 51 games (27 starts), Jones posted career–highs in 2008 with 41 catches and 449 receiving yds. The former third–round pick made an immediate impact as a rookie for the Titans, starting 8 games for the team before suffering a season–ending knee injury. In 2006, Jones bounced back to start 10 games as he was named the Ed Block Courage Award winner by his teammates for his commitment to the principles of sportsmanship and courage.

TRANSACTIONS: Originally a third–round (96th pick overall) draft choice by Ten. in 2005...Signed by SF as an unrestricted free agent on 2/28/09.

GOLDMINE:

- An all–around athlete, Brandon was drafted by the New York Yankees in the 28th round of the 2001 draft following his senior year in high school. He decided to accept a football scholarship at Oklahoma instead, but did play for the Sooner baseball team (centerfield) during his freshman and sophomore years.
- Despite being heavily involved in sports during his youth, Brandon always made time to be employed, including working as a fast–food cook.
- Brandon labels his mother, Barnette, as "Supermom" for the struggles she endured while being a single parent raising him and his younger brother, Blake (10).
- After football, Brandon would like to finish his degree in criminology and join the FBI as an agent. He also has aspirations of being an actor and songwriter once his football career has concluded.
- Prior to his rookie season, Brandon clocked one of the fastest 40–yd. dash times (4.38) in the 2005 NFL Combine.

AWARDS & HONORS:

2006: Ed Block Courage Award

2008 (Tennessee):

- Ranked 3rd on team with 41 recepts. and 449 receiving yds.

ZAK KEASEY

(KEEZ-ee)

Ht: 6–0 Wt: 235 Born: 3/19/82
College: Princeton
Exp: 3rd Year (FA in '07)
Career Games/Starts: 20/3

Zak Keasey earned the 49ers starting fullback role in 2008 and went on to see action in 6 games with 3 starts before being placed on Injured Reserve with a biceps injury. A solid contributor on special teams, he has notched 18 tackles over the past 2 seasons. Keasey was originally signed to the 49ers practice squad near the end of 2005 season, where he also spent time in 2006 and 2007. Keasey originally entered the NFL as an undrafted rookie free agent linebacker with the Washington Redskins in 2005, and made the Redskins' roster after an impressive performance in training camp. He made the transition to the fullback position when he joined 49ers practice squad in 2005.

GOLDMINE:

- Zak's trademark dreadlocks go back to his days at Princeton. He started growing them out in 2002 and now has one of the biggest helmets on the team because of them. Zak admits he has considered cutting them off so he could wear a normal helmet, but it's hard for him to let it go after growing his hair out for so many years.
- While he plays fullback in the NFL now, Zak was a standout linebacker at Princeton. He believes that his experience as a linebacker serves him well at his new position and on special teams. "Just tackling people from the defensive side of the ball for all those years, I think it helps out on the coverage teams bringing down the return man," he said. "I definitely try to use that to my advantage."

2008 (San Francisco):

- Had 2 recepts. for 13 yds. in season–opener vs. Arz. (9/7).
- Made first career start at FB at Sea. (9/14) and posted 1 special teams tackle.
- Caught 1 pass for 12 yds. vs. Det. (9/21).
- Injured right biceps tendon vs. Phi. (10/12) in 2nd qtr.
- Placed on Injured Reserve (10/15) with a torn biceps tendon.

PERSONAL:

- Lettered in football and track at Lake Orion (MI) HS, where he was all–state and all–county for football. Voted League Defensive Player of Year during senior season as he rushed for 8 TDs from fullback position, while also leading league in tackles both junior and senior seasons.
- Won high school's scholar–athlete award.
- Born Zak Keasey (3/19/82) in Lake Orion, MI.

MANNY LAWSON

Ht: 6–5 Wt: 240 Born: 7/3/84
College: North Carolina State
Exp: 4th Year (D–1B in '06)
Career Games/Starts: 32/23

Manny Lawson has played a key role on defense for the 49ers since being drafted in the first round of the 2006 NFL Draft. He tallied career–highs of 3 sacks, 2 FFs and 2 blocked kicks in 2008 after having a promising 2007 campaign cut short by a season–ending knee injury. Widely considered one of the finest athletes to ever play at North Carolina State, Lawson made the switch from college defensive end to outside linebacker in his first NFL season.

TRANSACTIONS: Originally the second of two first–round (22nd pick overall) draft choice by SF in 2006.

GOLDMINE:

- Manny has a love and passion for architecture. The whole concept of designing a home that somebody enjoys and wants to live in is intriguing to him. He hopes that he can find a way to get into the field once he's done playing. He also plans to design his own house.
- When the 49ers drafted Manny, they received a player who not only had ideal physical attributes, but one who also possessed an impressive mental capacity. Manny, whose father was in the Air Force and whose mother was a residential nurse, was taught the values of discipline at an early age. Academics always came first and athletics were just for fun. Anything below a B+ was not satisfactory to his parents. Fast forward a few years and the early lessons paid off as Manny graduated with a degree in industrial engineering from North Carolina State. He then went on to score a 43 out of 50 on the Wonderlic test, which tied for the highest of his draft class.

AWARDS & HONORS:

2006: Diet Pepsi Defensive Rookie of the Week (Week 2)
2008: Ed Block Courage Award

2008:

- Blocked punt in 1st qtr. and tallied 2 special teams tackles at Sea. (9/14). Did not see action on defense as team played majority of game in nickel package.
- Left game at NO (9/28) with a hamstring strain following a kickoff in 3rd qtr.
- Blocked a 35–yd. FG attempt in 3rd qtr., which was returned 74 yds. by CB Nate Clements for a TD at NYG (10/19).
- Posted a career–high 10 tackles vs. Sea. (10/26) to go along with his first sack of season.
- Tallied 5 tackles, 1 sack, 1 FF, 1 FR and 1 PD at Dal. (11/23). The FR occurred on a QB Tony Romo lateral that was intended for RB Tashard Choice, which Lawson broke up and recovered.

PERSONAL:

- Attended Eastern Wayne (Goldsboro, NC) HS, where he was rated as one of the Top 25 players (#21) by Super Prep in the state of North Carolina during his senior year.
- Recorded 54 tackles and 11 sacks on defense and also rushed for 456 yds. on offense during his final season, picking up Conference Defensive Player of the Year honors.
- Competed in four events in track: long jump, triple jump, 55–meter dash, and the 55–meter hurdles.
- Father is a retired member of the Air Force.
- Born Manny Lawson (7/3/84) in Goldsboro, NC.
- Majored in industrial engineering.

ANDY LEE

Ht: 6–2 Wt: 180 Born: 8/11/82
College: Pittsburgh
Exp: 6th Year (D–6A in '04)
Career Games/Starts: 80/0

Andy Lee has established himself as one of the most productive punters in the NFL since being drafted in the sixth round of the 2004 NFL Draft. After earning Pro Bowl and All–Pro honors in 2007, he once again put up outstanding numbers in 2008 as he set a career–high and team record with his 47.8 gross average.

TRANSACTIONS: Originally the first of two sixth–round (188th pick overall) draft choices by SF in 2004.

GOLDMINE:

- Andy never attended an NFL game growing up in South Carolina. Even when he went on to become a standout punter on the collegiate level at the University of Pittsburgh, he was still a stranger to live NFL action. The first professional game he ever attended was as a player with the 49ers in 2004. In fact, Andy didn't even set out to play football at all. "I was more of a baseball guy growing up. I actually wanted to be a Major League Baseball player. I played quarterback in 8th grade, and the coach asked, 'Who wants to try out for the punting position?' I didn't know you were supposed to spiral a punt, or turn it over, or any of that."
- Andy is considered a "hometown hero" by his native Westminster, SC. Westminster Mayor Pro Tem Rusty Cater presented Andy with a key to the city and a declaration commemorating "Andy Lee Day" on July 12, 2008.

AWARDS & HONORS:

2007: NFC Pro Bowl, AP All–Pro, PFW/PFWA All–NFL Team

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

- Set an NFL record in 2007 with 42 punts downed inside the 20–yd. line, and ranked 2nd in the league with a 47.3 gross average and 41.0 net average. His 41.0–yd. net average ranks 4th all–time for a single season in NFL history.
- Enters the 2008 season ranked 2nd in team history with a 44.4–yd. career gross avg. (behind Tommy Davis 44.7 avg.).
- Set a career–high and team record with his 47.8 gross average, in 2008.
- Was the first 49ers rookie punter since 1957 to lead the league for the longest punt (81 yds.) of the year, 2004.

2008:

- Set a career–high and Niners single–season record with a 47.8 gross average, breaking his own previous record of 47.3 avg. in 2007.
- Established a career–long 82–yd. punt vs. NE (10/5), which is tied for 2nd–longest in 49ers history with Tommy Davis (82 yds. vs. Min. (9/30/62) and 4 yds. behind a team–record 86–yarder by Larry Barnes vs. Chicago Cardinals (9/29/57).
- In rainy and windy conditions at Buf. (11/30), punted 6 times for 284 yds. (47.3 avg.) with a long of 58 yds. and 3 punts downed inside 20–yd. line.

PERSONAL:

- Prepped at West Oak (Westminster, SC) HS, where he was first–team all–state, two–time first–team all–conference and Anderson Independent–Mail all–area selection.
- Averaged 42.8 yds. per punt as senior, while also lining up at tight end and wide receiver.
- Lettered 3 times in baseball and twice in basketball. Two–time all–conference honoree and received all–state honors in baseball as a senior. Standout pitcher, helping West Oak to district championship and baseball state playoffs with 8–2 record as senior. Went 5–0 with a 1.90 ERA as junior.
- Born Andrew Paul Lee (8/11/82) in Westminster, SC. Married to wife Rachel.

MICHAEL LEWIS

Ht: 6–1 Wt: 222 Born: 4/29/80
College: Colorado
Exp: 8th Year (UFA in '07)
Career Games/Starts: 108/90

As one of the league's most imposing defensive backs, Michael Lewis is considered an ideal strong safety because of his physicality, size and strength. He has ranked among the team's lead tacklers in each of his 2 seasons with the 49ers after being signed as an unrestricted free agent from the Philadelphia Eagles in 2007. Lewis earned Pro Bowl honors following the 2004 season when he played a key role in helping the Eagles capture the NFC Championship. He played in 4 NFC Championship games and one Super Bowl during his five NFL seasons with Philadelphia.

TRANSACTIONS: Originally a second–round (58th pick overall) draft choice by Phi. in 2002…Signed by SF as an unrestricted free agent from Phi. on 3/2/07.

GOLDMINE:

- Having been diagnosed with the heart condition atrial fibrillation in college, Michael has gone on to serve as a spokesperson for the American Heart Association. Atrial fibrillation is a disorder found in about 2.2 million Americans in which the heart's two small upper chambers, the atria, quiver instead of beating effectively. "I want people to know that heart disease is something that can be treated. You can live a normal life and do everything you dream of." Michael participated in San Jose's 2008 & 2009 National Start! Walking Day, which promotes walking, a healthier lifestyle and the prevention of heart disease.
- Michael grew up as a 49ers fan in Houston, Texas, and idolized Ronnie Lott and Merton Hanks. He spends invaluable time watching others play the safety position. His favorites include John Lynch and Lawyer Milloy.
- During the week of Super Bowl XXXIX in Jacksonville, Michael won the annual EA Sports Madden Bowl competition. The tournament featured eight NFL players and Michael claimed the top spot by defeating Steelers QB Ben Roethlisberger, Colts DE Dwight Freeney (the two–time defending champion), and Bills RB Willis McGahee.

AWARDS & HONORS:

2002: Pro Football Weekly All–Rookie Team
2004: NFC Pro Bowl, Pro Football Weekly All–NFC, Football Digest All–Pro

2008 (San Francisco):

- Ranked 3rd on team in tackles (118).
- Posted a sack in 4th qtr. at Sea. (9/14) to force a punt and set up a potential game–winning FG. Also recovered a fumble in 2nd qtr. to prevent a Seahawks score.

RAY MCDONALD

Ht: 6–3 Wt: 290 Born: 9/2/84
College: Florida
Exp: 3rd Year (D–3B in '07)
Career Games/Starts: 24/9

A third–round pick in 2007, Ray McDonald saw extensive action in his second season with the 49ers, playing in 15 games (9 starts). Known for his instincts and quickness off the line, McDonald set career–highs with 58 tackles and 4 PDs in addition to 1 sack in 2008. He saw action in the defensive line rotation as a rookie, finishing the season with 11 tackles and 1 sack in 9 games.

TRANSACTIONS: Originally the second of two third–round (97th pick overall) draft choices by SF in 2007.

GOLDMINE:

- Ray comes from an athletic family as his father, Ray Sr., played wide receiver for the Florida Gators in the mid–80s and was featured on the cover of Sports Illustrated (Nov. 11, 1985) after catching both scores in a 14–10 victory at Auburn in 1985. Ray was 1–year old at the time. Ray's grandfather played running back at Bethune Cookman and his uncle was a cornerback at UCF.

2008:

- Ranked 2nd on team with 37 quarterback pressures.
- Started first career game vs. Arz. (9/7), tallying 6 tackles.
- Tipped a pass that was intercepted by CB Walt Harris at Sea. (9/14). The play occurred at Seattle's 41–yd. line and led to a 49ers TD to give team a 27–20 lead in 3rd qtr.
- Blocked a 54–yd. FG attempt vs. Phi. (10/12) and CB Donald Strickland scooped ball up and raced 41 yds. for a TD.
- Left game in 2nd qtr. at NYG (10/19) with a sprained knee.

PERSONAL:

- Attended Glades Central (Belle Glade, FL) HS, where he earned All–American honors and was named Palm Beach County Defensive Player of the Year in 2001 as he recorded 132 tackles and 24 sacks as a senior.
- Helped team to Class 3A state championship as a junior and started final 3 seasons at defensive tackle.
- Born Raymondo Antoine McDonald (9/2/84) in Pahokee, FL.

JAY MOORE

Ht: 6–4 Wt: 256 Born: 8/16/83
College: Nebraska
Exp: 3rd Year (D–4A in '07)
Career Games/Starts: 0/0

A fourth–round pick in 2007, Jay Moore is a physical and versatile defender who made the transition from a defensive end in college to outside linebacker with the 49ers. After having his promising rookie campaign cut short due to an ankle injury suffered during preseason action in 2007, Moore suffered a biceps injury in the 2008 preseason finale and was once again placed on Injured Reserve.

TRANSACTIONS: Originally the first of three fourth–round (104th pick overall) draft choices by SF in 2007.

GOLDRUSH:

- Leading up to the 2007 NFL Draft, Jay wanted nothing more than to relieve the anxiety that comes with the selection process and evaluations. Hence, he started working rigorously on his game – his golf game that is. The whole week leading up to the draft, you could find Jay on the links. "Getting out on the golf course just made me forget and put me in my own state of mind," said Jay. "You could spend all day on the Internet reading about the draft, but I didn't get too caught up in it." Jay, who has a handicap of around 7, was eventually selected in the fourth round by the 49ers. He provided an impressive showing to 49ers' coaches at the 2007 Senior Bowl, where he tallied 3 sacks and 2 FFs.

2008:

- Placed on Injured Reserve (8/30/08) after sustaining a biceps injury in preseason finale vs. SD (8/29/08).

PERSONAL:

- Attended Elkhorn (NE) HS, where he played tailback and defensive end, and was a member of Omaha World–Herald's Super 6 team as he registered 92 carries for 822 yds. (8.9 avg.) and scored 16 TDs in 5 games.
- Rushed for 1,742 yds. and 31 TDs in 2000.
- Born Jay Moore (8/16/83) in Elkhorn, NE.
- Majored in secondary education.

JOSH MORGAN

Ht: 6–0 Wt: 219 Born: 6/20/85
College: Virginia Tech
Exp: 2nd Year (D–6 in '08)
Career Games/Starts: 12/1

Josh Morgan enjoyed an extremely productive rookie campaign in 2008 despite being sidelined 4 games with a groin injury. The sixth–round selection showcased his ability to make the big play as his 3 TD catches all went for over 30 yards. Morgan made a game–winning TD catch at StL (12/21/08), snatching the ball amongst multiple defenders.

TRANSACTIONS: Originally a sixth–round (174th pick overall) draft choice by SF in 2008.

GOLDMINE:

- Josh is a writer in the truest sense of the word, dedicating a lot of his time in college to writing poems. His writing courses were his most enjoyable at Virginia Tech. Josh wants to be a writer of some sort one day and he credits his parents as being the ones who instilled his love of writing as a way to keep him motivated and off the rough, Washington D.C. streets where he grew up.

2008 (San Francisco):

- All 3 of his receiving TDs came from over 30 yds.
- Posted first career catch at Sea. (9/14) for an 8–yd. gain.
- Led team with five catches for 86 yds. and 1 TD at NYG (10/19). Caught his first NFL TD in 2nd qtr. on a 30–yd. pass from QB J.T. O'Sullivan.
- Started first career game vs. Sea. (10/26).
- Caught second TD of season at Arz. (11/10) on a 31–yd. pass from QB Shaun Hill.
- Caught game–winning TD between two defenders at StL (12/21) on a 48–yd. pass from Hill with 1:31 left in 4th qtr.

PERSONAL:

- Attended Howard D. Woodson (Washington, DC) HS, and earned All–DCIAA honors as a senior.
- Made 8 catches for 275 yds and 3 TDs in a game vs. Glen Mills HS, along with 4 sacks and a blocked punt.
- Spent 2003 fall semester at Fork Union Military Academy, catching 33 passes for 845 yds. with 8 TDs. Also blocked 4 punts and posted 1 punt return for a TD.
- Also excelled in basketball, earning MVP honors in two tournaments.
- Born Joshua Lewis Morgan (6/20/85) in Washington, D.C.

JOE NEDNEY

Ht: 6–5 Wt: 234 Born: 3/22/73
College: San Jose State
Exp: 14th Year (FA in '05)
Career Games/Starts: 153/0

As one of the NFL's most accurate kickers, Joe Nedney has provided the 49ers with a reliable weapon over the past four seasons. The San Jose native and 13–year veteran has connected on 101/115 (87.8 pct.) field goals since coming to San Francisco, making him the most accurate NFL kicker in that span. For his efforts, Nedney was rewarded with a two–year contract extension through the 2011 season this Spring. He enters the 2009 season ranked second in team history with an 87.8 field goal percentage, while his 979 career points ranks 42nd all–time in NFL history. Nedney joined the 49ers in 2005, bouncing back from a season–ending hamstring injury in 2004 in Tennessee.

GOLDMINE:

- While playing for the Arizona Cardinals, Joe got a tattoo that every player strives for. "A local tattoo artist in Flagstaff put his artwork up for a silent auction item," Nedney said. "Whoever was the highest bidder got the artwork they wanted on their body." All of the proceeds went to a charity that supports Northern Arizona youth football. Joe made the winning bid and decided to permanently align himself with the NFL logo. "I brought the logo in and the artist put his own little flair into it. I figured I would get the NFL logo and not the team logo because if I put the team logo I would probably have about 9 logos on my leg. I figured that would be a safe bet," Nedney joked.

AWARDS & HONORS:

1996: AFC Special Teams Player of the Week (Week 16)
1998: NFC Special Teams Player of the Week (Week 10)
2000: NFC Special Teams Player of the Week (Week 6 and Week 10)
2001: AFC Special Teams Player of the Week (Week 5 and Week 6)
2005: USA Today All–Joe Team, Bill Walsh Award, NFC Special Teams Player of the Week (Week 8)

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

- Has connected on 19 game–winning FGs (7 with SF, 5 with Ten., 1 with Oak., 1 with Car., 4 with Arz. and 1 with Mia.).
- Earned Special Teams Player of the Week honors seven times and is the only NFL player to win the honor with five different teams (Mia., Arz., Car., Ten. and SF).
- Has converted 10 onside kicks in his career, giving him the most among active kickers.
- Enters the 2009 season ranked 2nd in team history with an 87.8 field goal percentage, while his 979 career points ranks 42nd all–time in NFL history.
- Has connected on 101/115 (87.8 pct.) field goals since coming to San Francisco, making him the most accurate NFL kicker in that span.
- Was voted by coaches as co–recipient (along with LB Derek Smith) of 49ers Bill Walsh Award, given to team's most valuable player in 2005. Hit 26 of 28 field goal attempts in his first season in SF (2005), setting a single–season club record with a 92.9 field goal %.

2008 (San Francisco):

- Posted 2nd highest point total of career (121) and 4th career 100–pt. season.
- His 29 FGs tie his 2006 total and rank tied for 2nd in team history with Gary Anderson (1997) and Mike Cofer (1989) for FGs in a single–season behind Jeff Wilkins (30–1996).
- Had 15 pts. at Sea. (9/14), converting 4/5 FG atts., including his 18th career game–winning FG on a 40–yd. att. in overtime for 33–30 victory.
- Kicked a 51–yd. FG before end of 2nd qtr. after a FR from Mark Roman to put 49ers ahead 10–0 at Buf. (11/30) in 10–3 victory.
- Kicked 39–yd. FG as time expired in 4th qtr. vs. Was (12/29) to mark 19th career game–winning FG.

PERSONAL:

- Lettered in football as a kicker/punter and in basketball as a guard/forward at Santa Teresa (San Jose, CA) HS.
- Awarded college degree from San Jose State in May of 1998 after completing an internship in the Arizona Cardinals community relations department.
- Born Joseph Thomas Nedney (3/22/73) in San Jose, CA. Married to Gina. Couple resides in Scotts Valley, CA, with their daughter, Gabrielle (6/23/02) and son, Cade (3/11/05).
- Earned degree in recreation.

MORAN NORRIS

(MORE-ann)

Ht: 6–1 Wt: 250 Born: 6/16/78
College: Kansas
Exp: 9th Year (UFA in '09)
Career Games/Starts: 103/38

A tough, hard–nosed fullback, Moran Norris rejoins the 49ers after spending the 2008 season as a member of the Detroit Lions. Norris, who is utilized as both a blocker and receiver, was the 49ers' starting fullback from 2006–07 and helped RB Frank Gore to a Pro Bowl season with an NFC–leading and team–record 1,695 yds. in 2006. He is close friends with Gore off the field, traveling with the running back to Hawaii when Gore received his Pro Bowl bid. Norris helped open holes for Houston Texans backfield mate RB Domanick Davis, who recorded consecutive 1,000–yd. rushing seasons in his first two NFL seasons (2003–04).

TRANSACTIONS: Originally a fourth–round (115th pick overall) draft choice by NO in 2001…Waived by NO on 9/17/02…Claimed off waivers by Hou. from NO on 9/18/02…Waived by Hou. on 5/4/06…Signed by SF as a free agent on May 23, 2006...Waived by SF on 8/31/08...Signed by Det. on 10/9/08...Waived by Det. on 10/12/08...Signed by Det. on 10/13/08...Signed as an unrestricted free agent by SF on 3/2/09.

GOLDMINE:

- When he's not paving the way for Frank Gore to run, fullback Moran Norris can be found working within his community. In 2005, Moran founded the Moran Norris Foundation, seeking to help Houston–area students become champions in athletics, character and education. In San Francisco, Moran "adopted" a group of students in the Brother2Brother/Sister2Sister Mentoring Program as part of his Foundation's initiatives. Moran has hosted the youngsters at 49ers games, provided them with financial support and taught them the importance of life skills, education, goal setting, hard work and good character.

2008 (Detroit):

- Saw action in 11 games with 8 starts for Lions after being signed on (10/9).

PERSONAL:

- All–city and all–district selection as a senior at James Madison (Houston, TX) HS, where he caught 25 passes for 410 yds. as a tight end and also played linebacker.
- Older brother, Gaston, lettered 4 seasons as a running back at Iowa State.
- Born Torrance Moran Norris (6/16/78) in Houston, TX. He and wife, Tamara, live in Houston with daughter, London.
- Was a member of the Kansas Jayhawks Scholar List. Graduated with dual degrees in communications and crime and delinquency.

MAURICE PRICE

Ht: 6–1 Wt: 200 Born: 9/11/85
College: Charleston Southern
Exp: 1st Year (FA in '09)
Career Games/Starts: 0/0

A speedy wideout, Maurice Price enters his first season with the 49ers after spending time with the Kansas City Chiefs and New England Patriots. He spent the entire 2007 season on the Chiefs practice squad after sustaining a shoulder injury in training camp.

TRANSACTIONS: Originally signed as a rookie free agent by KC on 5/8/07…Waived by KC on 9/9/08…Signed by KC to the practice squad on 9/11/08…Signed as a free agent by NE on 09/24/08…Waived by NE on 10/11/08…Signed by NE to practice squad on 10/15. Signed as a free agent by SF on 1/30/09.

GOLDMINE:

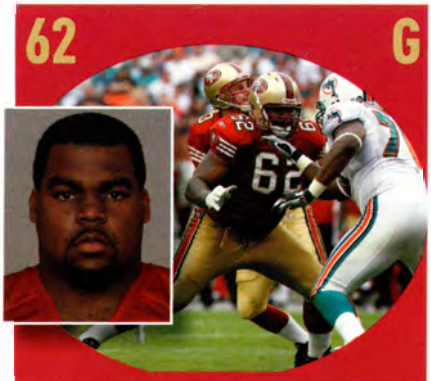
- Was the first player from his high school and college to make it into the NFL. Ironically, the high school that Price attended didn't have a football program until his sophomore year. In his first two seasons playing football at Olympia HS, the team went 1–9 even with Price and Tennessee Titans RB Chris Johnson on the squad. The next year, they turned it around, and in Price's senior season, the team went 7–4.
- Price played basketball in high school, but in his senior season, played an unexpected position. At his request, Price played center standing at 6' 1".

2008 (Kansas City/New England):

- Inactive in season opener at NE (9/7) before being waived by Chiefs and placed on team's practice squad.
- Signed to Patriots' active roster (9/24) and was inactive at SF (10/5). Waived from Patriots' active roster and re–signed to team's practice squad (10/15), where he remained the rest of season.

PERSONAL:

- Earned first team all–county honors, totaling 44 recepts. for 750 yds. and 7 TDs as a senior at Olympia (FL) HS.
- One of his favorite television shows is King of Queens and he enjoys playing Xbox in his spare time.
- Born Antoine Maurice Price (9/11/85) in Orlando, FL.
- Majored in business.



CHILO RACHAL

(CHEYE-low, RAY-shell)

Ht: 6–4 Wt: 315 Born: 3/15/86
College: Southern California
Exp: 2nd Year (D–2 in '08)
Career Games/Starts: 8/6

A second–round pick in 2008, Chilo Rachal worked his way into the 49ers starting lineup midway through the season and didn't look back. Rachal showcased his power and mobility at the right guard position, starting the final six games of the season as the team went 4–2 during that stretch.

TRANSACTIONS: Originally a second–round (39th pick overall) draft choice by SF in 2008.

GOLDMINE:

- Chilo wasn't planning on entering the NFL Draft in 2008, but a tumor discovered in his mother's stomach prompted him to enter early so he could help with her medical costs.
- Idolized former 49er Larry Allen and models his play after the All–Pro guard when he switches into his self–proclaimed "Beast Mode" on the football field.

2008 (San Francisco:

- Saw action in 8 games, starting the final 6 contests at RG.
- Inactive Games 1–2, and was active for first time in career vs. Det. (9/21), but did not play. Inactive Games 3–8.
- Played in first career game at Arz. (11/10) as he rotated at RG with starter G Tony Wragge. Made a key block on LB Karlos Dansby on final play of 1st qtr. that helped spring RB Frank Gore for 20 yds. Was part of an offensive line that allowed zero sacks in the game.
- Rotated at RG with Wragge vs. StL (11/16).
- Made first NFL start at RG at Dal. (11/23), becoming second member of 49ers 2008 draft class to make a start for 49ers behind Josh Morgan.

PERSONAL:

- Attended Dominguez (Compton, CA) HS, where he earned All–American honors.
- Limited to just 4 games as a senior due to a knee injury.
- Born Chilo Rachal (3/15/86) in Compton, CA.

MICHAEL ROBINSON

Ht: 6–1 Wt: 223 Born: 2/6/83
College: Penn State
Exp: 4th Year (D–4 in '06)
Career Games/Starts: 47/2

Michael Robinson has provided the 49ers with a consistent weapon on offense and special teams since being drafted in the fourth round of the 2006 NFL Draft. Robinson saw action at running back, fullback, quarterback and kickoff returner in 2008, as he was named a Pro Bowl alternate on special teams. Six games into the season, Robinson replaced an injured FB Zak Keasey as the starting fullback. A special teams ace, he has totaled 59 special teams tackles in just three seasons, which includes a career–high 27 stops in 2007. Robinson made the transition from college QB to a tough, powerful rusher upon joining the 49ers.

TRANSACTIONS: Originally a fourth–round (100th pick overall) draft choice by SF in 2006.

GOLDMINE:

- One of the most athletic and versatile players on the team, Michael is equally adept off the playing field. At Penn State, Michael starred at quarterback and earned Academic All–Big Ten honors three times. More than a football player, Michael gained reporting experience covering Penn State Basketball and on CSTV's Penn State Primetime programs. Robinson has spent time in the television studio in the Bay Area, meeting reporters and gaining experience behind the camera, and also hosts a segment called "The Robinson Report" on 49ers.com. On April 2, 2008, ESPN The Magazine invited Michael to be an on–camera reporter at Baylor vs. Texas women's softball game on ESPNU.

2008:

- Named a Pro Bowl alternate as a specialist after ranking 3rd on team with 16 special teams stops.
- Recorded second career start, and first at FB, at NYG (10/19) and caught two passes for 26 yds.
- Handled kickoff duties vs. Sea. (10/26) in 2nd half after KR Allen Rossum left game with a hamstring injury.
- Provided 2 key blocks on Rossum's 104–yd. kickoff return at Arz. (11/10).
- Caught two passes for a career–high 54 yds. vs. StL (11/16), which included a 36–yd. recept. that he took to the 1–yd. line to set up a QB Shaun Hill rushing TD.

PERSONAL:

- Led Varina (Richmond, VA) HS to four consecutive regional titles and two state runner–up finishes. A two–year team captain, rushed for 3,046 yds. on 371 carries, (8.2 avg) and 37 TDs with 2,409 passing yds. on offense to go along with 211 tackles, 18 INTs and 13 sacks as a safety.

JUSTIN ROLAND

Ht: 5–11 Wt: 242 Born: 1/14/86
College: Kansas State
Exp: 1st Year (FA in '08)
Career Games/Starts: 0/0

Justin Roland rejoins the 49ers after spending the final four weeks of the 2008 season as a member of San Francisco's practice squad. An undrafted rookie free agent, Roland attended training camp with the Philadelphia Eagles and later spent time on the Houston Texans practice squad.

TRANSACTIONS: Originally signed as a rookie free agent by Phi. on 4/28/08…Waived by Phi. on 8/30/08…Signed by Hou. to practice squad on 11/6/08…Waived by Hou. on 11/25/08…Signed by SF to practice squad on 12/3/08…Signed by SF to futures contract on 12/29/08.

GOLDMINE:

- Justin was a wrestler in high school and his 4–year–old son, Gabriel, is following in his father's footsteps. He competes in an Oklahoma youth program, and during the offseason, he takes his son to tournaments where he competes in the 40–pound division.

2008 (Houston/San Francisco):

- Served as a member of the Texans and 49ers practice squads after spending training camp with the Philadelphia Eagles.

PERSONAL:

- A 2003 all–district first–team pick and honorable mention all–state performer as a senior at Ponca City (OK) HS.
- Was also a standout wrestler as a prep, winning the Oklahoma state title his senior year and helping his team to an overall state title.
- Born Justin Roland (1/14/86) in Ponca City, OK.
- Majored in social science.

MARK ROMAN

(ROW-minn)

Ht: 5–11 Wt: 205 Born: 3/26/77
College: LSU
Exp: 10th Year (FA in '06)
Career Games/Starts: 130/101

A durable and instinctive player, Mark Roman has provided the 49ers secondary with veteran experience and leadership since joining the team in July of 2006. He enters the 2009 season with 43 consecutive starts and a streak of 96 consecutive games played, with the latter ranking 2nd among NFL safeties (128 – Sea. Deon Grant). Roman has experience at both strong and free safety positions. He spent four seasons with Cincinnati and two with Green Bay before joining San Francisco.

TRANSACTIONS: Originally a second–round (34th pick overall) draft choice by Cin. in 2000…Signed by GB as an unrestricted free agent from Cin. on March 24, 2004…Waived by GB on July 27, 2006…Signed by SF as a free agent on July 29, 2006.

GOLDMINE:

- Mark majored in construction management at LSU and worked as a site manager for a construction company while in college. "It was a great experience," he said. "I was overseeing one of the projects that they had going on. I was there from the time they broke ground, to grating it out, to when they put walls up. I became familiar with deadlines and time management. It was a great chance to learn those skills." Mark would like to pursue a career in the residential construction industry following his NFL career and is interested in building homes in Houston, Texas, where he recently moved. He says his NFL career has built his skills, leadership, attention to detail and work ethic on the field, qualities also needed to have a successful career in the housing sector.

- Five of Mark's six brothers served in the Army. He has a total of 10 siblings.

2008 (San Francisco):

- Registered a FR off Bills RB Marshawn Lynch at Buf. (11/30). The recovery helped set up a 51–yd. FG by K Joe Nedney in 2nd qtr. to put 49ers ahead 10–0 in a 10–3 victory.

PERSONAL:

- Was named Most Valuable Player on offense in Class 5A as a senior at New Iberia (LA) HS as he rushed for 1,897 yds. and 21 TDs despite breaking ankle in school's 8th contest. Returned to action less than a month later to play in state playoffs.
- Lettered four times in football (as a running back and safety) and was part of a track team that captured the state title his sophomore and senior years.
- Also prepped against current NFL players Kevin Faulk (Patriots), Travis Minor (Rams) and Brandon Stokley (Broncos). Maintains relationship with all three.
- Did not start playing football until 7th grade.
- Conducts a football camp every June in conjunction with the New Iberia (LA) Jaycees.
- In 2005, signed autographs for cash donations to American Red Cross' Hurricane Katrina Relief Fund.
- Born Mark Emery Roman (3/26/77) in Lafayette, LA. Married to Ashley. Couple resides in Houston, TX.
- Majored in construction management.

ALLEN ROSSUM

Ht: 5–8 Wt: 178 Born: 10/22/75
College: Notre Dame
Exp: 12th Year (FA in '08)
Career Games/Starts: 153/10

One of most dangerous and experienced returners in the NFL, Allen Rossum enters his second year with the 49ers ranked 2nd in NFL history for total career return yds. (14,751) and kickoff return yds. (11,779), while also ranking 1st among active players with 2,972 career punt return yds. Rossum is the only player in NFL history to have a kickoff return for a TD with five different teams (Philadelphia, Green Bay, Atlanta, Pittsburgh, San Francisco). Before joining the 49ers, he was a member of the Eagles (1998–99), Packers (2000–01), Falcons (2002–06) and Steelers (2007).

TRANSACTIONS: Originally a third–round (85th pick overall) draft choice by Philadelphia in 1998…Traded by Philadelphia to Green Bay on August 25, 2000 for a 5th–round draft choice…Signed by Atlanta as an unrestricted free agent from Green Bay on March 13, 2002…Traded by Atlanta to Pittsburgh for a 2008 conditional draft pick on September 1, 2007…Waived by Pittsburgh on February 22, 2008…Signed by San Francisco as a free agent on February 28, 2008.

GOLDMINE:

- A physical fitness advocate, Allen has challenged more than 2,500 youth to live healthier lives by speaking out on the importance of exercise, making smart choices, and the battle that his own family has experienced with fighting obesity. In 2003, Allen was a lead advocate for GA House Bill 1013 (The Recess Bill) with State Representative 54 Sally Harrell. He has received numerous awards, including the 2004 National Kids Day America Empowerment Award, 2005 Falcons Man of the Year, and the Fatherhood Award from the NFL in 2005.

AWARDS & HONORS:

1999: NFC Special Teams Player of the Week (11)
2000: NFC Special Teams Player of the Week (12)
2004: NFC Pro Bowl, NFC Special Teams Player of the Week (Divisional Playoffs)

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

- Ranks 2nd in NFL history for total career return yds. (14,751) and kickoff return yds. (11,779), while also ranking 1st among active players with 2,972 career punt return yds.
- Ranked 2nd in the NFL in punt return average (14.9) and 3rd in the NFC in kickoff return average (26.8), in 2008.
- He earned Pro Bowl honors in 2004 with the Falcons after returning 37 punts for 457 yds. (12.4 avg.) and 58 kickoffs for 1,250 yds.
- Established an NFL postseason record of 152 punt return yds. in a game vs. StL (11/15/05, NFC–CG).

2008 (San Francisco):

- Ranked 3rd in NFC in kickoff avg. (26.8) and 2nd in NFL in punt return avg. (14.9). Was named a Pro Bowl alternate.
- Scored first career offensive TD on a 1–yd. carry on an end–around on a 4th–and–1 play vs. Det. (9/21). Became first 49ers defensive back to score an offensive TD since Dickie Moegle in 1955 (12/11/55 vs. Bal. Colts).
- Made first career start on offense vs. Phi. (10/12) lining up as a WR and registered first career reception for 4 yds.
- Left game at NYG (10/19) in 1st qtr. with a groin injury.
- Returned opening kickoff for a career–long 104 yds. at Arz. (11/10) on Monday Night Football. The kickoff return marked the 2nd longest in 49ers history behind Abe Woodson's 105–yd. TD return at LA Rams (11/8/59).
- Suffered ankle injury at Dal. (11/23) and missed following 3 contests.

PERSONAL:

- Lettered in football and track at Skyline (Dallas, TX) HS, where he recorded 580 total tackles and 13 INTs in his career. Had 1,634 rush yds. and 12 rec. TDs as a senior.
- Captained high school's track squad all 4 years and posted fastest time in nation in 100 meters (10.02 seconds) in 1993. Two–time All–American in track at Notre Dame as he competed in the 55–meter.
- Graduated early with a dual degree in business and computer science.
- Established the Allen Rossum Healthy Kids Foundation and hosts an annual Allen Rossum Golf Tournament.
- Born Allen Rossum (10/22/75) in Dallas, TX. He and his wife, Angela, have 4 daughters: Trinity Amaia, Talia Alyse, and twins Alexa and Avian. Won '05 National Fatherhood Award.

BARRY SIMS

Ht: 6–5 Wt: 300 Born: 12/1/74
College: Utah
Exp: 11th Year (FA in '08)
Career Games/Starts: 150/127

A versatile and experienced offensive lineman, Barry Sims enters his second season with the 49ers after spending his first nine NFL seasons as a member of the Oakland Raiders. Sims stepped into the 49ers starting line up two games into the 2008 season in place of an injured T Jonas Jennings, and went on to start seven more contests during the season at right tackle. During his tenure in Oakland, he lined up at both guard and tackle positions.

TRANSACTIONS: Originally signed by Oak. as a rookie free agent on 7/12/99...Waived by Oak. on 2/29/08…Signed by SF as a free agent on7/26/08.

GOLDMINE:

- Barry didn't have as easy an entrance into the NFL as one might think. It took determination, hard work and a bit of luck for him to beat the odds. Barry never seriously thought about going pro until after his junior season at the University of Utah. With the support of family and friends, he trained hard and had a productive senior year as he was selected to the Hula Bowl All Star game. Everything was looking promising for the ambitious lineman, but a couple days before the honorary game, Sims blew out his knee in practice. He ended up spending the next year in Salt Lake City rehabbing his injury. Once the rehabilitation concluded, Barry was eager to sign with a team. However, many teams were skeptical about whether his knee would hold up. As time was running out, an opportunity arose in NFL Europe, and Barry was selected in the 17th round of the 1999 NFLE Draft by the Scottish Claymores. He shined overseas and was signed as a free agent by the Raiders in July of 1999. After just four regular season games with the Raiders, he made his first NFL start, and has since gone on to make over 100 more. In 2004, Barry was inducted into the Scottish Claymores Football Hall of Fame.
- Sims was the 2004 co–recipient, along with Ronald Curry, of the Commitment to Excellence Award, voted on by team members and given to the 'Player who best exemplifies the pride and spirit of the Raiders'.

2008 (San Francisco):

- Saw action in 14 games with 8 starts at RT.
- Stepped into action at RT 2 games into season after T Jonas Jennings left with a shoulder injury at Sea. (9/14).
- Made first start as a member of 49ers at Det. (9/21) and was part of a line that helped team rush for 189 yds.
- Left game vs. Sea. (10/26) with an ankle injury in 2nd qtr. and did not return. Was replaced in lineup by Adam Snyder.
- Inactive at Arz. (11/10) and vs. StL (11/16).
- Entered game at RT at Mia. (12/14) after Snyder left with an ankle injury in 1st quarter.
- Started final 2 games at RT.

PERSONAL:

- Lettered in football, basketball and track at Park City (Utah) HS, where he was all–league as a two–way lineman.
- In basketball, played forward and center, and participated in track as a shot putter.
- Enjoys golfing, hiking, cycling and skiing.
- Born Barry Sims (12/1/74) in Park City, UT. Married to wife, Shae.

ALEX SMITH

Ht: 6–4 Wt: 217 Born: 5/7/84
College: Utah
Exp: 5th Year (D–1 in '05)
Career Games/Starts: 32/30

A tough, cerebral signal caller, Alex Smith is looking towards a fresh start in 2009 after battling through injuries over the course of the past two seasons. In 2006, Smith seemed to be on the path to success as he became the first 49ers quarterback in club history to take every snap from center over the course of a season, setting career–highs in every major statistical category: attempts (442), completions (257), yds. (2,890), and TDs (16). Following a promising 2–1 start to 2007, Smith was sidelined with a shoulder injury on the first series against Seattle. He went on to make four more starts that year before being placed on the Injured Reserve list. Smith never got the chance to step onto the field in 2008 as a shoulder injury three days prior to the season opener shelved him for the year.

TRANSACTIONS: Originally a first–round (1st pick overall) draft choice by San Francisco in 2005.

GOLDMINE:

- In early 2007, Alex committed $500,000 to the University of Utah's athletic department. The generous donation was the lead gift for the Alex Smith Strength and Conditioning Facility—a $1.5 million expansion of Utah's varsity athletics weight room. The money kicked off a campaign to raise the remaining funds for the project. Plans call for the expansion of the Dee Glen Smith Center, which houses the strength and conditioning room, as well as the football coaching offices, meeting, training and equipment rooms. The facility covers 11,000 square feet—a 3,500 square foot improvement from its current size, and features new lifting stations and cardiovascular conditioning space.
- Alex graduated college in three years with a bachelor's degree in economics and scored one of the highest scores (40) on the Wonderlic Test prior to the NFL Draft.
- In 2006, Alex established the Alex Smith Foundation (www.alexsmithfoundation.org), which provides foster teens with the tools and resources needed to transition to successful adulthood.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

- Became the first 49ers quarterback in club history to take every snap from center over the course of a season in 2006
- Set career–highs in every major statistical category: attempts (442), completions (257), yds. (2,890), and TDs (16), in 2006.

2008:

- Entered season as team's backup QB behind J.T. O'Sullivan, but injured shoulder in practice three days prior to the season opener and was placed on Injured Reserve (9/10).

JUSTIN SMITH

Ht: 6/4 Wt: 285 Born: 9/30/79
College: Missouri
Exp: 9th Year (UFA in '08)
Career Games/Starts: 127/123

A relentless and explosive defensive lineman, Justin Smith made an immediate impact on the 49ers defense in his first season with the team in 2008. His efforts earned him the team's Bill Walsh Award after leading the defense in QB pressures (57) and ranking 2nd in sacks (7.0). Smith enters the upcoming season with an active streak of 123 consecutive starts, which is by far the longest streak of any current NFL defensive lineman (3 players tied for 2nd with 48 straight starts). He joined the 49ers from the Cincinnati Bengals, where he led the defensive line in tackles in 6 of 7 seasons with the team.

TRANSACTIONS: Originally a first–round (4th pick overall) draft choice by Cincinnati in 2001…Signed by San Francisco as an unrestricted free agent from Cincinnati on March 1, 2008.

GOLDMINE:

- Justin was one of the most sought after free agents in the NFL in the 2008 offseason. When the 49ers brought him in for a visit, they knew they had to sell the Midwesterner on the California lifestyle. Justin, who often wears cowboy boots and grew up on his father's cattle ranch in Missouri, discussed the 49ers defensive philosophy in depth with the team's coaches and was also taken on a helicopter tour of the city. It didn't take long for him to make his decision as he cancelled his future visits with prospective teams and signed with San Francisco. Although Justin wants to play in San Francisco for several years to come, he looks to eventually return to his roots. "When I'm done playing ball, I'll probably move to Missouri or Texas and get a ranch. That's how I grew up. I think it teaches you survival."

AWARDS & HONORS:

2008: 49ers Bill Walsh Award, given to the team's most valuable player voted on by the coaches

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

- Enters 2009 with a streak of 123 consecutive starts, ranking 11th among all active NFL players, 6th among all defensive players, and 1st among D–linemen.
- Played the most snaps of any NFL defensive lineman in 2007, lining up for 97.9 percent of plays on defense as the Bengals franchise player.
- Has posted at least 5 sacks in 7 of his 8 seasons played and has only missed 1 game in his career (contract negotiations as a rookie).

2008 (San Francisco):

- Started all 16 games for 7th consecutive season and ranked 4th on team in tackles (104), 2nd in sacks (7) and 1st in QB pressures (57).
- Earned the Bill Walsh Award, which is given to team's most valuable player as voted upon by the coaches.
- Made 49ers debut vs. Arz. (9/7) and had 8 tackles and 1 sack.
- Recorded an INT with 1:50 to play vs. Det. (9/21) in 31–13 victory. Also posted a sack, which forced a fumble on QB Jon Kitna.
- Had 3 tackles, 6 QB pressures and 1 PD vs. NYJ (12/7).
- Totaled 9 tackles and 1 sack at StL (12/21).

PERSONAL:

- All–state and two–time all–district football choice at Jefferson City (MO) HS, where he was selected to Super Prep's All–America and Top 50 teams as a senior.
- Born Justin Smith (9/30/79) in Holts Summit, MO.

MARVEL SMITH

Ht: 6–5 Wt: 321 Born: 8/6/78
College: Arizona State
Exp: 10th Year (UFA in '09)
Career Games/Starts: 111/108

A proven starter at both tackle positions, Marvel Smith enters his first year with the 49ers after spending nine seasons as a member of the Pittsburgh Steelers. Smith was part of two Super Bowl Championship teams in Pittsburgh and earned Pro Bowl recognition following the 2004 season. A second–round draft pick by the Steelers in 2000, he opened his rookie season as the team's starting right tackle. Smith eventually moved to the left tackle position, where he remained for his final six seasons in Pittsburgh.

TRANSACTIONS: Originally a second–round (38th pick overall) draft choice by Pit. in 2000…Signed by SF as an unrestricted free agent on 3/30/09.

GOLDMINE:

- After spending the past nine years with the Pittsburgh Steelers, Marvel accumulated so much stuff as a tenured veteran that he was afforded two lockers. Both were filled with photos of his son, protein drinks and various gear. It wasn't until he arrived to his locker in San Francisco that he had to shuffle through everything so it would all fit in one locker.

AWARDS & HONORS:

2004: AFC Pro Bowl

2008 (Pittsburgh):

- Started 5 games at left tackle for Pittsburgh and was inactive 10 contests with a back injury before being placed on Injured Reserve (12/23).
- Helped team rush for 183 yds. vs. Hou. (9/7).
- Left game in 4th qtr. at Jac. (10/5) with back cramps.

PERSONAL:

- A 1996 graduate of Skyline (Oakland, CA) HS, earned first–team All–Bay Area as well as second–team All–East Bay honors as a senior.
- Voted Skyline Offensive Player of the Year and ranked as the 8th–best college prospect in the Bay Area.
- Became school's first lineman to receive a Division 1–A scholarship.
- Born Marvel Amos Smith (8/6/78) in Oakland, CA. Married to wife, Kellie.

SMITH'S NFL STATISTICS

GAMES/STARTS (Regular Season): 2000 (12/9), 2001 (16/16), 2002 (16/16), 2003 (6/6), 2004 (16/16), 2005 (12/12), 2006 (16/16), 2007 (12/12), 2008 (5/5); CAREER (Regular Season): 111/108; GAMES/STARTS (Postseason): 2001 (2/2), 2002 (2/2), 2004 (2/2), 2005 (4/4); CAREER (Postseason): (10/10)

REGGIE SMITH

Ht: 6–1 Wt: 200 Born: 9/3/86
College: Oklahoma
Exp: 2nd Year (D–3 in '08)
Career Games/Starts: 3/0

Reggie Smith transitions to the safety position in 2009 after lining up at cornerback during his rookie season. A third–round selection in 2008, Smith made starts at both strong safety and cornerback during his collegiate career at Oklahoma. He saw action in 3 games as a rookie in a reserve defensive back role.

TRANSACTIONS: Originally a third–round (75th pick overall) draft choice by SF in 2008.

GOLDMINE:

- Reggie can sew thanks to a Home Economics class he took. One of his best pieces of work was a large pillow.

2008:

- Posted 2 special teams tackles in first action vs. Det. (9/21).
- Saw action vs. StL (11/16) and made first career tackle.
- Recorded 1 special teams tackle vs. NYJ (12/7).

PERSONAL:

- Attended Santa Fe (Edmond, Okla.) HS, lining up as a DB, WR and RB.
- A two–time All–State choice, earning USA Today first–team honors as a senior after recording 63 tackles and 6 INTs on defense, while rushing for 935 yds. on 122 carries with 9 TDs and catching 47 passes for 607 yds. with 8 scores.
- Named Oklahoma Offensive Player of the Year as a junior after leading team to Class 6A championship game.
- Also lettered in basketball and track, clocking a personal best 10.8 in the 100–meter dash.
- Born Reginald Smith (9/3/86) in Edmond, OK.

Exp: 5th Year (D–3B in '05)
Career Games/Starts: 60/38

As the second of two third–round selections in 2005, Adam Snyder has shown immense versatility by making starts at every position along the line with the exception of center (21 at LT, 7 at LG, 6 at RT and 4 at RG). Snyder opened the 2008 season starting 7 games at left guard before moving to the right tackle position, where he started 6 contests. In 2007, he started the final 10 games of the season at left tackle in place of an injured T Jonas Jennings.

TRANSACTIONS: Originally the second of two third–round (94th pick overall) draft choices by SF in 2005.

GOLDMINE:

- As a 6–6, 325–pound tackle, Snyder had an interesting hobby as a youngster. While growing up in Southern California, he enjoyed spending time inline skating with his friends. While in junior high, Adam and his friends began to skate for Play It Again Sports, a sporting goods store, who would support the skaters with wheels and accessories, making them locally sponsored performers. Adam's greatest stunt on his wheels was a 13–stair rail.
- Enjoys surfing with his wife, Erika, during the offseason.

- Saw action in 14 games, starting first 7 contests at LG before making 6 starts at right tackle.
- Replaced in starting lineup vs. Sea. (10/26) by G David Baas, but entered game at right tackle in 2nd qtr. when T Barry Sims left with an ankle injury.
- Started at RT at Arz. (11/10) in place of Sims and was part of an offensive line that did not allow a sack. Went on to start following 5 contests at right tackle.
- Left game in 1st qtr. at Mia. (12/14) with an ankle injury.
- Did not play final two contests with an ankle injury.

PERSONAL:

- Attended La Serna (Whittier, CA) HS, where he was a two–year starter and 1999 team captain. A 2nd–team all–CIF honoree, helped team rush for over 2,400 yds. as a senior.
- Born Adam Richard Snyder (1/30/82) in Fullerton, CA. Married to Erika. Couple splits time between Santa Clara, CA and Whittier, CA.
- Majored in journalism/public relations.

ISAAC SOPOAGA

(SOW-poh-AH-guh)

Ht: 6–2 Wt: 330 Born: 9/4/81
College: Hawaii
Exp: 6th Year (D–4A in '04)
Career Games/Starts: 63/23

Isaac Sopoaga has been a key component of the 49ers defensive line rotation since being drafted in the fourth round of the 2004 NFL Draft. His size and athleticism make him an ideal fit for the 49ers 3–4 scheme. Sopoaga set career–highs in 2008 with 15 starts and 66 tackles. Widely considered as one of the strongest players on team, he is one of three 49ers (Moran Norris and Tony Wragge) who work out with 200–pound dumbbells.

TRANSACTIONS: Originally a fourth–round (104th pick overall) draft choice by San Francisco in 2004.

GOLDMINE:

- Growing up in American Samoa, Isaac's first sport was rugby. Part of his conditioning routine was to strengthen his arms by lifting bags filled with coconuts and logs from chopped down trees. The leg workout was also geographically geared. Said Isaac, "Have you ever seen a 325–pound guy climb a coconut tree?"

2008:

- Set a career–high with 66 tackles.
- Had 1 PD and a season–high 6 tackles at NO (9/28).
- Registered 5 tackles and 1 sack vs. NE (10/5).

PERSONAL:

- Majored in general studies.

- Prepped at Samoana (Pago Pago, American Samoa) HS, where he lettered in football, basketball, and baseball.
- Named League's Defensive POY and earned first–team all–league honors as a senior. Earned first–team all–league honors and was a member of League championship team.
- Born Isaac Sopoaga (9/4/81) in Pago Pago, American Samoa.

SHAWNTAE SPENCER

Ht: 6–1 Wt: 190 Born: 2/22/82
College: Pittsburgh
Exp: 6th Year (D–2B in '04)
Career Games/Starts: 57/40

A physical and quick cornerback, Shawntae Spencer provides the 49ers with a playmaker in the defensive backfield. A second–round draft pick in 2004, Spencer was sidelined the majority of the 2008 season with a knee injury after battling through a quad injury a year prior. He was the team's starting cornerback over his first 3 NFL seasons before serving as the team's nickelback upon the arrival of CB Nate Clements in 2007.

TRANSACTIONS: Originally the second of two second–round (58th pick overall) draft choices by SF in 2004.

GOLOMINE:

- Shawntae was originally a big fan of baseball as a kid, but after getting his first taste of football, he couldn't resist the urge to play the sport. "Growing up in Pittsburgh, football is where it's at," he said. "My first love was baseball, but I got to high school and saw that all of the excitement was at the football games. There were 10,000 plus fans every Friday night and when you are in high school you want to be in that spotlight."

2008

- Posted 2 tackles and 2 special teams stops vs. Arz. (9/7).
- Saw action in nickel package at Sea. (9/14) before leaving game with a knee injury.
- Underwent knee surgery (9/23) and was placed on Injured Reserve (10/16).

PERSONAL:

- Prepped at Woodland Hills (PA) HS, where he helped team to a 22–4 record over last 2 seasons, including a 13–1 mark in 1999 and a 9–3 record in 1998.
- Began senior year in secondary, but moved to starting quarterback later in year. Rushed 43 times for 154 yds. with 4 TDs, completed 30 of 77 passes for 543 yds. with 5 TDs, and recorded 56 tackles, 3 INTs and 1 FR on defense.
- Also lettered twice in track, finishing 2nd in WPIAL and 6th at state championships in long jump as junior.
- Born Shawntae Spencer (2/22/82) in Rankin, PA.
- Majored in economics.

TAKEO SPIKES
(tuh-KEE-oh)

Ht: 6–2 Wt: 242 Born: 12/17/76
College: Auburn
Exp: 12th Year (UFA in '08)
Career Games/Starts: 156/152

Takeo Spikes provides the 49ers with a proven leader and playmaker at linebacker. Spikes joined the 49ers in August of 2008 and quickly found his niche, lining up as starting linebacker 4 games into the season. He was named the team's Matt Hazeltine Award winner following the season, which is given to the 49ers most courageous and inspirational defensive player. Spikes, a former first–round draft choice by Cincinnati in 1998, spent his first five years with the Bengals before serving four seasons with Buffalo and one season with Philadelphia.

TRANSACTIONS: Originally a first–round (13th pick overall) draft choice by Cin. in 1998...Signed by Buf. on 3/10/03... Traded to Phi. from Buf. on 3/26/07 as part of a three–player trade...Waived by Phi. on 3/6/08...Signed by SF as a free agent on 8/10/08...Signed by SF as an unrestricted free agent on 2/27/09.

GOLDMINE:

- Was appointed by NFL commissioner Roger Goodell, in conjunction with the NFLPA, to the first–ever NFL Player Advisory Council in 2007. The six–man committee, which was composed of Spikes, Jaguars S Donovin Darius, Vikings FB Tony Richardson, Redskins WR James Thrash, and free–agent S Troy Vincent, was established to help regularly advise commissioner Goodell on a wide range of issues that affect NFL players. "This is a tremendous honor and I'm going to take it seriously. I am looking forward to being a link between the players and the league, the players and management."
- His parents named him "Takeo" after Japanese Prime Minister Takeo Miki, who served from 1974–76. "They didn't know a lot about him, but they're big into name research. Takeo means 'great warrior' in Japanese. I guess that's what sealed the deal."
- Launched 51 Ways, Inc. with former Eagles/Giants LB Carlos Emmons in 2003. Both Spikes and Emmons grew up in Georgia and have lost family members to cancer. The foundation is dedicated to supporting families of children diagnosed with cancer and/or blood disorders by providing financial, spiritual, and physical resources. AWARDS & HONORS:

2001: AFC Player of the Week (2)
2003: AFC Pro Bowl
2004: AFC Pro Bowl, AP All–Pro
2008: Matt Hazeltine Award

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

- A two–time Pro Bowl selection (2003–04) and All–Pro (2004).
- Has totaled nine 100–plus tackle seasons in his 11–year career.
- His 15 career INTs rank tied for 8th among active NFL linebackers during that span.
- Posted INTs in 3 consecutive games in 2008, marking the longest streak by a 49ers linebacker in team history.

2008 (San Francisco):

- Ranked 2nd on team with 122 tackles and tied for 1st with 3 INTs and 2 FFs. Took over starting inside linebacker role 4 games into season after alternating with LB Jeff Ulbrich in first 3 contests.
- Tallied 5 tackles, 1 FF and 1 PD vs. Det. (9/21).
- Made first start as a 49er at NO (9/28) and posted 6 tackles, 1 INT and 1 PD. Picked off a QB Drew Brees pass in 1st qtr., marking his first INT since 2004 when he had 5.
- Recorded a season–high 14 tackles and an INT vs. NE (10/6). The pick came off a tipped ball by DT Aubrayo Franklin on third play of game.
- Posted an INT for the 3rd consecutive week vs. Phi (10/12). The INT occurred in 3rd qtr. off QB Donovan McNabb as Eagles were driving deep into 49ers territory.

PERSONAL:

- Earned All–America honors and was named Georgia Player of the Year as a senior at Washington County (Sandersville, GA) HS.
- Goes by nicknames "TKO" and "Spikedog."
- Has one daughter, Jakai, which means "beautiful flower" in Japanese.
- Was raised by father, Jimmie, and mother, Lillie. Jimmie worked in a chalk mining plant and Lillie was a special education teacher for children in grades 9–12. Takeo's first job was working with his father in the chalk mining plant.
- Born Takeo Gerard Spikes (12/17/76) in Sandersville, GA.

MICHEAL SPURLOCK

Ht: 5–11 Wt: 200 Born: 1/31/83
College: Mississippi
Exp: 2nd Year (FA in '09)
Career Games/Starts: 8/0

A fleet–footed returner, Micheal Spurlock joins the 49ers after spending time as a member of the Tampa Bay Buccaneers and Arizona Cardinals. He has played in 8 career games and 1 postseason contest, seeing the most action in 2007 as a kick returner for the Buccaneers, where he made history with the franchise's first kickoff return for a touchdown.

TRANACTIONS: Originally signed by Arz. as a rookie free agent on 9/3/06…Signed by Arz. to the practice squad on 9/4/06...Signed by Arz. to the active roster from the practice squad on 12/29/06...Waived by Arz. on 8/31/07...Signed by TB to the practice squad on 9/4/07...Waived from TB practice squad on 9/18/07...Signed to TB practice squad on 9/26/07...Signed by TB to active roster on 11/1/07...Waived by TB on 8/31/07...Signed by TB to the practice squad on 9/3/08...Signed by SF as a free agent on 1/23/09.

GOLDMINE:

- Micheal enjoys collecting movies in his spare time and has a collection of nearly 400. The tradition started in college when he and his friends would go and buy the new releases every Tuesday from the local movie store. Micheal still has a movie day with his wife and two daughters when they watch a couple movies after church every Sunday.

2008 (Tampa Bay):

- Spent entire season on Tampa Bay's practice squad.

PERSONAL:

- Attended Gentry (MI) HS, where he passed for Class 5A state records of 3,348 yds. and 35 TDs in 2000, while also rushing for 1,161 yds. and 10 scores.
- Earned 3 letters in football and basketball, and 4 letters in baseball.
- Born Micheal Curtis Spurlock (1/31/83) in Indianola, MI.

JOE STALEY

(STAY-lee)

Ht: 6–5 Wt: 315 Born: 8/30/84
College: Central Michigan
Exp: 3rd Year (D–1B in '07)
Career Games/Starts: 32/32

Joe Staley has been a mainstay on the 49ers offensive line since being chosen as the second of San Francisco's two first–round draft picks in 2007. Since joining the team that year, he has lined up for every single offensive snap, starting all 16 contests at right tackle as a rookie before making 16 starts at left tackle in 2008. A true team player in every sense, Staley was rewarded for his efforts this offseason with a six–year contract extension that will keep him with the team through 2017. A product of Central Michigan, Staley became the first player in school history to be drafted in the first round of the NFL Draft.

TRANSACTIONS: Originally the second of two first–round (28th pick overall) draft choices by San Francisco in 2007 ... Signed a six–year contract extension through 2017 on 6/6/09.

GOLDMINE:

- Following his rookie season, Joe got a suprise call from a marketing company looking to create a bobblehead of him for a hometown baseball promotion. The former Rockford High School and Central Michigan star was taken back by it. "It's pretty crazy," said Joe. "It's kind of crazy to have something that has your likeness on it. It kind of freaked me out." His bobblehead was given out to the first 1,000 fans at Fifth Third Ballpark when the West Michigan Whitecaps faced the Lansing Lugnuts. On the bobblehead, Joe is holding a helmet and is decked out in his high school uniform with No. 84 on his jersey. "I think they were going for my retro–Rockford days. In the current day, you would have to put 200 pounds on that doll," said Joe, who was a relay runner and tight end in high school.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

- Became the first 49ers rookie offensive lineman to start every single game in a season since Cas Banaszek (1968–77), who started all 14 contests in 1968.
- Was 1 of only 3 NFL rookies (49ers LB Patrick Willis and Browns LT Joe Thomas) to line up for every single snap in 2007, and was 1 of 35 NFL players overall to accomplish the feat out of 1,898 total players.

2008:

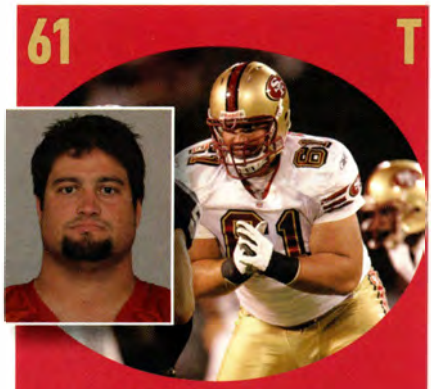
- Started all 16 games at LT as the only 49ers player to line up for every single snap.
- Was part of an offensive line that did not allow a sack at Arz. (11/10), breaking an NFL record 31–game streak by the Cardinals defense with at least one sack.
- Recorded first NFL TD on a fumble recovery following a WR Jason Hill 6–yd. reception vs. NYJ (12/7).

STALEY'S NFL STATISTICS

GAMES/STARTS: 2007 (16/16), 2008 (16/16); CAREER: 32/32

Additional Statistics:
Touchdowns – 1: 2008 [FR in endzone vs. NYJ (12/7/08)]

PERSONAL:
- Attended Rockford (MI) HS, where he lettered twice in both football and track.
- Caught 24 passes for 559 yds. with 7 TDs as a senior.
- Set three school records in track: 200–meters (21.9), 4x100 (42.5) and 4x200 (1:27) relay teams.
- Placed 6th in state for 200m to earn All–State honors as team finished 4th in state finals in 4x100m, 4th in 4x200m and 6th in 4x400m (43.1).
- Born Joe Staley (8/30/84) in Rockford, MI.



JOE TOLEDO

Ht: 6–5 Wt: 330 Born: 10/20/82
College: Washington
Exp: 3rd Year (FA in '08)
Career Games/Starts: 0/0

Joe Toledo looks to compete along the offensive line after spending the entire 2008 NFL season as a member of the 49ers practice squad. A fourth–round selection by Miami in 2006, Toledo spent two seasons with the Dolphins before joining the 49ers in 2008. He was a former collegiate tight end before shifting to left offensive tackle prior to his senior year at Washington.

TRANSACTIONS: Originally a fourth–round (114th overall) draft choice by Mia. in 2006...Waived by Mia. on 2/12/08...Signed by GB on 2/28/08...Waived by GB on 6/4/08...Signed by SF as a free agent on 6/10/08...Waived by SF on 8/31/08...Signed by SF to the practice squad on 9/3/08...Signed by SF to a future contract on 1/2/09.

GOLDMINE:
- Joe's father, Chris, is a member of the U.S. Secret Service. From 2002–04, he was assigned to former President Gerald Ford. Having earned his bachelor's degree in law from the University of Washington, Joe is thinking about that line of work after his football career. "There is a lot that goes into it, but it would be a cool job," Joe said.

2008 (San Francisco):
- Spent entire season on 49ers practice squad.

PERSONAL:
- Attended La Costa Canyon (Carlsbad, CA) HS, where he lettered in football, basketball and baseball.
- Caught 75 passes for 1,792 yds. and 19 TDs as a tight end during his prep career. Also recorded 51 tackles and 5 sacks as a defensive end.
- Born Joseph Christopher Toledo (10/20/82) in Omaha, NE.
- Earned a degree in law.

JEFF ULBRICH

(ULL-brick)

Ht: 6–0 Wt: 240 Born: 2/17/77
College: Hawaii
Exp: 10th Year (D–3B in '00)
Career Games/Starts: 116/75

A tough, hard–nosed player, Jeff Ulbrich is one of the longest tenured players on the team. The second of two third–round picks by San Francisco in 2000, Ulbrich has started 75 career games at linebacker and serves as a leader on special teams. He has twice (2004, '07) been the recipient of the team's Matt Hazeltine Award, which is given annually to the most courageous and inspirational defensive player.

TRANSACTIONS: Originally the second of two third–round (86th pick overall) draft choices by SF in 2000.

GOLDMINE:

- Jeff is a big fan of Ultimate Fighting. In fact, the linebacker incorporates the style into his workouts. He frequently watches events with his wife and started utilizing the training when a friend converted an old building into a fighting studio. At the studio, Jeff wrestles, practices jiu–jitsu and takes part in other cross training activities. He says the alternative workouts increase his cardiovascular stamina to a higher level because they are executed in a controlled environment.

AWARDS & HONORS:
2004: Gary Niver Award, Matt Hazeltine Ironman Award
2007: Matt Hazeltine Ironman Award

DELANIE WALKER

(deh-LAY-nee)

Ht: 6–0 Wt: 242 Born: 8/12/84
College: Central Missouri
Exp: 4th Year (D–6A in '06)
Career Games/Starts: 38/13

A sixth–round selection by San Francisco in 2006, Delanie Walker provides the 49ers with an explosive receiving threat at the tight end position. He has started 13 games in his three–year career, primarily when the team opens in two–tight end sets. A former collegiate wide receiver at Central Missouri, Walker has put his deceptive speed on display not only as a tight end, but also as a kickoff returner.

TRANSACTIONS: Originally the first of three sixth–round (175th pick overall) draft choices by SF in 2006.

GOLDMINE:

- Delanie has quite the collection of classic cars. He currently owns a 1964 Chevy Impala, 1972 Buick Skylark and a 1989 Camaro IROC–Z28. He spends most of his time working on the Camaro. His love for cars came from when his childhood, watching other kids with nice cars he always wanted. "Growing up as a child, seeing other guys that were older than me that had the old cars, the classics, riding around. The guys that always had those cars were the ones that were most popular, they had the big houses. That was the thing that I always wanted to do, have the old nice cars."

2008:

- Caught a 24–yd. TD pass from QB J.T. O'Sullivan vs. Det. (9/21).
- Started first game of season and caught 1 pass for 8 yds. vs. NE (10/5).
- Filled in at fullback vs. Phi. (10/12) when FB Zak Keasey (bicep) left in 2nd qtr.
- Hauled in a career–long 53–yd. catch from O'Sullivan in 1st qtr. vs. Sea. (10/26) to set up the 49ers first score of game. Left game in 2nd qtr. with elbow injury and did not return.
- Returned 5 kickoffs for 112 yds. at Dal. (11/23) after KR Allen Rossum left game with an ankle injury.

PERSONAL:

- Attended Pomona (CA) HS, where he was a first–team All–Region selection by The LA Times, adding All–Division and All–San Gabriel Valley honors as a senior.
- Twice chosen Miramonte League Offensive Player of the Year and was selected as the 2001 Pomona Red Devil of the Year.
- Excelled in track, winning the Division III 100–meters title after finishing 1st in the 2002 Miramonte League Meet.
- Born Delanie Walker (8/12/84) in Pomona, CA.
- Majored in video production, with a minor in criminal justice.

CODY WALLACE

Ht: 6–4 Wt: 300 Born: 11/26/84
College: Texas A&M
Exp: 2nd Year (D–4 in '08)
Career Games/Starts: 0/0

A fourth–round pick by the 49ers in 2008, Cody Wallace looks to compete along the offensive line after serving as a reserve last season. Wallace was a three–year starter at center during his collegiate career at Texas A&M.

TRANSACTIONS: Originally a fourth–round (107th pick overall) draft choice by SF in 2008.

GOLDMINE:

- Upon accepting a scholarship to Texas A&M in high school, Cody mocked up a contract with some of his friends stating that if he ever made it to the pros, he'd have to give them a stated amount of money and get them tickets to all of the games. "Six years later, I had forgotten about it," said Cody. "One of my friends had hidden it behind this picture in my house, and so he came in and was looking behind this picture, I had no idea what he was doing. He then pulled the contract out. We had a real good laugh."

2008:

- Inactive all 16 games.

PERSONAL:

- Attended Cuero (Tex.) HS, lining up at offensive center, tackle and guard during his career, in addition to playing on the defensive line as a senior, where he recorded 45 tackles.
- Two–time Class 3A All–State gridiron selection and consensus Texas Top 100 choice.
- Registered over 100 knockdown blocks in each of his junior and senior seasons.
- Also a standout power–lifter, advancing to the state finals.
- Raised by his grandparents, Rachel and Chester Wallace.
- Born Cody Layne Wallace (11/26/84) in Cuero, TX.

PATRICK WILLIS

Ht: 6–1 Wt: 240 Born: 1/25/85
College: Mississippi
Exp: 3rd Year (D–1A in '07)
Career Games/Starts: 32/32

In just two NFL seasons, Patrick Willis has made himself a household name with his stellar play. As the 11th overall selection in the 2007 NFL Draft, Willis made an immediate impact as a rookie, earning All–Pro, Pro Bowl and NFL Defensive Rookie of the Year honors. He followed up his first season by earning Pro Bowl recognition in 2008 after leading the team in tackles for a second straight year. In 32 starts, Willis has tallied 10–or–more tackles in 26 games and 20–or–more stops in 4 contests.

TRANSACTIONS: Originally the first of two first–round (11th pick overall) draft choices by SF in 2007.

GOLDMINE:

- One of Patrick's biggest influences growing up was his uncle Arthur Joe Willis, who was a professional light–heavyweight boxer from 1989–2000, competing in 33 pro fights. Patrick looked up to his uncle because he was able to make a name for himself as a successful boxer. Arthur matched up against James "Lights Out" Toney in 1990, and Toney later went on to beat former heavyweight champion Evander Holyfield in 2003.

AWARDS & HONORS:

2007: NFC Pro Bowl | AP Rookie Defensive Player of the Year | AP All–Pro | PFW/PFWA All–NFL Team | PFW/PFWA Defensive Rookie of the Year | PFW/PFWA All–Rookie Team | NFL Alumni Linebacker of the Year | NFL Defensive Rookie of the Month (October and December) | GMC Defensive Player of the Week (Weeks 12 and 16) | Diet Pepsi Rookie of the Week (Weeks 1, 2, and 12) | Bill Walsh Award (co–recipient with Nate Clements).

2008: NFC Pro Bowl

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

- A two–time Pro Bowl selection (2007–08), was the only rookie to earn All–Pro honors in 2007 as he was named the AP Defensive Rookie of the Year. He became first 49ers defensive rookie to make the Pro Bowl and first–team All–Pro since CB Ronnie Lott in 1981. He joined CB Bruce Taylor (1970), DT Dana Stubblefield (1993) and DT Bryant Young (1994) as 49ers who have won the Defensive Rookie of the Year award.
- Was named Defensive Rookie of the Month for October 2007 after totaling 43 tackles, and for December after amassing 53 stops, 3 sacks, 1 FF and 1 PD.
- Was one of three NFL rookies (49ersT Joe Staley and Browns T Joe Thomas) in 2007 to line up for every single snap.
- According to statistics compiled by Elias Sports Bureau, his 174 total tackles in 2007 led the NFL by more than 30 tackles, while his 141 stops in 2008 ranked 2nd (behind Browns D'Qwell Jackson's 154 tackles).

2008:

- Led the team with 185 tackles as he earned Pro Bowl honors for second consecutive season.
- At Sea. (9/14), recorded first career INT, returning a QB Matt Hasselbeck pass for an 86–yd. TD, which is the longest INT return by a 49ers linebacker. The previous best was a 56–yd. TD return by LB John Johnson at NYG (9/6/92).
- Posted 13 tackles, 2 PDs, and 1 FR at NO (9/28). His FR occurred at the 49ers 3–yd. line to prevent a Saints score.
- Tallied 4th career 20–plus tackle game after finishing with a team–high 22 stops vs. NE (10/6), which also included a sack.
- Registered 16 tackles, 1 FF and 1 PD at Buf. (11/30).
- Tallied 16 tackles, which included 2 key stops on Rams final drive to preserve the 17–16 come–from–behind victory at StL (12/24).

PERSONAL:

- Attended Central (Bruceton, TN) HS, where he earned Class "A" Mr. Football honors and was a two–time All–State choice, helping lead team to 2001 and 2002 Regional Championship and State Quarterfinals.
- Totaled 494 tackles, 23 sacks and 13 INTs (6 returned for TDs) on defense, while tallying 276 carries for 2,486 yds. with 39 TDs and 51 catches for 946 yds. with 17 TDs on offense.
- Also earned 4 letters in basketball and 3 in baseball, garnering all–district in each sport.
- Born Patrick L. Willis (1/25/85) in Bruceton, TN.
- Majored in liberal arts.

TONY WRAGGE

(RAH-gee)

Ht: 6–4 Wt: 310 Born: 8/14/79
College: New Mexico State
Exp: 5th Year (FA in '05)
Career Games/Starts: 38/15

A versatile and powerful offensive lineman, Tony Wragge has served as a valuable player for the 49ers over the past four seasons. Wragge has made starts at center and both guard positions during his career. Originally signed as a rookie free agent by Arizona in 2002, he joined the 49ers in 2005 to provide depth in the trenches.

TRANSACTIONS: Originally signed by Arz. as a rookie free agent in 2002…Waived by Arz. on 8/27/02…Signed by Arz. to the practice squad on 10/30/02…Signed by Arz. to the 53–man roster from the practice squad on 11/22/02… Waived by Arz. on 8/30/03…Signed by Arz. to the practice squad on 11/11/03…Signed by Arz. on 1/12/04…Waived by Arz. on 9/5/04…Signed by SF as a free agent on 7/7/05… Waived by SF on 9/10/05…Signed by SF on 11/29/05… Allocated to NFL Europa's Rhein Fire on 1/11/06...Re–signed by SF on 3/5/07.

GOLDMINE:

- One of the strongest players on the team, Tony is one of three players that do 200–pound dumbell workouts (Moran Norris and Isaac Sopoaga are the others). He was a competitive weightlifter in high school, and owns the Nebraska state high school lifting records for the deadlift (580 lbs) and bench press (365 lbs).
- Tony has kept busy over the past few offseasons. In 2009, he not only took part in the NFL's Business Management and Entrepreneurial Program at Harvard Business School, but he was one of 24 players to partcipate in the NFL's Broadcast Boot Camp in June. In August of 2008, Tony completed his bachelor's degree in individualized studies.

2008 (San Francisco):

- Played in 16 games, starting first 10 contests at RG.
- Started at RG vs. Arz. (9/7) and moved to center for one series in place of an injured Eric Heitmann.
- Part of an O–line that did not allow a sack at Arz. (11/10), breaking a 31–game streak by the Cardinals defense with at least 1 sack.

PERSONAL:

- Prep athlete at Bloomfield Community (Bloomfield, NE) HS, where he earned Class C–2 all–Nebraska honors as a junior and senior. Also a two–time All–Northeast Nebraska Athletic Conference selection and conference Player of the Year.
- Named Northeast Nebraska Player of the Year after each of his high school seasons.
- Born Tony Wragge (8/14/79) in Bloomfield, NE. Married to Nicole. Couple resides in Phoenix, AZ, with daughters, Addison and Avery.

DOMINIQUE ZEIGLER

Ht: 6–3 Wt: 185 Born: 10/11/84
College: Baylor
Exp: 2nd Year (FA in '08)
Career Games/Starts: 8/0

A sure–handed receiver, Dominique Zeigler looks to build upon a 2008 season that saw him play in 8 games as both a wide receiver and punt returner. Zeigler was originally signed as a rookie free agent by the 49ers in 2007 and spent his entire rookie year on the 49ers practice squad.

TRANSACTIONS: Originally signed by SF as a rookie free agent on 5/3/07...Waived by SF on 8/26/07...Signed by SF to the practice squad on 9/2/07...Signed by SF as a free agent on 1/14/08...Waived by SF on 8/31/08...Signed by SF to the practice squad on 9/3/08...Signed by SF to the active roster on 11/8/08.

GOLDMINE:

- A true student of the game, Dominique has been a statistician since he was 14 years old. Right at the time that Rivals.com became a prominent site for scouts, he was one of the first to avidly follow it. With the help of the site, Dominique was able to recite the statistics, high school and background of some of the country's top prep players and still can to this day. When his teammates would ask him about a particular player, Dominique was always eager to give a breakdown. "Whenever anybody needed to know something they always came to me, even when we were in college, they would ask, 'Who is this player?' and I would know his stats," he said.

2008 (San Francisco):

- Was named the Thomas Herrion Memorial Award winner. Spent first 8 weeks on the 49ers practice squad.
- Signed to active roster (11/8) and saw first career action at Arz. (11/10), catching a key pass for 22 yds. on a 2nd–and–25 play with 3:15 remaining.
- Posted 3 special teams stops vs. StL (11/16).
- Tallied 2 catches for 44 yds. vs. NYJ (12/7), including a 31–yd. recept. to position 49ers for their first TD of the game.
- Utilized as a punt returner at Mia. (12/14) in place of KR Allen Rossum (ankle). Returned 2 punts for no gain and had 3 fair catches in windy conditions.

PERSONAL:

- Attended Harker Heights (Killeen, TX) HS, where he lettered in football and track.
- Played QB as a senior and completed 89 of 166 passes for 1,511 yds. and 15 TDs, adding 414 rushing yds. while leading team to an 11–2 record and district title.
- Was a two–year starter at receiver as a junior and sophomore, earning first–team all–district honors.
- Recorded nation's best long jump and captured the Texas state high jump crown. Finished 3rd in high jump (7'0 1/4) and 6th in long jump (22'7 1/4) at 2003 USA Junior Championships.
- Born Dominique Roderick Allen Zeigler (10/11/84) in Kalamazoo, MI.

SAN FRANCISCO 49ERS FOUNDER

Anthony J. (Tony) Morabito

Tony Morabito dedicated his life to bringing an idea to fruition that others thought preposterous – the membership of the West Coast, in general, and San Francisco, in particular, in a nation–wide professional football league.

Morabito was the sports pioneer of the West, bringing San Francisco its first major league professional team, the San Francisco 49ers, in a professional sports business that was dominated by the East Coast. Before World War II, Morabito was convinced the San Francisco Bay Area was ready for a franchise in the National Football League. The Bay Area was a mecca for college football. Fans came in droves to Kezar Stadium to see the Wonder Teams of California–Berkeley and the Wow Boys of Stanford, led by Frankie Albert. St. Mary's, Santa Clara and the University of San Francisco were also area powerhouses that regularly defeated the University of Washington and Southern California inside the walls of Kezar.

Morabito saw the rise of football in the area and presented a case to birth a professional football team in 1942 to National Football League officials, but was quickly ushered out of the meeting room with firm politeness. In the spring of 1944, he took another crack, filing an application for an expansion team in the NFL. Morabito and some of his business associates went to Chicago to present their plan in front of League Commissioner, Elmer Layden. The NFL had no teams west of Chicago, and had no plans of changing their geographical structure. Morabito was again shunned.

He was then put in touch with Arch Ward, sports editor of The Chicago Tribune who was trying to organize a rival league, the All–America Football Conference. Morabito told Ward to count him in.

The new league's first meeting was held on June 6, 1944 in St. Louis, D–Day in Europe. Morabito agreed to form a San Francisco franchise in a league which would not begin operations until the end of the war.

It was the right time, and Morabito knew it.

A native of San Francisco, Morabito learned the game of football on vacant lots in the North Beach sector and had some success later as a halfback at St. Ignatius High School. He went on to play for the University of Santa Clara as a freshman in 1927 but his playing career was ended shortly after by a shoulder injury. He received his diploma in 1931 in the height of the Great Depression. He got a job driving a truck for $80 a month while his father, an immigrant from Italy, had built up a flourishing ship's service business on the San Francisco waterfront, only to see it fold in the wake of the depression years.

But as the country's economic state began to improve, so did Morabito's. By 1940, when he was 30 years old, he became a success in the lumber carrier business. The army turned him down for duty in 1942 because of partial deafness, which later forced him to wear a hearing aid.

By 1946, the San Francisco 49ers first year of operation, the Bay Area was in the middle of a postwar economic surge. Morabito's lumber yard was in huge demand as houses were springing up to shelter the fast–growing population that was migrating to California.

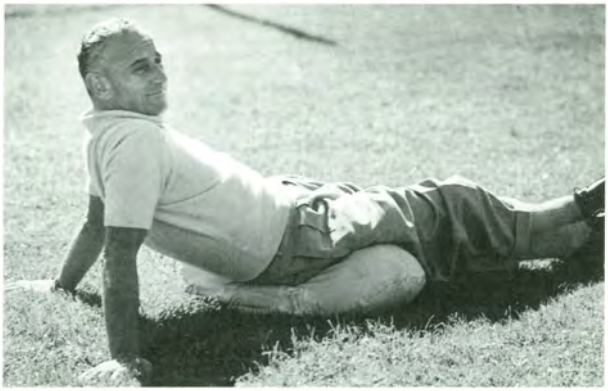
Morabito owned the new All–America Football Conference franchise with his partners in the Lumber Terminals of San Francisco – Allen E. Sorrell and E.J. Turre – and his younger brother, Victor.

Sorell suggested the team be named "49ers" after the voyagers who had rushed the West for gold. It is the only name the team has ever been affiliated with and San Francisco is the only city in which it has resided. The original team logo depicted San Francisco's wild beginnings. It was a goldminer in boots and a lumberjack shirt, firing a pair of pistols. One shot just missed the miner's head, while the other missed his foot. The logo was taken from a design seen on the side of railway freight cars.

With a charter, name and logo, the group recruited Lawrence "Buck" Shaw, Santa Clara's famous "Silver Fox," as the 49ers first head coach. The organization spent $250,000 to get structured before the team even took their first snap. Morabito's approach was considered "first class," by most, and a financial risk by many.

But Morabito charged on, hand–picking an inaugural roster that was comprised of 32 players including Frankie Albert, Norm Standlee and Bruno Banducci, all from Stanford, and stars from Santa Clara, including Alyn Beals, an end who scored 46 pro touchdowns in four years. Other known players on the roster were Len Eshmont, Johnny "Johnny Strike" Strzykalski and Joe "The Toe" Ventrano.

Morabito watched as his 49ers played their first game on August 24, 1946, a 17–7 exhibition win over the Los Angeles Dons at Balboa Park in San Diego. The 49ers first home game was played at Kezar Stadium on September 1, 1946, a 34–14 exhibition win over the Chicago Rockets in front of 45,000 fans made up of longshoremen, draymen, mechanics and waterfront workers.



49ers Founder, Tony Morabito

The first regular season league game was on September 8, 1946 against the New York Yankees. The 49ers scored first, but lost 21–7 in a game that began in sunshine and ended in the famous Kezar fog.

The 49ers finished 9–5 in their first season under Shaw, and went on to have an 8–4–2 record in 1947, 12–2 finish in 1948 and 10–4 record, including a trip to the Championship Game, in their final season in the AAFC.

At the end of 1949, it was announced that the AAFC had run its course. San Francisco, Cleveland and Baltimore received NFL franchises and would begin play in the NFL in 1950. The merger was what Morabito had hoped for all along as he, his brother Victor and general manager Lou Spadia, continued to hold the reins.

The 49ers struggled during their first season among the NFL elite, finishing with a 3–9 record. The following year though, the 49ers went 7–4–1.

As the seasons went on, Morabito was the heart and soul of the organization, signing on greats like The Million Dollar Backfield: Joe "The Jet" Perry, Hugh "The King" McElhenny and John Henry Johnson. He also attracted some of the NFL's most renowned talents in R.C. Owens, Bob St. Clair, Leo Nomellini, John Brodie and Y.A. Tittle.

The players appreciated his honesty, and trusted his every move and word.

As the 1950's progressed, Morabito was warned by his doctors that a bad heart and the rigors of football were not a healthy combination. But Morabito wasn't going to let a health scare get in the way of continuing with his passion. "What the hell, if I'm going to die, I might as well die at a football game," he said.

On October 27, 1957, the 49ers hosted the Chicago Bears at Kezar. The 49ers entered the game with a 3–1 record behind the talents of Owens, Perry, Tittle, McElhenny, Billy Wilson, and others. The Bears had a 14–0 advantage in the first quarter before the 49ers scored to close the deficit at 14–7. Just as the 49ers lined up for the next kickoff, Morabito, who was sitting next to his wife, Josephine, and his brother, Victor, in the guest box, suddenly collapsed. The great heart that had been with the 49ers since the franchise's inception had failed.

Father Bill McGuire of St. James parish was summoned to the guest box and pronounced Morabito his final absolution. Morabito looked up at him and smiled.

"Thank you father," he said.

Those were his last words.

The 49ers were behind 17–7 in the third quarter when the team learned of Morabito's death. His players rallied and came back to defeat Chicago, 21–17, in an emotional last win for their owner. The 49ers finished the season with three straight victories and an 8–4 record, tying Detroit for the NFL Western Division title.

Victor, Tony's younger brother, kept the team in the family until 1964, when he too died of a heart attack. Both Victor and Tony's wives, Jane and Josephine, retained control of the 49ers with Lou Spadia as team president until 1977, when a new team owner, Edward DeBartolo Jr. of Youngstown, Ohio emerged to buy the franchise.

Morabito's conviction, passion and character birthed and kept an NFL franchise in San Francisco, and laid the sturdy foundation that has enabled the 49ers to become one of the NFL's premier football powers over the past 60 years.

LEN ESHMONT AWARD

The Len Eshmont Award, the 49ers most prestigious annual honor, has been given each year to the 49ers player who best exemplifies the "inspirational and courageous play" of Len Eshmont. A member of the original 1946 49ers team, Eshmont coached at Navy and Virginia following his playing days with the 49ers. Eshmont died in 1957.

Listed below are the 49ers annual Len Eshmont Award winners since its inception in 1957:

BOBB MCKITTRICK AWARD

This award is given annually to the 49ers offensive lineman who best exemplifies the dedication, excellence and commitment of offensive line coach Bobb McKittrick, a five–time Super Bowl champion.

In 1999, the San Francisco 49ers, under the direction of Bill Walsh, established the Bobb McKittrick Award. The award is meant to honor those offensive linemen who have best represented the courage, intensity and sacrifice displayed by the late Coach McKittrick during his 21 years of service with the 49ers.

"Bobb gave distinguished service to the organization since our renaissance in 1979," Walsh said. "He was a vital factor in five Super Bowl championships, the evolution of a dynasty and in the production of some of the finest offensive linemen in football. Offensive linemen don't receive the recognition they so richly deserve. This gives us a venue to honor their sacrifices and achievements."

A bronze plaque of McKittrick hangs in the 49ers locker room surrounded by the photographs of the McKittrick Award winners.

ED BLOCK COURAGE AWARD

The Ed Block Courage Award is named after Ed Block, the former head athletic trainer of the Baltimore Colts of 23 years. Block was a pioneer in his profession and a respected humanitarian whose most passionate cause was helping children of abuse. The award is presented in his name each year to the player that exemplified a commitment to sportsmanship and courage. Ed Block Courage Award winners from each of the 32 NFL teams are honored at a banquet in Baltimore, MD. All proceeds from the event benefit the Ed Block Courage Award Foundation's Courage House National Support Network. Named after the NFL team in a respective NFL city, a Courage House is a facility that provides support and quality care for abused children and their families in that community. The 49ers dedicated their Courage House in October 2003 at the Edgewood House in San Francisco.

BILL WALSH AWARD

The Bill Walsh Award was established in 2004 in honor of San Francisco's Hall of Fame Head Coach Bill Walsh, who passed away in 2007. Walsh served as the team's head coach for 10 seasons from 1979–88. In that time, he compiled a record of 102–63–1 and led the team to three Super Bowl victories. He was twice named NFL Coach of the Year (1981, 1984) and was later named Coach of the Decade for the 1980s. The award, which is voted on by coaches only, is given to the 49ers Team MVP, honoring his outstanding individual performance.

MATT HAZELTINE AWARD

The Hazeltine Iron Man Award is named after linebacker/center Matt Hazeltine, a 13–year performer who played more seasons at linebacker than any other 49ers player. Known for his durability and dedication, Hazeltine passed away in 1987 from amyotrophic lateral sclerosis (ALS) and Bill Walsh established the award in his honor that year. The award is given annually to the most courageous and inspirational defensive player.

49ERS IN THE HALL OF FAME

Leo Nomellini

1969–DT Leo Nomellini (1950–63). Was the first ever draft choice after the 49ers joined the NFL. Played every 49ers game for 14 seasons. Altogether he played in 174 consecutive regular season games, including 10 trips to the Pro Bowl, and played in 266 contests. "The Lion" became one of the few to be named to an All–NFL team on both offense and defense. Retired at age 39. Played college ball at the University of Minnesota. Born June 19, 1924 in Lucca, Italy.

Joe Perry

1969–FB Joe Perry (1948–60, 63). First player in NFL history to gain 1,000 yards two consecutive seasons. His 9,723 rushing yards placed him second only to Jim Brown when he retired. Finished career with 12,505 combined yards. Nicknamed "The Jet" because of his quick starts. Also played for the Baltimore Colts (1961–62). Attended Compton Junior College. Born January 22, 1927 in Stevens, AR.

Hugh McElhenny

1970–HB Hugh McElhenny (1952–60). One of only three players to gain over 11,000 yards carrying the ball. Scored 60 career touchdowns, 38 rushing, including a 42–yard touchdown run on his first pro play in preseason. In 1952 McElhenny had the longest punt return (94) and longest play from scrimmage (89). Scored two touch–downs in first Pro Bowl after his rookie year. Also played for Minnesota Vikings (1961–62), New York Giants (1963) and Detroit Lions (1964). Played college football at University of Washington. Born December 31, 1928 in Los Angeles, CA.

Y. A. Tittle

1971–QB Y.A. Tittle (1951–60). Had 17 years of NFL experience, finishing his career with 33,070 passing yards and 281 touchdowns (39 rushing). Won NFL Most Valu–able Player Award in 1961 and '63. Threw 33 touchdown passes and a career–high 3,224 yards in 1962. In '63 he threw 36 touchdowns, completing 60.2 percent of his passes. Also played for the Baltimore Colts (1948–50) and the New York Giants (1961–64). Played college ball at Lousiana State University. Born October 24, 1926 in Marshall, TX.

John Henry Johnson

1987–FB John Henry Johnson (1954–56). Was a member of what's been noted as the finest backfield in NFL history. The foursome known as "The Million Dollar Back–field" and "The Fabulous Foursome" included three other Hall of Famers—QB Y.A. Tittle and RBs Joe Perry and Hugh McElhenny. Gained 6,803 yards rushing, includ–ing 48 touchdowns. Also played for the Detroit Lions (1957–59), Pittsburgh Steelers (1960–65) and Houston Oilers (1966). Attended St. Mary's College and Arizona State University. Born November 24, 1929 in Waterproof, LA.

Bob St. Clair

1990–T Bob St. Clair (1953–63). Exceptional offensive lineman. Also played goal line defense and blocked 10 field goals in 1956. Once lost five teeth when block–ing a punt. Earned All–NFL honors three times and made five Pro Bowl appear–ances. Attended University of San Francisco and Tulsa. Born February 18, 1931 in San Francisco, CA.

Bill Walsh

1993–Head Coach Bill Walsh (1979–88). Led "The Team of the '80s" to three Super Bowl titles (XVI, XIX, XXIII) in 10 years. Compiled a .617 winning percentage with a 102–63–1 mark that included 10 wins in 14 postseason games. Notorious for his reputation of being an outstanding offensive coach, Walsh developed what is now known as the "West Coast Offense." Named NFL Coach of the Year in 1981 and '84. Attended San Jose State. Born November 30, 1931 in Los Angeles, CA.

Jimmy Johnson

1994–CB Jimmy Johnson (1961–76). Starter on both offense and defense at UCLA. Began 49ers career as a defensive back, moved to offense, then stayed at DB in his third season. Intercepted 47 passes for 615 yards, including five his rookie year. As a receiver in 1962 he caught 34 passes for 627 yards and four touchdowns. Rec–ognized as one of the best man–to–man defenders in NFL history. Played in five Pro Bowls and twice won the prestigious Len EshmontAward selected by his teammates for inspirational play. Born March 31, 1938 in Dallas, TX.

Joe Montana

2000–QB Joe Montana (1979–92). Solidified his place in professional sports an–nals with numerous NFL records and a legendary reputation as a leader. Finished his career with 40,551 yards passing and 273 touchdowns. Ranks second all–time in team history with a 92.3 career passer rating and 62.3 completion percentage. Led the league in passing in 1987 and 1989. Won back–to–back NFL MVP awards in 1989 and 1990. Named the Sports Illustrated Sportsman–of–the–Year in 1990. Named Super Bowl MVP an unprecedented three times. Directed his team to the playoffs 12 times and boasts a 95.6 passer rating in 23 postseason games. Holds NFL postseason records in completions (460), attempts (734), yards gained (5,772), touchdowns (45) and 300–yard passing games (6). Born June 11, 1956 in New Eagle, PA.

Ronnie Lott

2000–DB Ronnie Lott (1981–90). Known as one of the most ferocious and feared players in NFL history. Played in 10 Pro Bowls and won four Super Bowl Champion–ships. Earned All–Pro honors at three different positions: cornerback, free safety and strong safety. Registered 1,161 career tackles, including five seasons with at least 100 tackles. Ranks sixth in NFL history with 63 interceptions. Led the league in interceptions in 1986 and 1991 and returned five interceptions for touchdowns. Holds the NFL record for postseason interceptions with nine. Named to the 75th Anniversary All–Time team, 1980's All–Decade team and Super Bowl Silver An–niversary team as a cornerback. Born May 8, 1959 in Albuquerque, NM.

Dave Wilcox

2000–LB Dave Wilcox (1964–74). Nicknamed "The Intimidator" by coaches and teammates for his tough, hard–nosed playing style. Considered to be one of the finest outside linebackers to ever play the game. Earned seven Pro Bowl nominations and was a seven–time All–Pro selection. Was selected by his teammates as the Len Eshmont Award winner as the team's most inspirational and courageous player in 1967. Had his best season as a professional in 1973, recording 104 tackles, 13 for loss, two interceptions, four forced fumbles and one fumble recovery. Recovered 12 career fumbles for 48 yards and one touchdown. Born September 29, 1942 in Eugene, OR.

Steve Young

2005–QB Steve Young (1987–99). One of the greatest quarterbacks in NFL history, standing as the most accurate passer in league history with a 96.8 quarterback rating. Ranks 22nd all–time with 2,667 career completions, 21st all–time with 33,124 passing yards and 19th all–time with 232 touchdown passes. Dominating arm strength and mobility yielded 232 regular season touchdown tosses and 4,239 rushing yards during his years at Tampa Bay (1985–86) and San Francisco (1987–99). Recorded 28, 300–yard passing games during his prolific career, holding an NFL record for most consecutive 300–yard games with six in 1998. His 43 rushing touchdowns are the most by a quarterback in pro football history. Was a two–time NFL Most Valuable Player (1992 & 1994) and Super Bowl XXIX MVP. Earned seven consecutive Pro Bowl nominations (1992–98) and was All–Pro (1992–94). Six touchdown passes in Super Bowl XXIX victory over San Diego stands as a Super Bowl record. Born October 11, 1961 in Salt Lake City, UT.

Fred Dean

2008–DE Fred Dean (1981–85). One of the first true pass–rushers in the game, Dean's revolutionary play made an immediate impact upon joining the 49ers in a 1981 mid–season trade. Went on to help 49ers win Super Bowl XVI and Super Bowl XIX. Recorded 93.5 sacks in career, including 40 sacks in five seasons with 49ers to rank seventh on team's all–time list. Posted career–high 17.5 sacks in 1983. Was a four–time Pro Bowler (1979–81, 83) and All–Pro (1979–81, 83). Earned UPI's NFC Defensive Player of the Year (1981). SAN FRANCISCO'S WINNING TRADITION

For two decades (1980–99), the San Francisco 49ers established themselves as the NFL's most dominant franchise. The 49ers won more Super Bowls, posted more winning seasons, claimed more divisional titles and made more playoff appearances than any team in the league over that 20–year stretch.

Since the DeBartolo Corporation purchased the team in 1977, the 49ers made one of the most dramatic turnarounds in sports history, rebounding from back–to–back 2–14 seasons in 1978–79 to Super Bowl Champions in 1981. The 49ers unparalleled success continued into the '90s, winning their fifth Super Bowl in 1994, becoming the first team in NFL history to win five Super Bowl titles.
